PREFACE.

I DESIRE to say a few words in explanation of the mode of arrangement adopted in the following notes. They are almost exclusively explanatory.

My object has been throughout to give the greatest quantity of information in the least possible space: I have, therefore, in strict accordance with this desire, disregarded the violation of unity of arrangement whenever it interfered with this primary and paramount aim; and have endeavoured throughout to combine perspicuity with brevity, giving only the most useful and important information, so far as the space to which I was necessarily restricted permitted me. Short as the notes are, they form as much matter as would be contained in twelve hundred ordinary octavo pages.

I have, as it will be seen, reserved the larger portion of Notes for the NEW TESTAMENT. It is, indeed, true that the Psalms, and the Prophecies which follow them, are of signal importance; but as the shortest explanation of the numerous obscure passages contained in those prodigiously sublime revelations would have very greatly swelled the bulk of annotations, yet without allowing space for a complete unravelment of those perplexities, inseparable from all prophetical communications, more than occasionally occurring in them, I have contented myself with a brief abstract of each chapter, offering as concise a view of the subject treated in it, and of the particular intent or bearing of the prophecy, as I could, consistently with my desire of presenting a distinct and perspicuous, though brief, view of the subject. Feeling that a too concise, and therefore unsatisfactory, explanation would have answered no good purpose, but would often have still further increased the difficulties so frequently occurring in those sacred depositories of revelation, rather than have obviated them satisfactorily, I preferred giving a short, but general, Introduction to the chapters of the Psalms and Prophecies to proceeding, as I have done in the earlier portions of the sacred text, with a running Commentary.

In the Revelation of St. John I have likewise interrupted the continuity of design by employing a paraphrase, instead of notes, as this enabled me to afford a much fuller explanation in a given space than I could have done by the usual mode of an exegetical Commentary. The paraphrase is for the most part a greatly abridged version of Lowman's, from which I have seldom deviated, and only when I found him not sufficiently clear, and never on any point of paramount importance.

I trust then the Reader will content himself with the reflection that he has as much information as could well be conveyed within the compass of a single octavo volume containing at once the Inspired Text and annotations, more or less, or explanatory matter, upon every chapter in Holy Writ. I have laboured hard, and with great anxiety to be useful, and humbly trust that my "labour will not be in vain in the Lord."

CHAP. I.

1 The creation of heaven and earth, 3 of the light, 6 of the firmament, 9 of the earth separated from the waters, 11 and made fruitful, 14 of the sun, moon, and stars, 20 of fish, and fowl, 24 of beasts and cattle, 26 of man in the image of God. 29 Also the appointment of food.

IN the [a] beginning [b] God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was without form and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. [c] And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 [d] And God said, [e] Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided [*] the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light [f] Day, and the darkness he called Night. † And the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 ¶ And God said, [g] Let there be a ‡ firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, [h] and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were [i] above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ And God said, [k] Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth [l] bring forth § grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding [m] fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be [n] lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide ‖ the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and [o] for seasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God [p] made two great lights; the greater light * to rule the day, and [q] the lesser light to rule the night: he made [r] the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,

18 And to * rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God said, [t] Let the waters bring forth abundantly the † moving creature that hath ‡ life, and fowl § that may fly above the earth in the ‖ open firmament of heaven.

21 And [u] God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, [w] Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ And God said, [x] Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and [y] let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, [z] in the image of God created he him; [a] male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, [b] Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that * moveth upon the earth.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb † bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in

Ver. 1. In the beginning.—When duration first began to be computed by intervals. God.—This is an Anglo-Saxon term, signifying good, God being the source and sum of all good. Created the heavens and the earth.—The whole solar system, and the world we inhabit, including the atmosphere with which it is surrounded.

Ver. 2. And the earth was without form.—The preliminary creation was simply the materials of which the heavens and the earth were composed; these had no definite form, and were "void" of life, either animal or vegetable, consisting only of the primitive chaos, not having the vital principle infused until "the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters," where all was confusion and "darkness." Upon this unorganized mass the Spirit of God moved, or brooded, and by this divine incubation the primitive elements were stirred into active combination, and the vital or prolific principle communicated to them.

Ver. 3. And God said, Let there be light.—That is, fire, the cause of light and heat, which was not collected into a body until the fourth day, when it was condensed into the sun's orb. This element was produced so early to accelerate the digestion of the inert chaos, preparatory to the more harmonious union of its parts.

Ver. 4. And God divided the light from the darkness.—By the operation of the fire, or latent heat, set in action by the divine dispensation, the primordial atoms were excited into immediate commotion, when the rarer particles being separated from the more condensed, the former rose above the latter by their own specific tenuity; and the more lucid, rising above all, were put into a circular motion, and made to visit the whole chaotic expanse in the course of a natural day, which produced a separation of the light from darkness.

Ver. 5. And the evening and the morning were the first day.—These latter words simply refer to the rotation of the earth round its own axis, and which motion was probably given to it at this moment, in order to produce that division of day and night which was perfected upon the formation of the sun.

Ver. 6. And God said, Let there be a firmament.—This word signifies not only the region which immediately surrounds the earth, but the whole planetary space occupied by the solar system.

Ver. 7. And God divided the waters, &c.—God separated the denser from the lighter vapours, the former remaining in the lower part of the firmament, and forming clouds, the latter sinking to the earth.

Ver. 9. The waters under the firmament being now collected into their proper receptacles, formed rivers and seas.

Ver. 11. Let the earth bring forth grass, &c.—The term in this verse includes all kinds of vegetable productions which were produced, containing each within itself the principle of germination.

Ver. 14. Let there be light.—The division of day and night was now definitively fixed by the light being distributed into astral, and reflected from planetary bodies, which were not only to complete that division, but also to mark certain intervals of time and the different seasons produced by the various rotations of the planetary system.

Ver. 21. And God creat'd great whales.—The word whale seems to be a general, rather than a generic, term, comprising all the large aquatic tribes.

Ver. 26. Let us make man in our own image.—The soul of man being spiritual was made in the image of God, who was a spirit, consequently the source whence that spiritual subsistence, the human soul, was derived: it could not therefore but bear a resemblance to that from which it proceeded, as the stream resembles the fountain whence it is produced.

the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; [c] to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to [d] every beast of the earth, and to every [e] fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is † life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And [f] God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAP. II.

1 The first sabbath. 4 The manner of the creation. 8 The planting of the garden of Eden, 10 and the rivers thereof. 17 The tree of knowledge only forbidden. 19, 20 The naming of the creatures. 21 The making of woman, and institution of marriage.

THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and [a] all the host of them.

2 [b] And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God [c] blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God ‡ created and made.

4 ¶ [d] These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.

5 And every [e] plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not [f] caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man [g] to till the ground.

6 But § there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man ‖ of the [h] dust of the ground, and [i] breathed into his [k] nostrils the breath of life; and [l] man became a living soul.

8 ¶ And the LORD God planted [m] a garden [n] eastward in [o] Eden; and there [p] he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow [q] every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food; [r] the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, [s] and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is [t] Pison: that is it which compasseth [u] the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is good: [v] there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of * Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river is [x] Hiddekel: that is it which goeth † toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And the LORD God took ‡ the man, and [y] put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden § thou mayest freely eat:

17 [z] But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, [a] thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day thou eatest thereof [b] ‖ thou shalt surely die.

18 ¶ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; [c] I will make [d] him an help * meet for him.

19 [e] And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and [f] brought them unto † Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Adam ‡ gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

21 And the LORD God caused a [g] deep § sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

22 And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, § made he a woman, and [h] brought her unto the man.

23 And Adam said, This is now [i] bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called ‖ Woman, because she was [k] taken out of * Man.

24 [l] Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

25 [m] And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not [n] ashamed.

CHAP. II. Ver. 3. God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it.—God, having rested on the seventh day, constituted it likewise a day of rest for all people; by blessing it he rendered it holy—a day especially appointed for holy purposes—for praising him and publicly soliciting his blessings. By consecrating it he not only set it apart for a community of worship but to be solemnized as his Sabbath, that is, his day of rest, being the day which followed the great and glorious work of his creation.

Ver. 5. And every plant of the field.—Every vegetable production, as well as man, was brought at once to perfect maturity, so that Adam, when created, found every thing ready for his use. It was moreover fitted to produce its own kind to the end of time.

Ver. 7. And God made man out of the dust of the ground.—Thus man was formed, of common earth; the most glorious of the Creator's works from the most ordinary material of his creation; probably to signify the meanness of his natural origin in contradistinction to his spiritual being, which was after the divine image. And man became a living soul. He derived from God the spiritual portion of his existence, and this proceeding from an immortal source is likewise in consequence immortal.

Ver. 8. Eden signifies pleasure or delight, implying that the primitive Paradise was a place of pure bliss.

Ver. 9. The tree of life was a sacramental symbol representing, as Bishop Patrick has supposed, "that life which man was to hope for in another world if he proved obedient." In this. And the tree of knowledge of good and evil.—A tree which had the power of so invigorating the spiritual faculties, as other esculent substances have of strengthening the bodily, as to impart an intuitive perception of good and evil. "By abstaining from eating this fruit, as God commanded, a knowledge of good would be enjoyed, and by eating it a knowledge of evil would be fatally introduced." —Scott.

Ver. 17. For in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.—That is, thou shalt forfeit thy immortality and become subject to the infirmities and final dissolution of the mortal state.

Ver. 21. And he took one of his ribs.—"It is immaterial," says Dr. Adam Clarke, "whether we render tsela a rib, or a part of his side; for it may mean either. Some part of man was to be used on the occasion, whether bone or flesh it matters not; thus it is likely, from verse 23, that part of both was taken: for Adam, knowing how the woman was formed, said, this is flesh of my flesh, and bone of my bone. God could have formed the woman out of the dust of the earth, as he had formed the man; but had he done so, she must have appeared in his eyes as a distinct being, to whom he had no natural relation. But as God formed her out of a part of the man himself, he saw she was of the same nature, the same identical flesh and blood, and of the same constitution in all respects, and consequently having equal powers, faculties and rights. This at once ensured his affection and excited his esteem."

Ver. 23. She shall be called Woman.—The Hebrew word signifies literally a she-man, of which our English word woman is a faithful rendering, being a contraction of the old Saxon word womb-man, or the man with a womb—that is the feminine of man.

Ver. 24. Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife.—This was said by anticipation, there never having yet been father or mother, humanly speaking; Adam therefore must have spoken by express revelation from God. And they shall be one flesh. Here was the first institution of marriage, and it is shown to be one of most sacred obligation.

CHAP. III.

1 The serpent deceiveth Eve. 6 Man's shameful fall. 9 God arraigneth them. 14 The serpent is cursed. 15 The promised seed. 16 The punishment of mankind. 21 Their first clothing. 22 Their casting out of paradise.

NOW [a] the serpent was [b] more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, * Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 [c] But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 [d] And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then [e] your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was † pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, [f] and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; [g] and he did eat.

7 And [h] the eyes of them both were opened, [i] and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves ‡ aprons.

8 And they heard [k] the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the § cool of the day: and Adam and his wife [l] hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, [m] and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

12 And the man said, [n] The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, [o] The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 And the LORD God said [p] unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and [q] dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between [r] thy seed and [s] her seed; [t] it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; [u] in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; [v] and thy desire shall be ‖ to thy husband, and he shall [x] rule over thee.

17 And unto Adam he said, [y] Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, [z] and hast eaten of the tree, [a] of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: [b] cursed is the ground for thy sake; [c] in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life;

18 [d] Thorns also and thistles shall it * bring forth to thee; and * thou shalt eat the herb of the field;

19 [f] In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: [g] for dust thou art, and [h] unto dust shalt thou return.

20 And Adam called his wife's name † ‡ Eve; because she was the mother of all living.

21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the LORD God said, [i] Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, [k] and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:

CHAP. III. Ver. 1. Now the serpent.—The serpent is said to be extremely wily and insidious, and was supposed before the fall not only to have been endowed with cunning in a degree above all creatures, but likewise to have possessed uncommon grace of form, and, next to man, to have been gifted with the highest powers of sagacity and understanding. It was a glorious creature, of consummate beauty and great fascination, and therefore made by Satan the instrument of that temptation which brought the penalty of condemnation upon the whole human race.

Ver. 4. Ye shall not surely die.—It is here remarkable that the Devil directly charges the Deity with falsehood; and thus, by raising in the woman's mind an impression of God's fallibility, he had no difficulty in beguiling her into an infraction of the covenant of works.

Ver. 5. And God doth know.—This appeal to God's knowledge was one of the most consummate artifices of the first temptation. Satan does not simply tell the woman that so and so is the fact, but boldly asserts that God knows it to be the fact,—a mode of assurance much more likely to sway Eve's decision than the serpent's simple assseveration. And ye shall be as gods—like the inferior divinities, endowed with all knowledge except that which is exclusively hidden in the divine mind.

Ver. 7. And the eyes of them both were opened—They had an immediate perception of evil and a consciousness of their transgression, which was the effect of having violated the divine prohibition. The eyes of their minds were now opened as well as the eyes of their bodies they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together. The leaves of the Indian fig-tree are very large, so that a few of them would have formed a complete covering. Our first parents became immediately conscious of their loss of innocence.

Ver. 8. And they heard the voice of God walking in the garden.—I am inclined to think that this is a mere inversion, and should be pointed thus—I heard the voice of God, walking in the garden in the cool of the day. Bishop Patrick, however, says, "the walking may be referred to the voice" as well as to the Lord. The majority of commentators seem to take a similar view of the passage, considering the voice used by way of synecdoche for the Lord, who, though he walked, or was especially present in the garden, the criminals did not perceive, but only heard, for him "no man hath seen, nor can see."

Ver. 12. The woman whom thou gavest me.—The effect of communicated evil is here remarkable. Satan in his temptation seems to charge God with falsehood in declaring that he knew the transgressors, to whom he had threatened death, would not die upon a breach of covenant; and Adam, when asked by an offended Deity if he had violated the commandment of obedience, charges the Almighty, by implication, with being the cause of his having transgressed, by stating that the woman, whom God in kindness gave to him, had seduced him from his fealty—the woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

Ver. 13. The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.—Neither Adam nor Eve confessed their guilt, but both endeavoured to exculpate themselves, the one by transferring the blame upon the woman, and the other upon the serpent.

Ver. 15. I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed.—God here pronounces that there shall be a perpetual hostility between the devil and his angels, and man and his posterity, but the especial seed of the woman, born out of the ordinary course of generation, was here declared to be the great foe of Satan, whom that promised seed should eventually overcome, and secure to man the means of deliverance from his thraldom.

Ver. 20. And Adam called his wife's name Eve.—The Septuagint version has the passage thus—And Adam called his wife's name Life, which certainly agrees better with the succeeding context, because she was the mother of all living.

Ver. 21. God made coats of skins.—Upon this passage Dr Clarke has an admirable comment.—"It is very likely that the skins out of which their clothing was made were taken off animals whose blood had been poured out as a sin-offering to God; for as we find Cain and Abel offering sacrifices to God, we may fairly presume that God had given them instructions on this head; nor is it likely that the notion of a sacrifice could have ever occurred to the mind of man without an express revelation from God. Hence we may safely infer—first, that as Adam and Eve needed this clothing as soon as they fell, and death had not as yet made any ravages in the animal world, it is most likely that the skins were taken off victims offered under the direction of God himself, and in faith of Him who, in the fulness of time, was to make an atonement by his death. And secondly, it seems reasonable also that this matter should be brought about in such a way that Satan and death should have no triumph, when the very first death that took place in the world was an emblem and true of that death which should conquer Satan, destroy his empire, reconcile God to man, convert man to God, sanctify human nature and prepare it for heaven."

23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, [l] to till the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he drove out the man; and he placed [m] at the east of the garden of Eden [n] Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

AND Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare § Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.

2 And she again bare his brother ‖ Abel. And Abel was [] a keeper of sheep, but Cain was [] a tiller of the ground.

3 And [†] in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought [b] of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.

4 And Abel, he also brought of [c] the firstlings of his ‡ flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD had [d] respect unto Abel and to his offering:

5 But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, [e] and his countenance fell.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not § be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And ‖ unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and [f] slew him.

9 ¶ And the LORD said unto Cain, [g] Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, [h] I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's [*] blood [i] crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand;

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, [†] My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 [k] Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and [l] from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, [m] that every one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him [n] sevenfold. And the LORD [o] set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare ‡ Enoch: and he builded a city, [q] and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch.

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat § Lamech.

19 ¶ And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the [r] father of all such as handle the harp and organ.

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-cain, an ‖ instructer of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for [*] I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man [†] to my hurt:

24 [s] If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

25 ¶ And Adam knew his wife again, and she bare a son, and [t] called his name ‡ § Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew.

26 And to Seth, [u] to him also there was born a son; and he called his name ‖ Enos: then began men [*] [w] to call upon the name of the LORD.

It prevented all future access to the tree of life.

CHAP. IV. Ver. 7. Sin lieth at the door.—Sin is here put by a common metonymy for the punishment of sin, which is every where ready to follow the offence co mitted.

Ver. 15. And God set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.—Commentators have been extremely puzzled to explain what the mark upon Cain was. "Some think," says Stackhouse, "that God stigmatized him on his forehead with a letter of his own name, or rather set such a brand upon him as signified him to be accursed. Others fancy that God made him a peculiar garment to distinguish him from the rest of mankind, who were clothed with skins. Some imagine that his head continually shaked; others that his face was blasted with lightning; others that his body trembled all over; and others, again, that the ground shook under him and made every one flee from him. Whereas the plain sense of the word is nothing more than that God gave him a sign, or wrought a miracle before his face, thereby to convince him that, though he was banished into a strange land, yet no one should be permitted to hurt him."

Ver. 23. For I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt.—Upon the exact meaning of this passage commentators are by no means agreed; it is one of great obscurity. Bishop Patrick reads the words interrogatively, and supposes that Lamech maintains his innocence to be a sufficient security against danger from personal enemies; for as he implies, in the next verse, if Cain who committed murder was protected against violence from hostile persons, much more shall I be who am an innocent man.

Ver. 26. Then began men to call upon the name of the Lord—that is, to protest against the prevailing impiety, and to distinguish themselves by uniting in the public worship of God.

CHAP. I.

1 The creation of heaven and earth, 3 of the light, 6 of the firmament, 9 of the earth separated from the waters, 11 and made fruitful, 14 of the sun, moon, and stars, 20 of fish, and fowl, 24 of beasts and cattle, 26 of man in the image of God. 29 Also the appointment of food.

Before CHRIST 4004.

IN the [a] beginning [b] God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was without form and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. [c] And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 [d] And God said, [e] Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided * the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light [f] Day, and the darkness he called Night. † And the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 ¶ And God said, [g] Let there be a ‡ firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, [h] and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were [i] above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ And God said, [k] Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth [l] bring forth § grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding [m] fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be [n] lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide ‖ the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and [o] for seasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God [p] made two great lights; the greater light * to rule the day, and [q] the lesser light to rule the night: he made [r] the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,

18 And to * rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God said, [t] Let the waters bring forth abundantly the † moving creature that hath ‡ life, and fowl § that may fly above the earth in the ‖ open firmament of heaven.

21 And [u] God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, [v] Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ And God said, [x] Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and [y] let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, [z] in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, [b] Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that * moveth upon the earth.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb † bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in

Ver. 1. In the beginning.—When duration first began to be computed by intervals. God.—This is an Anglo-Saxon term, signifying good, God being the source and sum of all good. Created the heavens and the earth.—The whole solar system, and the world we inhabit, including the atmosphere with which it is surrounded.

Ver. 2. And the earth was without form.—The preliminary creation was simply the materials of which the heavens and the earth were composed; these had no definite form, and were "void" of life, either animal or vegetable, consisting only of the primitive chaos, not having the vital principle infused until "the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters," where all was confusion and "darkness." Upon this unorganised mass the Spirit of God moved, or brooded, and by this divine incubation the primitive elements were stirred into active combination, and the vital or prolific principle communicated to them.

Ver. 3 And God said, Let there be light.—That is, fire, the cause of light and heat, which was not collected into a body until the fourth day, when it was condensed into the sun's orb. This element was produced so early to accelerate the digestion of the inert chaos, preparatory to the more harmonious union of its parts.

Ver. 4. And God divided the light from the darkness.—By the operation of the fire, or latent heat, set in action by the divine dispensation, the primordial atoms were excited into immediate commotion, when the rarer particles being separated from the more condensed, the former rose above the latter by their own specific tenuity; and the more lucid, rising above all, were put into a circular motion, and made to visit the whole chaotic expanse in the course of a natural day, which produced a separation of the light from darkness.

Ver. 5. And the evening and the morning were the first day.—These latter words simply refer to the rotation of the earth round its own axis, and which motion was probably given to it at this moment, in order to produce that division of day and night which was perfected upon the formation of the sun.

Ver. 6. And God said, Let there be a firmament.—This word signifies not only the region which immediately surrounds the earth, but the whole planetary space occupied by the solar system.

Ver. 7. And God divided the waters, &c.—God separated the denser from the lighter vapours, the former remaining in the lower part of the firmament, and forming clouds, the latter sinking to the earth.

Ver. 9. The waters under the firmament being now collected into their proper receptacles, formed rivers and seas.

Ver. 11. Let the earth bring forth grass, &c.—The term in this verse includes all kinds of vegetable productions which were produced, containing each within itself the principle of germination.

Ver. 14. Let there be light.—The division of day and night was now definitively fixed by the light being distributed into natral, and reflected from planetary bodies, which were not only to complete that division, but also to mark certain intervals of time and the different seasons produced by the various rotations of the planetary system.

Ver. 21. And God creat d great whales.—The word whale seems to be a general, rather than a generic, term, comprising all the large aquatic tribes.

Ver. 26. Let us make man in our own image.—The soul of man being spiritual was made in the image of God, who was a spirit, consequently the source whence that spiritual subsistence, the human soul, was derived: it could not therefore but bear a resemblance to that from which it proceeded, as the stream resembles the fountain whence it is produced.

of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; [q] and, behold, I will destroy them ‖ with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher wood; * rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 [r] And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and [s] thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, [t] two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort [u] shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 [w] Thus did Noah; [x] according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

CHAP. VII.

1 Noah, with his family, and the living creatures, enter into the ark. 17 The beginning, increase, and continuance of the flood.

B. C. 2349.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, [a] Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for [b] thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every [c] clean beast thou shalt take to thee by * sevens, the male and his female: [d] and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth [e] forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I † destroy from off the face of the earth.

B. C. 2349.

5 [f] And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ [g] And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass ‡ after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all [h] the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the § [i] windows of heaven were opened.

12 [k] And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day [l] entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 [m] They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every ‖ sort.

15 And they [n] went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, [o] as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 [p] And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; [q] and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; [r] and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 [s] And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man:

Ver. 15. The length of the ark.—"The dimensions of the ark," says Dr. Hales, "were three hundred cubits in length, fifty in breadth, and thirty in height, and it consisted of three stories or floors. Reckoning the cubit at eighteen inches, it must have been of the burthen of forty two thousand four hundred and thirteen tons. It was then by much the largest ship ever built, and had the capacity of stowage of eighteen first rate men of war. Can we doubt then of its being sufficient to contain eight persons and about two hundred and fifty pair of four-footed animals, together with all the subsistence necessary for a twelvemonth." If however, with Dr. Greaves, who measured the Egyptian pyramids, we take the ancient cubit at twenty-one inches, this will still increase the dimensions of the ark by one seventh, and make it of a size sufficient to satisfy the scruples of the most sceptical.

Ver. 18. My covenant.—God's promise concerning the final triumph over Satan by the seed of the woman.

Chap. vii. Ver. 2. Of every clean beast.—This distinction between clean and unclean beasts seems to have been originally designed to mark those which were fit for sacrifice and for food, and those which were not. The unclean beasts are severally enumerated in the 11th chapter of Leviticus. By sevens.—A larger number of clean beasts than of unclean was commanded by the Lord to be taken into the ark, in order that after the deluge the preserved family might be able to offer up their customary sacrifices.

Ver. 4. Forty days.—This afterwards became a sacred period.

Ver. 11. The fountains of the great deep.—Dr. Burnet, in his Theory of the Earth, imagines that all the waters now upon its surface were confined within its centre, being covered with a thick crust, which constituted the superficial world. By the supernatural commotion of the doomed planet at the period of the universal deluge, he supposes this shell to have given way, and an impulse being imparted to the central waters, they rushed up from the receptacle in which they had been confined, and overspread the whole surface of the globe. It is clear that before the flood vast quantities of water were confined in the bowels of the earth, and that their irruption from their prison was produced by the shock which accompanied those violent throes of nature that must have preceded a universal deluge. The windows of heaven.—This is a mere metaphor, signifying that the clouds opened and discharged their burdens, not in the ordinary manner, but in volumes or cataracts.

Ver. 20. And the mountains were covered.—Mr. Colebrooke has shown that the Peak of Dhawatagiri, the most lofty of the Himalaya mountains, is upwards of 27,000 feet high, which is full five miles. A very satisfactory account of the deluge, in which all objections are answered, will be found in Ray's Physico-Theological Discourses.

CHAP. III. Ver. 1. Now the serpent.—The serpent is said to be extremely wily and insidious, and was supposed before the fall not only to have been endowed with cunning in a degree above all creatures, but likewise to have possessed uncommon grace of form, and, next to man, to have been gifted with the highest powers of sagacity and understanding. It was a glorious creature, of consummate beauty and great fascination, and therefore made by Satan the instrument of that temptation which brought the penalty of condemnation upon the whole human race.

Ver. 4. Ye shall not surely die.—It is here remarkable that the Devil directly charges the Deity with falsehood; and thus, by raising in the woman's mind an impression of God's fallibility, he had no difficulty in beguiling her into an infraction of the covenant of works.

Ver. 5. And God doth know.—This appeal to God's knowledge was one of the most consummate artifices of the first temptation. Satan does not simply tell the woman that so and so is the fact, but boldly asserts that God knows it to be the fact,—a mode of assurance much more likely to sway Eve's decision than the serpent's simple assevertion. And ye shall be as gods—like the inferior divinities, endowed with all knowledge except that which is exclusively hidden in the divine mind.

Ver. 7. And the eyes of them both were opened.—They had an immediate perception of evil and a consciousness of their transgression, which was the effect of having violated the divine prohibition. The eyes of their minds were now opened as well as the eyes of their bodies they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together.—The leaves of the Indian fig-tree are very large, so that a few of them would have formed a complete covering. Our first parents became immediately conscious of their loss of innocence.

Ver. 8. And they heard the voice of God walking in the garden.—I am inclined to think that this is a mere inversion, and should be pointed thus—I heard the voice of God, walking in the garden in the cool of the day. Bishop Patrick, however, says, "the walking may be referred to the voice" as well as to the Lord. The majority of commentators seem to take a similar view of the passage, considering the voice used by way of synecdoche for the Lord, who, though he walked, or was especially present in the garden, the criminals did not perceive, but only heard, for him "no man hath seen, nor can see."

Ver. 12. The woman whom thou gavest me.—The effect of communicated evil is here remarkable. Satan in his temptation seems to charge God with falsehood in declaring that he knew the transgressors, to whom he had threatened death, would not die upon a breach of covenant; and Adam, when asked by an offended Deity if he had violated the commandment of obedience, charges the Almighty, by implication, with being the cause of his having transgressed, by stating that the woman, whom God in kindness gave to him, had seduced him from his fealty—the woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

Ver. 13. The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.—Neither Adam nor Eve confessed their guilt, but both endeavoured to exculpate themselves, the one by transferring the blame upon the woman, and the other upon the serpent.

Ver. 15. I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed.—God here pronounces that there shall be a perpetual hostility between the devil and his angels, and man and his posterity, but the especial seed of the woman, born out of the ordinary course of generation, was here declared to be the great foe of Satan, whom that promised seed should eventually overcome, and secure to man the means of deliverance from his thraldom.

Ver. 20. And Adam called his wife's name Eve.—The Septuagint version has the passage thus—And Adam called his wife's name Life, which certainly agrees better with the succeeding context, because she was the mother of all living.

Ver. 21. God made coats of skins.—Upon this passage Dr Clarke has an admirable comment.—"It is very likely that the skins out of which their clothing was made were taken off animals whose blood had been poured out as a sin-offering to God; for as we find Cain and Abel offering sacrifices to God, we may fairly presume that God had given them instructions on this head; nor is it likely that the notion of a sacrifice could have ever occurred to the mind of man without an express revelation from God. Hence we may safely infer first, that as Adam and Eve needed this clothing as soon as they fell, and death had not as yet made any ravages in the animal world, it is most likely that the skins were taken off victims offered under the direction of God himself, and in faith of Him who, in the fulness of time, was to make an atonement by his death. And secondly, it seems reasonable also that this matter should be brought about in such a way that Satan and death should have no triumph, when the very first death that took place in the world was an emblem and type of that death which should conquer Satan, destroy his empire, reconcile God to man, convert man to God, sanctify human nature and prepare it for heaven."

2 [c] Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

3 ¶ And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and [d] called his name Seth:

Ver. 24. Cherubims and a flaming sword.—The Cherubim were one of the orders of celestial spirits. Of the flaming sword, Dr. Hales says—"it may be rendered by a usual figure of speech swordlike, or pointed flame, which is generally considered a sensible symbol of the Divine Presence." It prevented all future access to the tree of life.

CHAP. IV. Ver. 7. Sin lieth at the door.—Sin is here put by a common metonymy for the punishment of sin, which is every where ready to follow the offence co mitted.

Ver. 15. And God set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.—Commentators have been extremely puzzled to explain what the mark upon Cain was. "Some think," says Stackhouse, "that God stigmatized him on his forehead with a letter of his own name, or rather set such a brand upon him as signified him to be accursed. Others fancy that God made him a peculiar garment to distinguish him from the rest of mankind, who were clothed with skins. Some imagine that his head continually shaked; others that his face was blasted with lightning; others that his body trembled all over: and others, again, that the ground shook under and made every one flee from him. Whereas the plain sense of the is nothing more than that God gave him a sign, or wrought a before his face, thereby to convince him that, though he was banis a strange land, yet no one should be permitted to hurt him."

Ver. 23. For I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young my hurt.—Upon the exact meaning of this passage commentators a means agreed; it is one of great obscurity. Bishop Patrick reads th interrogatively, and supposes that Lamech maintains his innocence sufficient security against danger from personal enemies; for as he In the next verse, if Cain who committed murder was protected violence from hostile persons, much more shall I be who am an i man.

Ver. 26. Then began men to call upon the name of the Lord. to protest against the prevailing impiety, and to distinguish thems uniting in the public worship of God.

22 All in [t] whose nostrils was [*] the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and [u] Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

24 [w] And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The waters asswage. 4 The ark rest-eth on Ararat. 7 The raven and the dove. 15 Noah, being commanded, 18 go-eth forth of the ark. 20 He build-eth an altar, and offer-eth sacrifice. 21 which God accepteth, and promiseth to curse the earth no more.

AND God [a] remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: [b] and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged.

2 [c] The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and [d] the rain from heaven was restrained;

3 And the waters returned from off the earth [*] continually: and after the end [e] of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters [†] decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened [f] the window of the ark which he had made:

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth [‡] to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground;

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and [§] pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark;

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf pluckt off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 ¶ And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry.

B. C. 2348.

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, saying,

16 Go forth of the ark, [g] thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee [h] every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and [i] be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their ‖ kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 ¶ And Noah builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of [k] every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD smelled [l] a [*] sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again [m] curse the ground any more for man's sake; [†] for the [n] imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; [o] neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

22 [p] [‡] While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and [q] day and night shall not cease.

1 God blesseth Noah. 4 Blood and murder are forbidden. 8 God's covenant, 13 signified by the rainbow. 18 Noah replenisheth the world. 20 planteth a vineyard, 21 is drunken, and mocked of his son, 25 curseth Canaan, 26 blesseth Shem, 27 prayeth for Japheth, 29 and dieth.

AND God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, [a] Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 [b] And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3 [c] Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the [d] green herb have I given you [e] all things.

CHAP. VIII. Ver. 1. And God made a wind to pass over the earth.—Dr. Adam Clarke has a very satisfactory note on this passage. "Such a wind as produced a strong and sudden evaporation. The effects of these winds, which are frequent in the East, are truly astonishing. A friend of mine, who had been bathing in the Tigris, not far from the ancient city of Ctesiphon, and within five days' journey of Baghdad, having on a pair of Turkish drawers, one of those hot winds, called by the natives Samiel, passing rapidly across the river, just as he had got out of the water, so effectually dried him in a moment, that not one particle of moisture was left either on his body or in his bathing dress."

Ver. 4. Upon the mountains of Ararat.—In Armenia.

Ver. 20. And Noah builded an altar.—This is the first altar on record, though, from Cain and Abel having made oblations to the Lord, it is most probable that altars had been erected by them.

Ver. 21. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour.—A figurative expression, to signify God's satisfaction at, and acceptance of, the oblation which prefigured the great sacrifice of the atonement.

CHAP. IX. Ver. 4. The life thereof, which is the blood thereof.—This verse is at once a full proof of the sacred writer's inspiration, for, as Bishop Wilson justly observes, "that blood is the seat of life could not be known to Moses but by revelation; it being a secret in nature never discovered till of late, and that by many experiments and observations, which the age of Moses and ages following knew nothing of."

Ver. 5 At the hand of every beast will I require it.—That is, whatever beast destroys a man shall be slain. This can refer only to domestic animals, over which man had especial control, and any one of which that killed a human being he was ordered to destroy. And I will establish my covenant.—That is, I will ratify the promise which I now make to you.

8 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, [n] behold, I establish [o] my covenant with you, and with your seed after you:

10 [p] And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

11 And [q] I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, [r] This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set [s] my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

Ver. 13. I do set my bow in the cloud.—The rainbow being a natural phenomenon, had most probably been seen before the flood, but God now instituted it a pledge of the world's security from destruction by water a second time. "And now," says Bishop Patrick, "that we have Moses' commentary on it, we may see in the mixed colors of the rainbow these two things: the destruction of the old world by water, and the future consumption of the present world by fire, whose flaming brightness is predominant in the waterish humor." Thus the rainbow will appear to have been a most fitting symbol of the ratification of God's covenant with Noah.

Ver. 21. And was drunken.—The patriarch might have drunk of the juice of the grape to excess without being aware of its intoxicating qualities, for, in hot countries, the vinous fermentation takes place so rapidly, that the expressed juice, though perfectly innocuous when obtained from the fruit, in the course of three hours becomes highly intoxicating. The whole context indeed supports this conclusion, especially the curse imprecated upon the posterity of Ham for their progenitor's irreverence towards his parent, it being a divine curse, though pronounced by Noah. If the patriarch had been criminally drunk, it is scarcely to be conceived that Ham's filial disrespect would have been so severely chastised.

Ver. 25. Cursed be Canaan.—This son of Ham is mentioned because he was the founder of the Canaanitish nation, upon whom the curse had its consummation. Ham, therefore, was punished through his posterity.

Ver. 27. God shall enlarge Japhet, and dwell in the tents of Shem.—The elder and younger son of Noah were blessed in their posterity, as Ham was cursed in his. The Chaldee Paraphrast gives a spiritual interpretation of this passage which is very apt, that "the Gentiles should come into the church, which was in the family of Shem."

Chap. x. For a full account of the posterity of Noah's sons, the reader is referred to Bishop Patrick's Commentary. This Chapter contains a remarkable history of the origin of nations.

14 And Pathrusim, and Casluhim (h out of whom came Philistim,) and Caphtorim.

15 ¶ And Canaan begat ‖ Sidon his firstborn, and Heth,

16 And the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgasite,

17 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,

18 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 [i]And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar, unto *Gaza; as thou goest, unto Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

21 ¶ Unto Shem also the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born.

22 The [k]children of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and † Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 And Arphaxad begat ‡[l]Salah; and Salah begat Eber.

25 [m]And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of one was § Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest, unto Sephar a mount of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.

32 [n]These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: [o]and by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

CHAP XI.

1 One language in the world. 3 The building of Babel. 5 The confusion of tongues. 10 The generations of Shem. 27 The generations of Terah the father of Abram. 31 Terah goeth from Ur to Haran.

AND the whole earth was of one ‖ language, and of one *speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed †from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And ‡they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and § burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for morter.

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, *whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 [b]And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

6 And the LORD said, Behold, [c]the people is one, and they have all [d]one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have [e]imagined to do.

7 Go to, [f]let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may [g]not understand one another's speech.

8 So [h]the LORD scattered them abroad from thence [i]upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called ‖ Babel; [k]because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

10 ¶ [l]These are the generations of Shem: Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood:

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters. 2346.

12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, [m]and begat Salah: 2311.

13 And Arphaxad lived after he begat Salah four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber: 2281.

15 And Salah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

16 [n]And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat °Peleg. 2247.

17 And Eber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu: 2217.

19 And Peleg lived after he begat Reu two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

20 And Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat [p]Serug: 2185.

21 And Reu lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nahor: 2155.

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat [q]Terah: 2126.

25 And Nahor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

CHAP. XI. Ver. 4. A tower, whose top may reach to heaven.—This is a mere figure of speech for a very high tower. Such figures were, and are still, very common to the Oriental style of writing, and even in the modern language of Europe, to say, a tower whose summit pierced the skies, would be held an allowable hyperbole. Let us make us a name.—It is hence clear that the ambition of posthumous distinction was the grand reason of this fortuitous undertaking, which was displeasing to God because it profanely interfered with his dispensations communicated to the first patriarchal races.

Ver. 5. And the Lord came down to see. This is a mere form of expression solely referable to the style of Oriental writing—it simply means that God was acquainted with their intentions.

Ver. 9. Therefore is the name of it called Babel.—"Babel signifies confusion; the city was afterwards called Babylon, and continued for many ages the head quarters of idolatry, and the type of the mystical Babylon, which likewise is and will be confusion."—Scott. For an account of Shem's posterity, which follows, I again refer the reader to Bishop Patrick.

B. C. 2066.

26 And Terah lived seventy years, and [r]begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees.

29 And Abram and Nahor took them wives; the name of Abram's wife was [s]Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife, [t]Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah.

30 But [u]Sarai was barren; she had no child.

31 And Terah [w]took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from [x]Ur of the Chaldees, to go into [y]the land of Canaan; and they came unto Haram, and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.

CHAP. XII.

1 God calleth Abram, and blesseth him with a promise of Christ. 4 He departed with Lot from Haram. 6 He journeyeth through Canaan, 7 which is promised him in a vision. 10 He is driven by a famine into Egypt. 11 Fear maketh him feign his wife to be his sister. 14 Pharaoh, having taken her from him, by plagues is compelled to restore her.

NOW the [a]LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:

2 [b]And I will make of thee a great nation, [c]and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; [d]and thou shalt be a blessing:

3 [e]And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: [f]and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and [g]the souls that they had gotten [h]in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan they came.

6 ¶ And Abram [i]passed through the land unto the place of Sichem, [k]unto the plain of Moreh. [l]And the Canaanite was then in the land.

7 [m]And the LORD appeared unto Abram, and said, [n]Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an [o]altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and Hai on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and [p]called upon the name of the LORD.

9 And Abram journeyed, [*] [q]going on still toward the south.

10 ¶ And there was [r]a famine in the land: and Abram [s]went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was [t]grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art [u]a fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they [w]will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 [x]Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians [y]beheld the woman that she was very fair.

15 The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was [z]taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 And he [a]entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she-asses, and camels.

17 And the LORD [b]plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, [*]What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her and go thy way.

20 [d]And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Abram and Lot return out of Egypt. 7 By disagreement they part asunder. 10 Lot goeth to wicked Sodom. 14 God reneweth the promise to Abram. 18 He removeth to Hebron, and there buildeth an altar.

AND Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, [a]into the south.

2 [b]And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his journeys [c]from the south even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hai;

4 Unto the [d]place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram [e]called on the name of the LORD.

CHAP. XII. Ver. 3. In thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed. That is, in thy posterity, from which the promised Redeemer shall spring.

Ver. 6. Unto the plain of Moreh.—The word translated plain is by the majority of commentators supposed to mean an oak, or grove of oak trees. And the Canaanite was then in the land.—"These words signify," says Bishop Patrick, "that the Canaanite was in the land before Abram came thither; to whom God promising to give it, he only restored the posterity of Shem, from whom Abram descended, unto that which the children of Ham had wrongfully seized."

Ver. 13. Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister.—Sarai really was Abram's half-sister, by the same father but by a different mother. He therefore did not desire her directly to lie, only to conceal part of the truth. Deceit, however, is too closely allied to falsehood to be justifiable under any circumstances. "In those early ages of the world, the rules about marrying their kindred were not so strict, neither was there any reason that they should be. The prohibited degrees came not to be minutely laid down till the Levitical law commenced; which has been the standard ever since to those that admit divine revelation."—Dr Waterland.

Ver. 19. Why saidst thou, She is my sister?—"The most celebrated saints of God," says St. Augustine, "are not free from sinning, and from their faults there is no arguing to the prejudice of the book in which, as we may find them recorded as matter of history, so we find them condemned as matter of morality. God has informed us what passed, but not authorised it, and set the example before us, not for a pattern, but for a warning."

CHAP. XIII. Ver. 1. Into the south.—That is the southern part of Canaan.

B. C. 1913.

5 ¶ And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 And [l]the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was [g]a strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: [h]and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land.

8 And Abram said unto Lot, [i]Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be †brethren.

9 [k]Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: [l]if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all [m]the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD [n]destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, [o]even as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto [p]Zoar.

11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot [q]dwelled in the cities of the plain, and [r]pitched his tent toward Sodom.

13 But the men of Sodom [s]were wicked and [t]sinners before the LORD exceedingly.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot [u]was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art [w]northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward:

15 For all the land which thou seest, [x]to thee will I give it, and [y]to thy seed for ever.

16 And [z]I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.

18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and [a]dwelt in the ‡plain of Mamre, [b]which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

CHAP. XIV.

1 The battle of four kings against five. 11 Lot is taken prisoner. 14 Abram rescueth him. 18 Melchizedek blesseth Abram. 20 Abram giveth him tithe. 22 The rest of the spoil, his partners having had their portions, he restoreth to the king of Sodom.

AND it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king [a]of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of [b]Elam, and Tidal king of nations;

2 That these made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of [c]Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela, which is [d]Zoar.

3 All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, [e]which is the salt sea.

4 Twelve years [f]they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, and smote [g]the Rephaims [h]in Ashteroth Karnaim, and [i]the Zuzims in Ham, [k]and the Emims in §Shaveh Kiriathaim,

6 [l]And the Horites in their mount Sier, unto ‖El-paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned, and come to Enmishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that dwelt [m]in Hazezon-tamar.

8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela (the same is Zoar); and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim;

9 With Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of [n]slimepits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled [o]to the mountain.

11 And they took [p]all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took Lot, Abram's [q]brother's son, [r]who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

13 ¶ And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for [s]he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: [t]and these were confederate with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that [u]his brother was taken captive, he *armed his †trained servants, [w]born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them [x]unto Dan.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and [y]smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

16 And he brought back [z]all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 ¶ And the king of Sodom [a]went out to meet him [b]after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shaveh, which is the [c]king's dale.

Ver. 7. And the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land.—This part of the country was at that time generally in possession of the Canaanites and the Perizzites, one of the tribes of that idolatrous nation.

Ver. 8. For we be brethren.—That is near relations. It was the custom of the times, for such as were near of kin, to call one another brethren.

Ver. 12. Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan.—In the land more immediately inhabited by the Canaanites; and Lot finally removed to Sodom, a city remarkable for the profligacy of its inhabitants, but situated in a most fruitful region. It was the capital of the Pentapolis, or five cities of the plain.

Ver. 18. Then Abram removed his tent.—The Patriarch pitched his tent in different places until he reached the oak of Mamre, in the neighbourhood of which he finally fixed his residence, and, by way of consecrating the spot, built there an altar unto the Lord.

CHAP. XIV. Ver. 1. King of nations.—He ruled over a people composed of different nations.

18 And [d]Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was [e]the priest of [f]the most high God.

19 And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, [g]possessor of heaven and earth:

20 And [h]blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes [i]of all.

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the [‡]persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I [k]have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, [l]the possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That [m]I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich:

24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men [n]which went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

CHAP. XV.

1 God encourageth Abram. 2 Abram complaineth for want of an heir. 4 God promiseth him a son, and a multiplying of his seed. 6 Abram is justified by faith. 7 Canaan is promised again, and confirmed by a sign, 12 and a vision.

AFTER these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram [a]in a vision, saying, [b]Fear not, Abram: I am thy [c]shield, and thy exceeding [d]great reward.

2 And Abram said, Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me, [e]seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, [f]one born in my house is mine heir.

4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that [g]shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and [h]tell the [i]stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, [k]So shall thy seed be.

6 And he [l]believed in the LORD; and he [m]counted it to him for righteousness.

7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that [n]brought thee out of [o]Ur of the Chaldees, [p]to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, Lord GOD, [q]whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon.

10 And he took unto him all these, and [r]divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but [s]the birds divided he not.

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcases, Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, [t]a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him.

13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety [u]that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not their's, and shall serve them; and [w]they shall afflict them four hundred years;

14 And also that nation, whom they shall serve, [x]will I judge: and afterward [y]shall they come out with great substance.

15 And [z]thou shalt go [a]to thy fathers in peace; [b]thou shalt be buried in a good old age.

16 But [c]in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity [d]of the Amorites [e]is not yet full.

17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and [§]a burning lamp that [f]passed between those pieces.

18 In the same day the LORD [g]made a covenant with Abram, saying, [h]Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates:

19 The Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites,

20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims,

21 And the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Sarai, being barren, giveth Hagar to Abram. 4 Hagar, being afflicted for despising her mistress, runneth away. 7 An angel sendeth her back to submit herself, 11 and telleth her of her child. 15 Ishmael is born.

NOW Sarai Abram's wife [a]bare him no children: and she had an hand-maid, [b]an Egyptian, whose name was [c]Hagar.

Ver. 18. Melchizedek.—Who this Canaanitish sovereign was, no commentator has yet been able to determine; but it is clear that he was both a Priest and King, therefore a type of Christ. He was unquestionably a mysterious person. He was King of Salem, which latter word signifies peace. Christ was also a Prince of peace. In several other particulars there is a remarkable typical congruity. Some divines have thought that there were two Melchizedeks, the one historical, to whom Moses has referred in this chapter, and another, allegorical, alluded to by St Paul; but there appears no warrant whatever for such a supposition.

Canaan. xv. Ver. 1. The word of the Lord.—This is the first time this expression occurs in Scripture, but the manner of his appearance it is impossible to decide. It is sufficient for us to know that God made his communication to the Patriarch by such intelligible means as satisfied Abram that it came from the Lord Jehovah.

Ver. 2. Eliezer of Damascus.—Though born in Abram's house, his parents were Damascenes.

Ver. 5. Look now toward heaven.—It was night, and therefore some commentators suppose that the divine revelation was made by a vision.

Ver. 6. And it was counted to him for righteousness, not only counted as a righteous act, but his faith being so manifested, and so complete, was accepted instead of that perfect righteousness which the corruption entailed upon man at the fall, had rendered impossible to human endeavours. Abram's faith was signal, so was the divine mercy which rewarded it.

Ver. 10. And divided them in the midst.—In animal sacrifices, when they were made as the qualification of a covenant between the Creator and his creatures, the sacrificed beasts were cut asunder, because the form of covenanting required that the sacrificants should pass between divided portions, signifying, by this act, the awful severity of that punishment, which they, who violated his covenant, exposed themselves to. the birds he divided not.—According to the Levitical law birds were divided but only split open.

Ver. 11. And when the fowls came down.—Birds of prey

Ver. 12. An horror of great darkness.—This darkness was pro emblematical of that state of bondage in Egypt to which the poste the Patriarchs were doomed. "What horror and dread of spirits," house observes, "the people seized on those who saw visions, i dent from Daniel. Chap. x. 8."

Ver. 16. For the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.—The rites being the chief of the tribes of Canaan, under that name the native population is included. Though their sins were great the per divine retribution was not yet arrived

Ver. 17. A smoking furnace, &c.—These were symbols att God's acceptance of his faithful servants' sacrifice. The burning passing between the pieces testified the Divine presence, and was a ra tion of the covenant then made.

Ver. 18.—From the river of Egypt. Not the Nile, but a branch or more probably a small river called Sichor, on the border of Egypt the Isthmus of Suez.

Chap. xvi. Ver. 1. An hand-maid, an Egyptian, whose name Hagar.—St. Chrysostom conjectures, with much probability, the woman was one of the female slaves bestowed by Pharaoh upon A when the latter was in Egypt.

nations of the earth shall be [x] blessed in him?

19 For I know him, [y] that ye will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

20 And the LORD said, Because [z] the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous;

21 [a] I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, [b] I will know.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, [c] and went toward Sodom: but Abraham [d] stood yet before the LORD.

23 ¶ And Abraham [e] drew near, and said, [f] Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 [g] Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and [h] that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: [i] Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

26 And the LORD said, [k] If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.

27 And Abraham answered and said, [l] Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am [m] but dust and ashes:

28 Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five? And he said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it.

29 And he spake unto him yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do it for forty's sake.

30 And he said unto him, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Peradventure there shall thirty be found there. And he said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there.

31 And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake.

32 And he said, [n] Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there. [o] And he said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.

33 And the LORD went his way, as soon as he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

Ver. 20 and 21.—A just Judge does not pronounce sentence on mere rumour; but ascertains the criminal's guilt before he executes vengeance. Thus the Lord declared that he would impartially judge and punish the guilty cities on full proof of their atrocious wickedness.

Ver. 22. But Abraham stood yet before the Lord. He, pre-eminently distinguished as the Lord, remained with Abraham, while the two heavenly ministers, who had accompanied him, were sent to bring the Divine infliction upon Sodom.

Ver. 32. Peradventure ten.—Nothing can more strongly mark the iniquity of Sodom, out of which only the family of Lot were saved from destruction.

CHAP. XIX.

B. C. 1898.

1 Lot entertaineth two angels. 4 The vicious Sodomites are stricken with blindness. 12 Lot is sent for safety into the mountains. 18 He obtaineth leave to go into Zoar. 24 Sodom and Gomorrah are destroyed. 26 Lot's wife is a pillar of salt. 30 Lot dwelleth in a cave. 31 The incestuous original of Moab and Ammon.

AND there [a] came two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and [b] Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

2 And he said, Behold now, my lords, [c] turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and [d] wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, [e] Nay; but we will abide in the street all night.

3 And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; [f] and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

4 ¶ But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 [g] And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? [h] bring them out unto us, that we [i] may know them.

6 And [k] Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 [l] Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; [m] for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow [n] came in to sojourn, [o] and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 And they smote the men [p] that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 ¶ And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, [q] bring them out of this place:

CHAP. XIX. The beginning of this chapter exhibits in the strongest light the deplorable wickedness of the Sodomites, and, in truth, also the weakness of Lot. Nothing can justify his proposal respecting his daughters, however it may be palliated.

Ver. 11. And they smote the men that were at the door with blindness.—It has been supposed that these persons were not deprived of sight, but that so great a darkness took place as to deprive them of the power of seeing, which interpretation seems to be confirmed by the Author of the Book of Wisdom—"they were compassed about," says he, "with horrible great darkness."

Ver. 12. Son in law.—Lot's daughters were not actually married, but only betrothed to these men.

face of the LORD; and [a]the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, [t]which married his daughters, and said, [u]Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. [x]But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, [y]Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which [*]are here; lest thou be consumed in the †iniquity of the city.

16 And [z]while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; [a]the LORD being merciful unto him: [b]and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, [c]Escape for thy life; [d]look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, [e]not so, my Lord:

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, [f]I have accepted ‡thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for [g]I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore [h]the name of the city was called §Zoar.

23 ¶ The sun was ‖risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then [i]the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and [k]that which grew upon the ground.

26 ¶ But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became [l]a pillar of salt.

27 ¶ And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where [m]he stood before the LORD:

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, [n]the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God [o]remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

30 ¶ And Lot went up out of Zoar, and [p]dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth [q]to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we [r]may preserve seed of our father.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Moab: [s]the same is the father of the Moabites unto this day.

38 And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Ben-ammi: [t]the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.

CHAP. XX.

1 Abraham sojourneth at Gerar, 2 denieth his wife, and taketh her. 3 Abimelech is reproved for her in a dream. 9 He rebuketh Abraham, 14 restoreth Sarah, 16 and reproveth her. 17 He is healed by Abraham's prayer.

AND Abraham journeyed from [a]thence toward the south country, and dwelled between [b]Kadesh and Shur, and [c]sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, [d]She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and [e]took Sarah.

3 But [f]God came to Abimelech [g]in a dream by night, and said to him, [h]Behold, thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is [*]a man's wife.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, Lord, [i]wilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister?

Ver. 24. Then the Lord rained from the Lord.—Commentators universally admit that there is great difficulty in coming at the clear meaning of this passage, but, to me, there only appears a peculiarity of idiom. The visible Lord, before whom Abraham then was, caused a signal destruction to fall upon Sodom out of heaven, or from the skies, which represent his dwelling place. Such a terrible infliction could only come from God—it was an act of Omnipotent vengeance.

Ver. 26. Looked back.—Some consider that she attempted to return, and that portions of the nitrous shower, falling upon her, encrusted her body, giving it the appearance of a saline pillar.

Ver. 36. Thus were both the daughters of Lot, &c.—The hope of being the ancestors of the promised Messiah may have been the chief motive for this unnatural act, which nothing, however, can extenuate. Lot's posterity became "monuments of his reproach, and their very names perpetuated the memory of their disgraceful origin."—Scott.

CHAP. XX. Ver. 1. Gerar.—This city was supposed to be the Philistine capital. It was situated in the south-west of Palestine.

Ver. 3. God came to Abimelech.—Thus we find that persons in Abraham's family had a knowledge of the true God. Abimelech was evidently a righteous man.

and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: [k]in the †integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for [l]I also withheld thee from sinning [m]against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; [n]for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, [o]know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, [p]and all that are thine.

8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, [q]that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me [r]that ought not to be done.

10 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely [s]the fear of God is not in this place; and [t]they will slay me for my wife's sake.

12 And yet indeed [u]she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

13 And it came to pass, when [x]God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, [y]say of me, He is my brother.

14 And Abimelech [z]took sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and womenservants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, [a]my land is before thee: dwell where it ‡pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given [b]thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: [c]behold, he is to thee [d]a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other: thus she was reproved.

17 ¶ So Abraham [e]prayed unto God: and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bare children.

18 For the LORD [f]had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

1 Isaac is born. 4 He is circumcised. 6 Sarah's joy. 9 Hagar and Ishmael are cast forth. 15 Hagar in distress. 17 The angel comforteth her. 22 Abimelech's covenant with Abraham at Beer-sheba.

AND the LORD [a]visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah [b]as he had spoken.

2 For Sarah [c]conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, [d]at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, [e]Isaac.

4 And Abraham [f]circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, [g]as God had commanded him.

5 And [h]Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

6 ¶ And Sarah said, [i]God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear [k]will laugh with me.

7 And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? [l]for I have born him a son in his old age.

8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah saw the son of Hagar [m]the Egyptian, [n]which she had born unto Abraham, [o]mocking.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, [p]Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight [q]because of his son.

12 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for [r]in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make [s]a nation, because he is thy seed.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and [t]sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the

Ver. 7. A prophet.—This is the first time we meet with the word in Scripture, but here it does not signify literally a prophet, in the ordinary acceptation of the term, or a foreteller of human events, but one admitted to familiar intercourse with God, as the prophets likewise were, and, therefore, the word originally applied to Abraham was applied in another sense to those gifted persons who made known the Divine revelations. The term was originally employed merely as one of high distinction without any specific application.

Ver. 16. Thy brother.—Abimelech, in addressing Sarah, called Abraham her brother, probably by way of gentle rebuke.

Ver. 15. She cast the child. Ishmael was probably a weakly youth, and, therefore, more readily overcome by fatigue than his mother, who, supporting him to a bush, when he was faint and unable to proceed further, assisted him to cast himself under its welcome shade in order to screen himself from the intense heat, by which, and extreme thirst, he was almost exhausted.

3 ¶ And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.

Ver. 25. Because of a well of water.—Wells were most valuable property in a country where, on account of the excessive heat, water was scarce, and especially too where the chief wealth consisted in flocks and herds of cattle.

Ver. 31. Beer-sheba.—This word literally signifies "the well of swearing," because the contracting parties both swore to observe the covenant which they had mutually engaged to fulfil.

Ver. 33. Planted a grove.—As a place of religious retirement where most probably the patriarch and his family daily met for purposes of devotion.

CHAP. XXII. Ver. 1. God did tempt Abraham.—That is, God submitted him to a test, or proved him.

Ver. 2. Thine only son. Isaac was his only son by Sarah, the legitimate wife, and moreover the child of promise. Into the land of Moriah. The mount upon which Christ suffered is supposed to be the same on which Isaac was bound for sacrifice. Beer-sheba, where Abraham dwelt, was upwards of forty miles from the spot, which will account for their not reaching it until the third day, as in hot countries the progress of travellers is necessarily slow.

Ver. 4. The third day.—"Three," says Mr. Ainsworth, "is a mystical number, because of Christ's rising from the dead the third day, as he was crucified the third hour after noon. And Isaac, as he was a figure of Christ, in being the only son of his father, and not spared, but offered for a sacrifice, so in sundry particulars he resembled our Lord. The third day Isaac was to be offered up; so it was the third day on which Christ was to be perfected. Isaac carried the wood for the burnt-offering, as Christ carried the tree whereon he died. The binding of Isaac was also typical; so Christ was bound."

Ver. 5. I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again.—This Abraham spoke prophetically, "accounting that God was able to raise up Isaac even from the dead." He fully relied upon the divine promise, and through faith in that promise, gave his companions assurance of his own and Isaac's safe return.

Ver. 9. And bound Isaac his son.—Isaac was no less than five-and-twenty years old at this time. It is natural to suppose therefore that when they reached the place of sacrifice, Abraham related to him the purpose for which he had conducted him thither. Thus Isaac must have consented to this sacrifice, and in yielding himself a voluntary offering, he further typified the Redeemer of Mankind.

AND Abraham [a] was old, and [*] well stricken in age: and the LORD [b] had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said [c] unto his eldest servant of his house, that [d] ruled over all that he had, [e] Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make thee [f] swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that [g] thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

4 [h] But thou shalt go [i] unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

7 ¶ The LORD God of heaven, which [k] took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, [l] Unto thy seed will I give this land; [m] he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then [n] thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again.

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

10 ¶ And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed; [o] † for all the goods of his master were in his hand: he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto [p] the city of Nahor.

11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, even the time ‡ [q] that women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, [r] O LORD God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, [s] send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, [t] I stand here by the well of water; and [u] the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

15 ¶ And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of [x] Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel [y] was § very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 [z] And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit, whether [a] the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden [b] ‖ earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold; me; that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, [l] thou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.

32 ¶ And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and [k] gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.

33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, [l] I will not eat, until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on.

34 And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

35 And the LORD [m] hath blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses.

36 And Sarah my master's wife [n] bare a son to my master when she was old: and [o] unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my master [p] made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 [q] But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 [r] And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 [s] And he said unto me, The LORD, [t] before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house:

41 [u] Then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, [v] O LORD God of my master Abraham, if now thou do prosper my way which I go:

43 [w] Behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 [x] And before I had done [y] speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I [z] put the earring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 [a] And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the right way to take [b] my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now if ye will [c] deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, [d] The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot [e] speak unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah [f] is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he [g] worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth* [h] jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother [i] precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, [k] Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us † a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and [l] her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou [m] the mother of thousands of millions, and [n] let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

61 ¶ And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

62 And Isaac came from the way of the [o] well Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the south country.

63 And Isaac went out ‡ [p] to meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, the camels were coming.

64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, [q] she lighted off the camel.

65 For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It

Ver. 23. Two nations are in thy womb.—It is evident that this prophecy did not refer to Esau and Jacob personally, for what is here predicted concerning them was not verified in themselves, but in their posterity. The prophecy therefore was of nations, not of individuals. And the one people shall be stronger than the other people.—This was the case: the posterity of Esau, the Edomites, prevailed over the posterity of Jacob, until the former were finally conquered by David, who rendered them tributary. And the elder shall serve the younger.—This came to pass after the conquest of the Edomites, who were finally incorporated among the Jews.

Ver. 25. Esau signifies perfected, to imply perhaps that he was more robust and better formed than his twin brother.

Ver. 26. Jacob imports one who supplanted another. This name was no doubt given in accordance with the prophecy made to Rebekah before her delivery.

Ver. 27. A plain man, &c. a humble shepherd.

Ver. 28. And Isaac loved Esau. What ensued sufficiently showed the impropriety of such culpable partiality.

Ver. 2. Go in unto my maid.—Secondary wives were lawful in the patriarchal ages: they were, however, subsidiary to the principal wife, and had no domestic authority.

Ver. 6. Sarai dealt hardly with her.—Probably inflicted upon her those punishments to which slaves were especially subjected, for Hagar becoming the patriarch's secondary wife did not release her from bondage. She is characterized in scripture as the bond-woman, in contradistinction to Sarai the free-woman, just as the dignity of a secondary union with the patriarch. Sarai therefore was legally, though not morally, justified in chastising her.

Ver. 7. The angel of the Lord.—From what follows in the tenth verse, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, it is evident that this was "very God." As this heavenly Visiter appeared visibly to Hagar, and the ETERNAL FATHER "no man has seen nor can see," it could have been no other than the ETERNAL SON.

Ver. 12. And he will be a wild man.—This prophecy concerning Ishmael has been remarkably fulfilled. His descendants, the Arabs, whom he is made to represent in the prophecy, are to this day among the wildest of the human race. They are still wanderers, and dwell in tents. The wilderness is their abode; a desolate and unprofitable land their inheritance; they are lawless freebooters, roaming the deserts like beasts of prey, and plundering all whom they happen to meet. To them the people of all countries are alike. They seek alliances with none. Their hand is against every man, and every man's hand is against them.—The rulers of various nations have in vain endeavoured to subdue them. They still roam the desert in savage independance, and remain the fierce despots of the soil where they have fixed their habitations.

Ver. 13. And she called the name of the Lord.—"The latter clause of this verse is very obscure, and is rendered differently by all the versions. The general sense is this; that Hagar was now convinced that God himself had appeared unto her, and was surprised to find that notwithstanding this she was still permitted to live; for it was generally supposed that if God appeared to any they must be consumed by his glories."—Clarke's Commentary.

Ver. 15. Called his son's name—Ishmael.—"This," says Ainsworth, "was the first man in the world whose name was given him of God before he was born."

CHAP. XVII. Ver. 2. And I will make my covenant.—That is, I will confirm the covenant already made.

Ver. 5. Thy name shall be Abraham.—Abram signifies father of elevation, or, a high father; Abraham, the father of a great multitude.—Calmet.

Ver. 7. To be a God unto thee.—God here declares that the seed of Abraham shall be his peculiar people, and he will be their God; while the idolatrous nations will "make gods unto themselves."

Ver. 10. Every man child among you shall be circumcised.—Circumcision was the outward sign that they were members of God's visible church, to which they had been admitted by virtue of the covenant with Abraham. It was a symbol of that spiritual purity which accrues upon abandoning the lusts of the flesh.

13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul [w] shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.

15 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but [x] Sarah shall her name be.

16 And I will bless her, [y] and give thee a son also of her: yea, I will bless her, and [†] she shall be a mother [z] of nations; kings of people shall be of her.

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, [a] and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?

18 And Abraham said unto God, O that Ishmael might live before thee!

19 And God said, [b] Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and [b] will multiply him exceedingly; [c] twelve princes shall he beget, [d] and I will make him a great nation.

21 But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, [e] which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

23 ¶ And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as God had said unto him.

24 And Abraham was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son.

27 And [f] all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

1898. AND the LORD appeared unto him in the [a] plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day;

B. C. 1898

2 [b] And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: [c] and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let [d] a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 And [e] I will fetch a morsel of bread, and [*] [f] comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on; [g] for therefore [†] are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, [‡] Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetcht a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And [h] he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

9 ¶ And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, [i] in the tent.

10 And he said, I [k] will certainly return unto thee [l] according to the time of life; and, lo, [m] Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him.

11 Now [n] Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah [o] after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah [p] laughed within herself, saying, [q] After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my [r] lord being old also?

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

14 [s] Is any thing too hard for the LORD? [t] At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh.

16 ¶ And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom; and Abraham went with them [u] to bring them on the way.

17 And the LORD said, [v] Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do;

Ver. 14. That soul shall be cut off from his people.—Shall be excluded from the blessings of the covenant.

Ver 15. Sarah shall her name be.—Sarai means, my princess; Sarah, a princess generally, which seems to signify that whereas she was only a princess in her own family, the promise of God to Abraham would constitute her a princess over many, by constituting her a mother of nations.

Ver. 17. Abraham—laughed.—Burst into a transport of joy at these glad tidings.

Ver. 20. Twelve princes.—They are enumerated in Chap. xxv. ver. 13-16.

Ver. 21. But my covenant will I establish with Isaac.—Ishmael partook equally with Isaac in the blessings of the temporal covenant, but those of the spiritual were promised solely to Isaac, from whose posterity the Redeemer was to spring.

CHAP. XVIII Ver. 2. Three men.—They appeared in the human form. These three heavenly visiters have been thought by some commentators, among whom was St. Cyrill, to represent the Holy Trinity, but St. Hilary's opinion, in which he is followed by Eusebius, is that the Son of God only appeared with two angels attending upon him. We have, however, after all, no better foundation than conjecture to rest this question upon.

Ver. 5. Comfort ye your hearts.—Refresh yourselves.

Ver. 10. According to the time of life.—This is supposed to mean the usual period of gestation.

Ver. 12. Sarah laughed.—Abraham's laugh was expressive of joy, Sarah's of unbelief, as is evident from the context. After I am waxed old, being in her ninetieth year.

Ver. 15. I laughed not.—The immediate fruit of Sarah's unbelief was a falsehood.

Ver. 17. And the Lord said.—Here the Divine presence is expressed, which seems to confirm St. Hilary's opinion that the divine visiters were Christ the Lord accompanied by two angels.

cir. 1804. AND there was a famine in the land, beside [a] the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto [b] Abimelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar.

2 And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in [c] the land which I shall tell thee of:

3 [d] Sojourn in this land, and [e] I will be with thee, and [f] will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, [g] I will give all these countries, and I will perform [h] the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father;

4 And [i] I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; [k] and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed;

5 [l] Because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

6 ¶ And Isaac dwelt in Gerar:

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and [m] he said, She is my sister: for [n] he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; because she [o] was fair to look upon.

8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and [p] thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that [q] toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and [*] received in the same year [r] an hundred-fold: and the LORD [s] blessed him:

13 And the man [t] waxed great, and [†] went forward, and grew until he became very great:

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of [‡] servants: and the Philistines [u] envied him.

15 For all the wells [w] which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for [x] thou art much mightier than we.

17 ¶ And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: [y] and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of [§] springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gerar [z] did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is our's: and he called the name of the well [‖] Esek; because they strove with him.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it [*] Sitnah.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it [†] Rehoboth; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall [a] be fruitful in the land.

23 And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, [b] I am the God of Abraham thy father: [c] fear not, for [d] I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.

25 And he [e] builded an altar there, and [f] called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well.

26 ¶ Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends [g] and Phichol the chief captain of his army.

27 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing [h] ye hate me, and have [i] sent me away from you?

28 And they said, [‡] We saw certainly that the LORD [k] was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee;

Chap. xxvi. Ver. 1. Abimelech. This appears to have been a general name for the kings of Gerar.

Ver. 35. Which were a grief, &c.—That is, the woman whom Esau married gave Isaac and Rebekah great grief of heart. Esau's wives were probably daughters of Hittite chiefs, and consequently idolaters.

CHAP. XXVII. Ver. 1. Isaac was old.—He was now a hundred and thirty-seven; Jacob was consequently seventy years of age, Isaac having reached the age of sixty when his twin children were born.

Ver. 15. Goodly raiment.—His best clothes, which some suppose were laid by in a chest, strewed with strong scented flowers, to preserve them from moths and other destructive insects.

Ver. 23. And he discerned him not.—The infirmities of age will sufficiently account for Isaac being so readily deceived.

Ver. 5. Bethuel the Syrian.—Or Aramite, because he dwelt in the country of Padan-aram, likewise called Syria.

Ver. 11. A certain place.—A convenient spot to pass the night in.

Ver. 12. And he dreamed.—The interpretations of this dream have been various. I shall give that which Bishop Patrick quotes from the preface to the More Nevochim of Maimonides. The ladder may be thought to represent the Divine Providence, which governs all things. It being set upon the earth, denoted the steadfastness of Providence, which nothing is able to shake. The top of it reaching to heaven, signifies that it extends over all the world. The several steps of the ladder denote the actions of Providence; the angels represent his ministers. Their ascending, signifies their going to receive God's commands; their descending, to execute them. Or, with a peculiar reference to Jacob, the one signifies their safe conduct of him on his journey, the other their bringing him safely home again.

set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold [g] the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

13 [r] And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, [s] I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: [t] the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed;

16 ¶ And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in [d] this place; and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and [e] set it up for a pillar, [f] and poured oil upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of [g] that place ‖ Beth-el: but the name of that city was called Luz at the first.

20 [h] And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If [i] God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me [k] bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21 So that [l] I come again to my father's house in peace; [m] then shall the LORD be my God:

22 And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, [n] shall be God's house: [o] and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

1 Jacob cometh to the well of Haran. 9 He taketh acquaintance of Rachel. 13 Laban entertaineth him. 18 Jacob covenanteth for Rachel. 23 He is deceived with Leah. 28 He marrieth also Rachel, and serveth for her seven years more. 32 Leah beareth Reuben, 33 Simeon, 34 Levi, 35 and Judah.

2 And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran are we. B. C. 1760

5 And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said unto them, ‡ [b] Is he well? And they said, He is well: and, behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, § it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 ¶ And while he yet spake with them, [c] Rachel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and [d] rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Jacob [e] kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was [f] her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son: [g] and she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass, when Laban heard the ‖ tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that [h] he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, [i] Surely thou art my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him * the space of a month.

15 ¶ And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be?

16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah was tender eyed; but Rachel was beautiful and well favoured.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, [k] I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob [l] served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

21 ¶ And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may [m] go in unto her.

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and [n] made a feast.

23 And it came to pass in the evening,

Chap. xxx. Ver. 3. She shall bear upon my knees.—Bring me a child whom I may set upon my knees as my own.—Patrick. This is the best interpretation I can find, but it is not satisfactory. The words appear to me nothing more than an oriental idiom, signifying she shall bear a child in my stead. Bilhah did in fact become a vicarious mother merely for being Rachel's slave, her children became the children of her mistress.

Ver. 8. With great wrestling.—I have struggled exceedingly hard, in incessant, vehement desires, and perhaps in prayer to God, to have another child before my sister, and have prevailed.

Ver. 14. Found mandrakes.—What these mandrakes were is mere conjecture. Those who wish to read the suppositions of ingenious men, may consult Job, Ludolphus, Hasselquist, Calmet, Patrick, Stackhouse, and others, who have entered at length into this interesting enquiry.

29 And he said unto him, bThou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me.

† Heb. broken forth. ver. 43.

30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now †increased unto a multitude; and the LORD hath blessed thee ‡since my coming: and now when shall I cprovide for mine own house also?

‡ Heb. at my foot. c 1 Tim. 5. 8.

31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me any thing: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock:

32 I will pass through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and d*of such* shall be my hire.

e Ps. 37. 6. § Heb. to morrow. Ex. 13. 14.

33 So shall my erighteousness answer for me §in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me.

34 And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

35 And he removed that day the he goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons.

36 And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

f See ch. 31. 9-14.

37 ¶ And fJacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chesnut tree; and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.

38 And he set the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

B. C. 1745.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstraked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle.

41 And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

g ver. 30. h ch. 13. 2. & 24. 35. & 26. 13, 14.

43 And the man gincreased exceedingly, and hhad much cattle, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses.

Ver. 25. Send me away.—Suffer me to depart, having now fulfilled my engagement for fourteen years' servitude, that I may go to my own place, or home in Canaan.

Ver. 43. And the man increased—that is, prospered. Scott has a very good note here. "Jacob's conduct, in this transaction, has been commonly considered as an instance of his policy and management; it has by many been objected to, by others vindicated and commended. But as the means which he used would not in general produce similar effects; nay, probably, the experiment was never in any other instance tried with success; it is more reasonable to suppose that he was directed by some divine intimation, and rendered successful, if not by a direct miracle, yet at least by the Lord's giving a new and uncommon bias to the tendency of natural causes.

CHAP. XXXI. Ver. 7. Ten times, or, as most commentators understand it, frequently, for it is a common thing in the scriptures to put a definite for an indefinite number.

B. C. 1739.

11 And [n]the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: And I said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grisled: for [o]I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 I am the God of Beth-el, [p]where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now [q]arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.

14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, [r]Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for [s]he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is our's, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 ¶ Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the ‡[t]images that were her father's.

20 And Jacob stole away §unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and [u]set his face toward the mount Gilead.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took [x]his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.

24 And God [y]came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou [z]speak not to Jacob ‖either good or bad.

25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and [a]carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?

27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and *steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp?

28 And hast not suffered me [b]to kiss my sons and my daughters? [c]thou hast now done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the [d]God of your father spake unto me [e]yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longest after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou [f]stolen my gods?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, [g]let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban †searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot [h]rise up before thee; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

36 ¶ And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast ‡searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 [i]That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it; of [k]my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; I [l]served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and [m]thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 [n] Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and [o]the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Jacob's vision at Mahanaim. 3 His message to Esau. 6 He is afraid of Esau's coming. 9 He prayeth for deliverance. 13 He sendeth a present to Esau. 24 He wrestleth with an angel at Peniel, where he is called Israel. 31 He halteth.

AND Jacob went on his way, and [a]the angels of God met him.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's [b]host: and he called the name of that place *Mahanaim.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother [c]unto the land of Seir, [d]the †country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus [e]shall ye speak unto my lord Esau: Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now:

5 And [f]I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that [g]I may find grace in thy sight.

6 ¶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also [h]he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and [i]distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands;

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 ¶ [k]And Jacob said, [l]O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD [m]which saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

10 ‡I am not worthy of the least of all the [n]mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with [o]my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands.

11 [p]Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and [q]the mother §with the children.

12 And [r]thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 ¶ And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand [s]a present for Esau his brother;

14 Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams,

15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will [t]appease him with the present that goeth

Ver. 50. No man is with us.—The contracting parties had withdrawn from the rest to settle their business in private.

Ver. 55 Kissed his sons and his daughters.—Embraced them and their families.

21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, [u] and passed over the ford Jabbok.

23 And he took them, and *sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had.

24 ¶ And Jacob was left alone; and there [x] wrestled a man with him until the †breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and [y] the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him.

26 And [z] he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, [a] I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

28 And he said, [b] Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but ‡Israel: for as a prince hast thou [c] power with God and [d] with men, and hast prevailed.

29 And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, [e] Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place §Peniel: for [f] I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

31 And as he passed over Penuel the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 The kindness of Jacob and Esau at their meeting. 17 Jacob cometh to Succoth. 18 At Shalem he buyeth a field, and buildeth an altar called El-elohe-Israel.

AND Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, [a] Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids.

2 And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost.

3 And he passed over before them, and [b] bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 [c] And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, [d] and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept.

5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those *with thee? And he said, The children [e] which God hath graciously given thy servant.

6 Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.

7 And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8 And he said, †What meanest thou by [f] all this drove which I met? And he said, These are [g] to find grace in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; ‡keep that thou hast unto thyself.

10 And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I [h] have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.

11 Take, I pray thee, [i] my blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have §enough. [k] And he urged him, and he took it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee.

13 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me: and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant; and I will lead on softly, according ‖as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord [l] unto Seir.

15 And Esau said, Let me now *leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, †What needeth it? [m] let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 ¶ So Esau returned that day on his way unto Seir.

17 And Jacob journeyed to [n] Succoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called ‡Succoth.

18 ¶ And Jacob came to [o] Shalem a city of §[p] Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.

19 And [q] he bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of ‖Hamor, Shechem's father, for a hundred *pieces of money.

20 And he erected there an altar, and [r] called it †El-elohe-Israel.

"Jacob hearing of his brother Esau's power, and dreading his resentment, addresses himself for protection in this distress to the God of his fathers, with all humility and confidence. God hears his prayers, and is pleased to inform him of the happy issue of the adventure by a significant action: the following night he has a struggle with an angel, with whom he is suffered to make his part so good, that from thence he collected God had granted his petition.

Ver. 28. Israel.—Prince with God. The latter part of this verse is obscurely rendered. Dr. Shuckford says, that the true verbal translation of the Hebrew words, is as follows, "for thou hast been a prevailer with God, and with men thou shalt also powerfully prevail."

4 And Shechem [e]spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob [f]held his peace until they were come.

6 ¶ And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they [g]were very wroth, because he [h]had wrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; [i]which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us: and [k]the land shall be before you; dwell and [l]trade ye therein, and [m]get you possessions therein.

11 And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 Ask me never so much [n]dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father [o]deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister:

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for [p]that were a reproach unto us:

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised;

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and he was [q]more honourable than all the house of his father.

20 ¶ And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,

21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of their's be our's? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that [r]went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, [s]Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the ‡edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, [t]Ye have [u]troubled me [x]to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: [y]and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?

[c] the strange gods that are among you, and [f] be clean, and change your garments:

3 And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, [g] who answered me in the day of my distress, [h] and was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, and all their earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under [k] the oak which was by Shechem.

5 And they journeyed: and [l] the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

6 ¶ So Jacob came to [m] Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Beth-el, he and all the people that were with him.

7 And he [n] built there an altar, and called the place * El-beth-el: because [o] there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But [p] Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el under an oak: and the name of it was called † Allon-Bachuth.

9 ¶ And [q] God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: [r] thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, [s] but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel.

11 And God said unto him, [t] I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; [u] a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins;

12 And the land [w] which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

13 And God [x] went up from him in the place where he talked with him.

14 And Jacob [y] set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, [z] Beth-el.

16 ¶ And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was but ‡ a little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour.

17 And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; [a] Thou shalt have this son also.

18 And it came to pass, as her soul was in departing, (for she died) that she called his name § Ben-oni: but his father called him ‖ Benjamin.

19 And [b] Rachel died, and was buried in the way to [c] Ephrath, which is Bethlehem.

20 And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave [d] unto this day.

21 ¶ And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond [e] the tower of Edar.

22 And it came to pass, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and [f] lay with Bilhah his father's concubine: and Israel heard it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve:

23 The sons of Leah; [g] Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun:

24 The sons of Rachel; Joseph, and Benjamin:

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan, and Naphtali:

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid; Gad, and Asher: these are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Padan-aram.

27 ¶ And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto [h] Mamre, unto the [i] city of Arbah, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

28 And the days of Isaac were an hundred and fourscore years.

29 And Isaac gave up the ghost, and died, and [k] was gathered unto his people, being old and full of days: and [l] his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Ver. 3. And spake kindly unto the damsel.—To appease her anger at the violence which had been used towards her.

Ver. 7. Wrought folly in Israel. Or rather against Israel—that is, against Jacob, to whom the former name had been given by the angel, at that time bringing disgrace upon him and his family.

Ver. 25. On the third day.—The operation of circumcision was usually attended with fever, which on the third day was generally at its height. The Shechemites were, therefore, no doubt, at that time, in so helpless a state that they fell an easy prey to the enraged Israelites.

Ver. 30. To make me to stink.—An idiomatic phrase, signifying that his sons had rendered him odious to the neighbouring tribes.

Ver. 31. Harlot.—Our word harlot is said to have been derived from a very odd circumstance. "Robert, Duke of Normandy, seeing a fine looking country girl dancing with her companions on the green, took her to his bed. She was the daughter of a skinner, and her name was Arlotta; of her William the Conqueror was born. Hence, it is said, all such women were from her called harlots."—Clarke's Commentary.

CHAP. XXXV. Ver. 1. Go to Beth-el.—It being no longer safe for the family to remain in the neighbourhood where they had committed such an outrage, Jacob was commanded by God to return to Beth-el and perform the vow he had there made, see chap. xxviii. 20—22.

Ver. 2. The strange gods.—Probably images made of the precious metals found among the spoils of the Shechemites, and representations of their idols.

Ver. 4. Earrings.—These were frequently worn as charms, which will sufficiently account for Jacob disposing of them as he did.

Ver. 8. Rebekah's nurse died.—Her death is here mentioned, in all likelihood, as Bishop Patrick observes, merely "to give an account how this oak came by the name of Allon-bachuth in after times."

Ver. 10. Called his name Israel.—Solemnly confirmed this name to Jacob, and all the privileges which it implied.

Ver. 16. Ephrath.—Called also Bethlehem Ephrata, where the Messiah was born.

Ver. 21. Tower of Edar.—Literally the tower of the flock, supposed to have been built by the shepherds near some well, for the convenience of watering their flocks, and keeping watch over them by night.

CHAP. XXXVI. Ver. 2. His wives.—They appear to have had different names, a thing not unusual in those days as appears by the Scriptures. Anah the daughter of Zibeon.—The Samaritan, Septuagint and Syriac versions read Anah, the son of Zibeon, which Houbigant and Kennicott contend to be the true reading, and which the 24th verse of this chapter seems to confirm.

B. C. 1729

2 These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah his father's wives: and Joseph brought unto his father [b] their evil report.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was [c] the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many † colours.

4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they [d] hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 ¶ And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more.

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed:

7 For, [e] behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf.

8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

9 ¶ And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, [f] the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me.

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and [g] thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?

11 And [h] his brethren envied him; but his father [i] observed the saying.

12 ¶ And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

13 ¶ And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I.

14 And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, ‡ see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of [k] Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 ¶ And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: [l] tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in [m] Dothan.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, [n] they conspired against him to slay him.

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this § dreamer cometh.

20 [o] Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And [p] Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stript Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many ‖ colours that was on him;

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

25 [q] And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of [r] Ishmeelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and [s] balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

26 And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and [t] conceal his blood?

27 Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, and [u] let not our hand be upon him; for he is [x] our brother and [y] our flesh. And his brethren * were content.

28 Then there passed by [z] Midianites merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, [a] and sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for [b] twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 ¶ And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he [c] rent his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child [d] is not; and I, whither shall I go?

31 And they took [e] Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood;

32 And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.

33 And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an [f] evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Jacob [g] rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters

CHAP. XXXVII. Ver. 4. They could not speak peaceably unto him.—They could not speak to him with common civility, but treated him as an enemy.

Ver. 5. Dreamed a dream.—It is evident from various parts of Scripture that the Deity made certain revelations of his will in visions and dreams.

Ver. 14. And he came to Shechem. This place was about twenty leagues from Hebron, where Jacob was living at that time.

Ver. 17. Let us go to Dothan. This place was somewhat less than three leagues beyond Shechem.

Ver. 27. Come, let us sell him.—How wonderfully did the evil deed of these wicked brothers bring about that very event which they so earnestly sought to frustrate.

Ver. 30. The child is not.—He is no longer living.

Ver. 35. And all his daughters.—His daughter Dinah and the wives of his sons.—I will go down into the grave. This means into the invisible state, the state of departed souls.—Archbishop Secker.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 Judah begetteth Er, Onan, and Shelah. 6 Er marrieth Tamar. 8 The trespass of Onan. 11 Tamar stayeth for Shelah. 13 She deceiveth Judah. 27 She beareth twins, Pharez and Zarah.

AND it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and [a] turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Judah [b] saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was [c] Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name [d] Er.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name [e] Onan.

5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name [f] Shelah: and he was at Chezib when she bare him.

6 And Judah [g] took a wife for Er, his firstborn, whose name was Tamar.

7 And [h] Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; [i] and the LORD slew him.

8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto [k] thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be [l] his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did * displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew [m] him also.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, [n] Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt [o] in her father's house.

12 ¶ And † in process of time the daughter of Shuah Judah's wife died; and Judah [p] was comforted, and went up unto his sheep-shearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold thy father in law goeth up [q] to Timnath to shear his sheep.

14 And she [r] put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped herself, and [s] sat in ‡ an open place, which is by the way to Timnath; for she saw [t] that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

B. C. 1727

15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, [u] I will send thee § a kid from the flock. And she said, [w] Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it?

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, [x] Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose, and went away, and [y] laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot that was ‖ openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place.

23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we * be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 ¶ And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath [z] played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, [a] and let her be burnt.

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, [b] Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, [c] the signet, and bracelets, and staff.

26 And Judah [d] acknowledged them, and said, [e] She hath been more righteous than I; because that [f] I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again [g] no more.

27 ¶ And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first.

CHAP. XXXVIII. Ver. 1. At that time.—There appears to be an anachronism here, as the facts mentioned in this place could not have happened at the period referred to in the preceding chapter. Dr. Lightfoot obviates the difficulty, by supposing the words at that time to refer to the deaths of Er and Onan, see verses 7 & 10; but Dr. Adam Clarke imagines that this chapter originally stood after chapter 33, and got by accident into this place. This supposition removes at once the chronological disagreement.

Ver. 8. Raise up seed to thy brother.—Such was the practice of the times, and probably a custom originating in the very earliest patriarchal ages.

Ver. 9. That the seed should not be his.—According to the law he knew that the child, though his, would be considered the offspring of his deceased brother, and he, the real father, would thus be deprived of his paternal privileges.

Ver. 23. Lest we be shamed.—"Though the act he had committed was not punishable by the laws, yet men were ashamed it should be known, which was a sign that they were sensible of its moral turpitude."—Patrick.

Ver. 26. She hath been more righteous than I.—Because he had kept her a widow after promising her a husband, and thus been the cause of her unholy act, which was probably done with the hope entertained by all Hebrew women, of bringing forth children who might be "heirs of the promise made to Abraham," while Judah's act had no higher motive than sensual gratification.

Ver. 28. Bound upon his hand a scarlet thread. This shows how anxiously the rights of primogeniture were maintained, and how highly they were valued.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Joseph advanced in Potiphar's house. 7 He resisteth his mistress's temptation. 13 He is falsely accused. 20 He is cast in prison. 21 God is with him there.

AND Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and [a] Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, [b] bought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither.

2 And [c] the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD [d] made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 And Joseph [e] found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him [f] overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that [g] the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph [h] was a goodly person, and well favoured.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, [i] Lie with me.

8 But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand;

9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: [k] how then can I do this great wickedness, and [l] sin against God?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And [m] she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth,

14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a *loud voice:

15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out.

16 And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home.

17 And she [n] spake unto him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, which thou has brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me:

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his [o] wrath was kindled.

20 And Joseph's master took him, and [p] put him into the [q] prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

21 ¶ But the LORD was with Joseph, and †shewed him mercy, and [r] gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison [s] committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it.

23 The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because [t] the LORD was with him, and that which he did, the LORD made it to prosper.

1 The butler and baker of Pharaoh in prison. 4 Joseph hath charge of them. 5 He interpreteth their dreams. 20 They come to pass according to his interpretation. 23 The ingratitude of the butler.

AND it came to pass after these things, that the [a] butler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was [b] wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 [c] And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward.

5 ¶ And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

Ver. 14. He hath brought in an Hebrew.—With the cunning of a woman who sought only the gratification of her own passions, yet anxious to conceal her own depravity, as an artful disguise, she affects to charge her husband with being the cause of the insult which she represented as having been offered to her by Joseph, whose name she forbears to mention, but calls him emphatically Hebrew, as a mark of her anger and contempt.

CHAP. XL. Ver. 1. The butler of the king of Egypt, and his baker.—His cup-bearer and cook—had offended.—Their offence must have been great, as they were evidently under great apprehension respecting the issue of their imprisonment. morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore [a]look ye so sadly to day?

8 And they said unto him, [d]We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, [e]Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me;

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, [f]This is the interpretation of it: The three branches [g]are three days:

13 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh [h]†lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

14 But ‡[i]think on me when it shall be well with thee, and [k]shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: [l]and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three §white baskets on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of ‖bakemeats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, [m]This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days:

19 [n]Yet within three days shall Pharaoh [o]lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's [o]birthday, that he [p]made a feast unto all his servants: and he [q]†lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he [r]restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and [s]he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand:

22 But he [t]hanged the chief baker: as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but [u]forgat him.

CHAP. XLI.

1 Pharaoh's two dreams. 25 Joseph interpreteth them. 33 He giveth Pharaoh counsel. 38 Joseph is advanced. 50 He begetteth Manasseh and Ephraim. 54 The famine beginneth.

AND it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed: and, behold, he stood by the river.

2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well favoured kine and fatfleshed; and they fed in a meadow.

3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill favoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven well favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, *rank and good.

6 And, behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning [a]that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all [b]the magicians of Egypt, and all the [c]wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

9 ¶ Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day:

10 Pharaoh was [d]wroth with his servants, and [e]put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker:

11 And [f]we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, [g]servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he [h]interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, [i]as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

Ver. 11. And pressed them into Pharaoh's cup. From this passage it will appear that in those days wine was the simple juice of the grape, drunk without being submitted to the process of fermentation.

Ver. 23. Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgat him.—This double expression in terms both negative and positive of the same act, is very emphatic, and pointedly marks the butler's ingratitude, in consequence of which the innocent Joseph was left two years longer in prison.

CHAP. XLI. Ver. 1. The river.—The Nile.

Ver. 2. There came up out of the river.—The Nile was the source of fertility in Egypt, its overflow producing abundance; but when its waters failed to rise above the banks, famine invariably ensued. The seven fat and seven lean kine coming up out of this river, therefore, clearly pointed to a seven years' plenty, and seven years' dearth.

Ver. 6. The east wind.—Probably the simoom, a pestilential wind which blows over the Lybian desert from the east. Speaking of the simoom, Mr. Bruce says, "From the south-east I saw a haze coming, in colour like the purple part of the rainbow, but not so compressed or thick. It did not occupy twenty yards in breadth, and was about twelve feet high from the ground. It was a kind of blush upon the air, and it moved very rapidly, for I scarcely could turn to fall upon the ground, with my head near the wind, when I felt the heat of its current plainly upon my face. We all lay flat upon the ground, as if dead, till Idris told us it was blown over. The nectory, or purple haze, which I saw, was indeed past, but the light air that still blew was of a heat to threaten suffocation."

Ver. 8. Magicians.—Interpreters of dreams. These were evidently regular professors of this art as well as of sorcery in general. The wise men mentioned in this verse were probably persons skilled in the science of hieroglyphics.

Ver. 9. I do remember my faults. Mr Ingratitude in suffering Joseph to remain in prison to this day.

B. C. 1715.

14 ¶ [k]Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they [l]+brought him hastily [m]out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: [n]and I have heard say of thee, that ‡thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, [o]It is not in me: [p]God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, [q]In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river:

18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fatfleshed and well favoured; and they fed in a meadow:

19 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness:

20 And the lean and the ill favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine:

21 And when they had §eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good:

23 And, behold, seven ears, ‖withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and [r]I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me.

25 ¶ And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: [s]God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about to do.

26 The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.

27 And the seven thin and ill favoured kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be [t]seven years of famine.

28 [u]This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come [x]seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt:

30 And there shall [y]arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine [z]shall consume the land;

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very *grievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the [a]thing is ‡established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint ‡officers over the land, and [b]take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

35 And [c]let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land §[d]perish not through the famine.

37 ¶ And [e]the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man [f]in whom the Spirit of God is?

39 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art:

40 [g]Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people ‖be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.

before the years of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah *priest of On bare unto him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn †Manasseh: For God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.

52 And the name of the second called he ‡Ephraim: For God hath caused me to be [r]fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 ¶ And the seven years of plenteousness, that was in the land of Egypt, were ended.

54 [s]And the seven years of dearth began to come, [t]according as Joseph had said: and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth: And Joseph opened §all the storehouses, and [u]sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 [x]And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph for to buy corn; because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

CHAP. XLII.

1 Jacob sendeth his ten sons to buy corn in Egypt. 16 They are imprisoned by Joseph for spies. 18 They are set at liberty, on condition to bring Benjamin. 21 They have remorse for Joseph. 24 Simeon is kept for a pledge. 25 They return with corn, and their money. 29 Their relation to Jacob. 36 Jacob refuseth to send Benjamin.

1707. NOW when [a]Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may [b]live, and not die.

3 ¶ And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

4 But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren; for he said, [c]Lest peradventure mischief befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was [d]in the land of Canaan.

6 And Joseph was the governor [e]over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and [f]bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake *roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food.

B. C. 1707.

8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Joseph [g]remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

10 And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come.

11 We are all one man's sons; we are true men, thy servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

13 And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one [h]is not.

14 And Joseph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies:

15 Hereby ye shall be proved: [i]By the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither.

16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be †kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Pharaoh surely ye are spies.

17 And he *put them all together into ward three days.

18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; [k]for I fear God:

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses:

20 But [l]bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so.

21 ¶ And they said one to another, [m]We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; [n]therefore is this distress come upon us.

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, [o]Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is [p]required.

23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for †he spake unto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶ Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them

Ver. 9. Ye are spies.—This was merely said to test his unnatural brethren.—The whole of Joseph's conduct in this interview showed that he was actuated by no feeling of resentment, but by a sense of duty, since the restraints which he imposed upon himself were of the most trying description.

Ver. 13. Twelve brethren, the sons of one man.—This was a sufficient proof that they were not what Joseph taxed them with being; for no man would send ten sons upon an enterprize of such extreme hazard as that of entering a country in the perilous character of spies. It was not likely that one family, without resources, would meditate the conquest of a large and powerful kingdom. One is not.—This is only an ellipsis for one is not alive.

1 Joseph's policy to stay his brethren. 14 Judah's humble supplication to Joseph.

AND he commanded * the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he † divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 ¶ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing:

8 Behold, [a]the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, [b]both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless.

12 And ‖ he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

CHAP. XLIV. Ver. 5. And whereby indeed he divineth?—I take this to have been a mere ruse of the steward, in accommodation to the wishes of his master, to strengthen the impression of the Hebrews that Joseph was an Egyptian, and therefore the more completely to preserve the delusion by which he was trying them. The steward's question, taking into consideration the circumstances under which it is asked, can afford no possible ground for the conclusion that his master was a diviner or sorcerer. The whole was a piece of artifice to delude the brethren, and put them in a state of the greatest perplexity, in order, perhaps, to see how they would act towards Benjamin, when the latter should stand so palpably under the imputation of theft.

Ver. 15 Can certainly divine?—Joseph still keeps up the delusion, assuming all the while the Egyptian character, apart from his ministry.

CHAP. XLV. Ver. 2. The Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.—This," says Sir John Chardin, "is exactly the genius of the people of Asia; their sentiments of joy or grief are properly transports, and their transports are ungoverned, excessive, and truly outrageous. When any one returns from a long journey, or dies, his family burst into cries that may be heard twenty doors off; and this is renewed at different times, and continues many days, according to the vigour of the passion. Sometimes they cease all at once, and then begin as suddenly with a greater violence and loudness than one could easily imagine."

Ver. 6. There shall neither be earing nor harvest. "Earing is an old English word for ploughing." See Calmet, Fragments.

Ver. 8. He hath made me a father to Pharaoh.—Calmet has remarked that among the Phœnicians, Persians, Arabians, and Romans, the title of father was given to certain officers of state. It may therefore imply that, through the Divine benevolence, Joseph had become prime minister to Pharaoh, the most powerful monarch of his time.

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these?

9 And Joseph said unto his father, [c]They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and [f]I will bless them.

10 Now [g]the eyes of Israel were * dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and [h]he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, [i]I had not thought to see thy face; and, lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, [k]guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the firstborn.

15 ¶ And [l]he blessed Joseph, and said, God, [m]before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long unto this day,

16 The Angel [n]which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let [o]my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them † grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father [p]laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it ‡ displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, [q]I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly [r]his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a ‡ multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day, saying, [s]In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but [t]God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover [u]I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand [x]of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

CHAP. XLIX.

1 Jacob calleth his sons to bless them. 3 Their blessing in particular. 29 He chargeth them about his burial. 33 He dieth.

AND Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may [a]tell you that which shall befall you [b]in the last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and [c]hearken unto Israel your father.

3 ¶ Reuben, thou art [d]my firstborn, my might, [e]and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

4 Unstable as water, * [f]thou shalt not excel; because thou [g]wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: † he went up to my couch.

5 ¶ [h]Simeon and Levi are [i]brethren; ‡ [k]instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

6 O my soul, [l]come not thou into their secret; [m]unto their assembly, [n]mine honour, be not thou united: for [o]in their anger they slew a man, and in their self-will they § digged down a wall.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: [p]I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

8 ¶ [q]Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: [r]thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; [s]thy father's children shall bow down before thee.

9 Judah is [t]a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: [u]he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

10 [x]The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor [y]a lawgiver [z]from between his feet, [a]until Shiloh come; [b]and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

11 [c]Binding his foal unto the vine, and his ass's colt unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes:

12 His [d]eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

Ver. 14. Who was the younger.—"God," as it is observed by Theodoret, was wont, from the beginning, to prefer the younger before the elder, as Abel before Cain; Shem before Japhet; Isaac before Ishmael; Jacob before Esau; Judah and Joseph before Reuben, and here Ephraim before Manasseh; as afterwards Moses before Aaron, and David the youngest before all his brethren. Which was to show that divine benefits were not nimbed to the order of nature, but dispensed freely, according to God's est wise goodness. Guiding his hands wittingly.—Not by accident, but signedly."

Ver. 16. The Angel.—That is, Christ, the Angel of the covenant. Let y name be named on them.—Let them inherit all my family privileges.

Ver. 20. In thee shall Israel bless.—"When my posterity would wish happiness to others, they shall use this form of speech; 'God make you Ephraim and Manasseh,' which continues, they say, among the Jews this day." Bishop Patrick.

Ver. 22. I have given to thee, &c. Jacob probably alludes here to some ecial action not now upon record. The meaning of the verse is more erfect of conjecture.

Ver. xlix. Ver. 1. That which shall befal you in the last days.—That is, at shall be the condition of your descendants in future ages, and especially in the last days of the Jewish dispensation. The last days had an pecial reference to the time of the Messiah.

Ver. 3, 4. Reuben, &c.—This prophecy relating to Jacob's sons may be interpreted as follows:—Thou, Reuben, to whom belong the privileges of the firstborn, whom I begat in the prime of my life, and the first fruits of my strength, who, by inheritance, didst claim the pre-eminence among thy brethren, though thou hast now forfeited it by thy criminal conduct in dishonouring thy father's bed;—violent in thy character, giving the rein to thy passions, and impetuous as a torrent, thy posterity shall not be distinguished, because of thy criminal intercourse with thy father's concubine. See Chap. 35. 22.

Ver. 5, 6, 7. Simeon and Levi are brethren.—Not only by consanguinity, but likewise in disposition. Their swords are weapons of violence. I was ignorant of their conspiracy purpose: I did not participate in their secret council; let not them my honour be impeached by uniting it with their confederacy, of which I knew nothing; for in their criminal rage they slew a noble, and in the fierceness of their malice they committed the most wanton cruelties. Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel.—I will divide and scatter them among the tribes, and they shall never attain to any political distinction.

Ver. 8—12. Judah, thou art he, as the name imports, whom thy brethren shall praise.—Thou shalt subdue thine enemies, and thy father's children shall acknowledge thy pre-eminence. Thy posterity shall be renowned for their undaunted valour, as a young lion among the flocks, they shall scatter

13 ¶ [c]Zebulun shall dwell at the haven of the sea; and he shall be for an haven of ships; and his border shall be unto Zidon.

14 ¶ Issachar is a strong ass couching down between two burdens:

15 And he saw that rest was good, and the land that it was pleasant; and bowed [f]his shoulder to bear, and became a servant unto tribute.

16 ¶ Dan [g]shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel.

17 [h]Dan shall be a serpent by the way, ‖ an adder in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

18 [i]I have waited for thy salvation, O LORD.

19 ¶ [k]Gad, a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last.

20 ¶ [l]Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.

21 ¶ [m]Naphtali is a hind let loose: he giveth goodly words.

22 ¶ Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose * branches run over the wall:

23 The archers have [n]sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him:

24 But his [o]bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of [p]the mighty God of Jacob; ([q]from thence [r]is the shepherd, [s]the stone of Israel:)

25 [t]Even by the God of thy father, who shall help thee; [u]and by the Almighty, [x]who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb;

26 The blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of thy progenitors [y]unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills: [z]they shall be on the head of Joseph and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren.

27 ¶ Benjamin shall [a]ravin as a wolf; in the morning he shall devour the prey, [b]and at night he shall divide the spoil.

28 ¶ All these are the twelve tribes of Israel: and this is it that their father spake unto them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

29 And he charged them, and said unto them, I [c]am to be gathered unto my people: [d]bury me with my fathers [e]in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,

30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, [f]which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession of a buryingplace.

31 [g]There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; [h]there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah.

32 The purchase of the field and of the cave that is therein was from the children of Heth.

33 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and [i]was gathered unto his people.

B. C. 1689.

for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed: and the Egyptians *[d] mourned for him threescore and ten days.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake unto [e] the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

5 [f] My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave [g] which I have digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 ¶ And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshing-floor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they [h] mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: [i] and he made a mourning for his father seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called † Abel-mizraim, which is beyond Jordan.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them:

13 For [k] his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham [l] bought with the field for a possession of a burying place of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 ¶ And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father. B. C. 1689.

15 ¶ And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, [m] they said, Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they ‡ sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying,

17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; [n] for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of [o] the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

18 And his brethren also went and [p] fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants.

19 And Joseph said unto them, [q] Fear not: [r] for am I in the place of God?

20 [s] But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but [t] God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: [u] I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake § kindly unto them.

22 ¶ And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children [x] of the third generation: [y] the children also of Machir the son of Manasseh [z] were || brought upon Joseph's knees.

24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and [a] God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land [b] which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

25 And [c] Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence.

26 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they [d] embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

EXODUS. INTRODUCTION.—The name of this book has a Greek derivation, and signifies going out, or departure, because the principal event detailed in it is the departure of the Israelites from Egypt. It contains the principal events which took place during a period of a hundred and forty-five years. Commencing from the death of Joseph, it relates the sufferings of the Hebrews under the successors of that Pharaoh who had so befriended and distinguished him; the appointment of Moses, and the extraordinary miracles by which he effected the deliverance of his countrymen. It gives an account of the institution of the Passover; of the Israelites' preparation for their departure; their journey through the wilderness, their sufferings, dissatisfactions, murmurings, insurrections; the promulgation of the law from Mount Sinai; and the building and consecration of the tabernacle.

CHAP. I. Ver. 1. These are the names.—The names of Jacob's sons are repeated here, to show from what a small number of persons that vast population sprang, which finally settled in the land of promise.

Ver. 6. Joseph died, and all his brethren.—That is, were dead.

Ver. 7. And waxed exceeding mighty.—In number, not in political importance.

Ver. 8. A new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph.—A sovereign very different from him who had raised Joseph to distinction, and adopted the wise policy suggested by that eminent minister.

Ver. 9. Are more and mightier than we.—This was a falsehood, but used by Pharaoh to excite the jealousy and move the angry passions of his subjects.

Ver. 11. Taskmasters.—Persons who appointed the Israelites their work, the performance of which they exacted with extreme severity, demanding from them the most difficult labours, and obliging them probably at the same time to pay an exorbitant tribute. Treasure cities—or store cities. The original word is Miscenoth, which Calmet considers to be the name of a city, and translates the passage thus: "And they built for Pharaoh cities, namely, Miscenoth, Pithom and Raamses." Besides these cities, the Israelites are supposed, by some writers, upon the authority of Josephus, to have built the Pyramids.

CHAP. II. Ver. 1. And there went a man.—This was Amram, the son of Kohath, of the tribe of Levi, who married Jochebed, by whom he had three children, Aaron, Moses, and Miriam, of whom the latter was the eldest by several years. Moses was three years younger than his brother Aaron. Amram died in Egypt, aged 137. See Chapter 6. 20. A daughter of Levi.—A descendant of that family.

Ver. 2. And bare a son.—Moses is probably here mentioned without any reference to the birth of his brother Aaron and his sister Miriam, both of they were born before the decree was passed for the destruction of Hebrew children, to which event the birth of Moses had an immediate remarkable reference. A goodly child.—Comely or beautiful.

3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

4 [c]And his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.

5 ¶ And the [d]daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.

7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.

9 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became [e]her son. And she called his name *Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

11 ¶ And it came to pass in those days, [f]when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their [g]burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.

12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he [h]slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 And [i]when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he said, [k]Who made thee †a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But [l]Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by [m]a well.

16 [n]Now the ‡priest of Midian had seven daughters: [o]and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and [p]watered their flock.

18 And when they came to [q]Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to day?

19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may [r]eat bread.

21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses [s]Zipporah his daughter.

22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name §[t]Gershom: for he said, I have been [u]a stranger in a strange land.

23 ¶ And it came to pass [x]in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel [y]sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and [z]their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage.

24 And God [a]heard their groaning, and God [b]remembered his [c]covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 And God [d]looked upon the children of Israel, and God ‖[e]had respect unto them.

CHAP. III.

1 Moses keepeth Jethro's flock. 2 God appeareth to him in a burning bush. 9 He sendeth him to deliver Israel. 14 The name of God. 15 His message to Israel.

NOW Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, [a]the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to [b]the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

2 And [c]the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this [d]great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called [e]unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I.

5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put [f]off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

6 Moreover he said, [g]I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for [h]he was afraid to look upon God.

7 ¶ And the LORD said, I have surely

Ver. 3. An ark of bulrushes.—A small boat made of the papyrus, a reed celebrated in Egypt from the remotest antiquity, and of which the Nile ats were commonly constructed.

Ver. 4. To wit.—To ascertain.

Ver. 5. To wash herself.—To perform the ablutions which her religion ioined. These observances, so necessary in a warm country for the ilthy health, were likewise types of spiritual purification.

Ver. 9. Took the child, and nursed it.—The Divine interposition is evi- nt throughout the whole of these details respecting the preservation of ses's.

Ver. 12. He looked this way and that way.—A form of speech signi- ying that he conducted his observations with prudent caution.

seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and [l]have heard their cry [k]by reason of their taskmasters; for [l]I know their sorrows;

8 And [m]I am come down to [n]deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land [o]unto a good land and a large, unto a land [p]flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of [q]the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

9 Now therefore, behold, [r]the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the [s]oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.

10 [t]Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11 ¶ And Moses said unto God, [u]Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he said, [x]Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?

14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, [y]I AM hath sent me unto you.

15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is [z]my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

16 Go, and [a]gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, [b]I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt:

17 And I have said, [c]I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

18 And [d]they shall hearken to thy voice: and [e]thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath [f]met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

19 ¶ And I am sure that the king of Egypt [g]will not let you go, *no, not by a mighty hand.

20 And I will [h]stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with [i]all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and [k]after that he will let you go.

21 And [l]I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty:

22 [m]But every woman shall borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and [n]ye shall spoil †the Egyptians.

CHAP. IV.

Moses's rod is turned into a serpent. 6 His hand is leprous. 10 He is loth to be sent. 14 Aaron is appointed to assist him. 18 Moses departeth from Jethro. 21 God's message to Pharaoh. 24 Zipporah circumciseth her son. 27 Aaron is sent to meet Moses. 31 The people believeth them.

AND Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, [a]A rod.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:

5 That they may [b]believe that [c]the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

6 ¶ And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous [d]as snow.

7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom, again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, [e]it was turned again as his other flesh.

Ver. 22. Shall borrow.—Borrow here is a term of doubtful signification; but all commentators seem to agree that the most obvious meaning is to [illegible] the plagues, would be glad to supply the Hebrews with any thing they [illegible] requires, in order to get rid of them, they being the cause of their [illegible] lings. He, therefore, bids the former take advantage of the latters' [illegible] ness to supply them with necessaries for their journey, and to accept [illegible] they shall be disposed to give, and thus to spoil the Egyptians, not by [illegible] or violence, but by receiving what they offer under the influence of [illegible] terror.

CHAP. IV. Ver. 5. That they may believe.—"The meaning is, that [illegible] be a miracle, which you shall be enabled to repeat before the Israelites [illegible] demonstrate that you are authorised by me, the God of your forefathers." Pyle

8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.

9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and [f]the water which thou takest out of the river * shall become blood upon the dry land.

10 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not †eloquent, neither ‡heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but [g]I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

11 And the LORD said unto him, [h]Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

12 Now therefore go, and I will be [i]with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

13 And he said, O my Lord, [k]send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou ‡wilt send.

14 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, [l]he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

15 And [m]thou shalt speak unto him, and [n]put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and [o]will teach you what ye shall do.

16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and [p]thou shalt be to him instead of God.

17 And thou shalt take [q]this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do signs.

18 ¶ And Moses went and returned to §Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for [r]all the men are dead which sought thy life.

20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took [t]the rod of God in his hand.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those [t]wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thine hand; but [u]I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go.

22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, [x]Israel is my son, [y]even my firstborn:

23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, [z]I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn.

24 ¶ And it came to pass by the way in the inn, that the LORD [a]met him, and sought to [b]kill him.

25 Then Zipporah [c]took a sharp ‖stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and * cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband art thou to me.

26 So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.

27 ¶ And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness [d]to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in [e]the mount of God, and kissed him.

28 And Moses [f]told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the [g]signs which he had commanded him.

29 ¶ And Moses and Aaron [h]went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel:

30 [i]And Aaron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.

31 And the people [k]believed: and when they heard that the LORD had [l]visited the children of Israel, and that he [m]had looked upon their affliction, then [n]they bowed their heads and worshipped.

The Almighty does not here operate upon Pharaoh's heart, but by the privitive act merely of withholding his Divine influence, leaves the royal transgressor to the effect of his own sins, which necessarily harden it.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee [a] a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be [b] thy prophet.

2 Thou [c] shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

3 And [d] I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and [e] multiply my [f] signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, [g] that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt [h] by great judgments.

5 And the Egyptians [i] shall know that I am the LORD, when I [k] stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 And Moses and Aaron [l] did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.

7 And Moses was [m] fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

Ver. 15. He goeth out unto the water.—To perform his customary ablutions.

Ver. 17.—In this thou shalt know that I am the Lord.—You shall have the opportunity of witnessing that I am indeed that Jehovah whose supremacy thou hast dared to question. See Chap. 5. 2. Behold, I will smite with the rod, &c.—God declares, through the mouth of his prophet, that he will do what he commissions his ministers to perform; thus, at once, ratifying their ministry, and asserting his own power.

Ver. 22. And the magicians of Egypt did so.—That is, the magicians performed a similar miracle; but as all the water was turned into blood, it is possible they obtained some from the country bordering upon Egypt, where the curse did not extend; or else we may suppose, with Bishop Patrick, that the waters of Egypt were not instantly, but in succession, turned into blood, and that, therefore, the magicians had an opportunity of exhibiting their skill in sorcery before the completion of the plague. God permitted these pretenders, for his own wise purposes, to imitate his "wonders;" he soon, however, showed them that there is a limit to all human power, and made them conscious of their impotence.

Ver. 23. Seven days.—Thus the first infliction continued a week, which renders the conjecture of the preceding note, respecting the gradual progress of this plague, the more probable.

Chap. viii. Ver. 2. If thou refuse.—"God," says Bishop Patrick, "threatens the curse before he inflicts it, both that Pharaoh might know it came not by chance, but by the determinate counsel of God, and that he might prevent it by repentance and submission to God's command." With frogs.—God does not employ destructive, but harmless, creatures, though of the most offensive kind, in these plagues; as his object was not to destroy, but to chastise. By this miracle the sacred river, the object of Egyptian worship, was defiled, their temples polluted, their gods dishonoured, and their houses rendered unfit for human habitation.

Ver. 7. The magicians did so.—Such multitudes of frogs being at hand, this miracle might have been imitated by the Egyptian sorcerers without much difficulty. Their skill in juggling, which was no doubt great, will be sufficient to account for this.

Ver. 8. Intreat the Lord.—Pharaoh is here compelled to acknowledge that the God of Israel is "Lord of all power and might."

Ver. 9. Glory over me.—This is a very obscure passage. The meaning of the original evidently cannot be conveyed by a literal rendering. Upon consulting the best commentators, I find the meaning in which they generally concur to be pretty nearly the same as that given in Becke's Bible, 1549.—And Moses sayed unto Pharaoh, appoint thou the time unto me.

B. C. 1491.

Pharaoh: and Moses [k] cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps: and the land stank.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was [l] respite, [m] he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and [n] it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And [o] the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they [p] could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is [q] the finger of God: and Pharaoh's [r] heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

20 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [s] Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [t] Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send *swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And [u] I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put †a division between my people and thy people: ‡ to morrow shall this sign be.

24 And the LORD did so; and [x] there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was § corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 ¶ And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice [y] the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

27 We will go [z] three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as [a] he shall command us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away: [b] intreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to morrow: but let not Pharaoh [c] deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and [d] intreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh [e] hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

1 The murrain of beasts. 8 The plague of boils and blains.
13 His message about the hail. 22 The plague of hail.
27 Pharaoh sueth to Moses, 35 but yet is hardened.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, [a] Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 For if thou [b] refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the [c] hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous murrain.

4 And [d] the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.

5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, To morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and [e] all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And [f] the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

Ver. 14. And the land stank.—They had collected in such immense multitudes that they rotted in every part of the land.

Ver. 18.—And the magicians did so—but could not.—They tried all the skill of their craft, but could not succeed.

Ver. 19. This is the finger of God.—This is beyond the power of men, and therefore the work of God only.

Ver. 21. Swarms of flies.—Generated, as some have supposed, from the putrid frogs. These insects, probably of different kinds, were here made subservient to God's purpose in punishing Pharaoh and his people. Perhaps the insect called Zimb in those countries, is alluded to here. "As soon as this plague appears," says Bruce, "and its buzzing is heard, all the cattle forsake their food, and run wildly about the plain till they die, worn out with fatigue, fright, and hunger." If, as some writers imagine, hornets, wasps, and all kinds of stinging insects, were among the flies, this visitation must have been the severest which had yet occurred.

Ver. 22. I will sever in that day the land of Goshen.—I will, from this day, distinguish the land inhabited by my people, by exempting it from the rest of those plagues with which I am about to scourge Egypt.

Ver. 26. The abomination of the Egyptians.—Those animals which the Egyptians worshipped.

CHAP. IX. Ver. 3. A very grievous murrain.—A grievous mortality. The murrain was both very infectious and very fatal.

Ver. 6. All the cattle of Egypt died.—This form of speech is merely used to signify that the plague almost amounted to a total extermination of the cattle. That some survived is evident from ver. 19.

unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be [e]a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became [h]a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast.

11 And the [i]magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

12 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; [k]as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

13 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [l]Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

14 For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; [m]that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I will [n]stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

16 And in very deed for [o]this cause have I [*]raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17 As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

18 Behold, to morrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.

19 Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21 And he that [†]regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be [p]hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and [q]the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail [r]smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

26 [s]Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

27 ¶ And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, [t]I have sinned this time: [u]the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

28 [x]Intreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more ‡mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will [y]spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the [z]earth is the LORD's.

30 But as for thee and thy servants, [a]I know that ye will not yet fear the LORD God.

31 And the flax and the barley was smitten: [b]for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was bolled.

32 But the wheat and the rie were not smitten: for they were §not grown up.

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and [c]spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain

Ver. 9. Be a boil.—God caused the ashes from those furnaces at which the Israelites had been forced to labour with tyrannical severity, to be the medium of punishing their oppressors, converting them into instruments of torment.

Ver. 11. Upon the magicians.—Here the impotence of these pretenders was at once signalized. They could not escape this infliction, in spite of their assumed skill in working miracles.

Ver. 12. And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh.—Still continued to withhold his grace, but left him to the natural waywardness of his mind.

Ver. 15, 16.—Ainsworth and Houbigant, and they are followed by many learned men, render these verses as follows:—"For if now I had stretched out my hand, and had smitten thee and thy people with the pestilence, thou shouldst have been cut off from the earth. But, truly, on this very account have I caused thee to subsist, that I might cause thee to see my power, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth, or in all this land."

Ver. 16. For this cause have I raised thee up.—For this cause have spared thee, that I might visit thee with inflictions of a nature so much more severe as shall convince thee, in spite of thy obduracy, that I am the Lord Almighty, and manifest my power more signally in thee and in thy people.

Ver. 18. To-morrow about this time.—"The time of this plague is marked thus circumstantially to show Pharaoh that Jehovah was Lord over heaven and earth; and that the waters, the fire, and the air, which were all objects of Egyptian idolatry, were the creatures of his power, and subservient to his will; and that, far from being able to help them, they were now, in the hands of God, instruments of their destruction."—Clarke's Commentary. To rain a very grievous hail.—Hail is rain frozen, therefore the expression which has been carped at by objectors is neither inapt nor unphilosophical. Rain being very seldom known in Egypt, this miracle was the more remarkable; and a still more incontestible proof of the Divine power than any of the former.

Ver. 23. Thunder and hail, and the fire.—"In this tremendous plague, the united elements of air, water, and fire were employed, to terrify and punish the Egyptians by their principal divinities."—Dr. Hales.

Ver. 31. The flax and the barley.—Both these were the staple produce of Egypt, and their destruction was consequently a grievous calamity. Was bolled.—Was risen into a stalk, and therefore beaten down by the hail.

Ver. 4. Locusts.—These insects, in the countries where they abound, frequently lie in such prodigious swarms as to darken the land for miles. "Wherever their legions march," says Mr. Volney, "the verdure disappears from the country; trees and plants, despoiled of their leaves, make the hideous appearance of Winter instantly succeed to the bright scenes of Spring. When these clouds of locusts take their flight, in order to surmount some obstacle, or the more rapidly to cross some desert, one may actually say that the sun is darkened by them."

Ver. 10. Let the Lord be so with you.—The sense is here obscure. "Most take this to be a form of imprecation," observes Bishop Patrick, "as if Pharaoh had said, 'I wish you may prosper no better, then I will accord with your desire.' But some look upon it as an irrision or jeer; as if he had said, 'You trust in the Lord, let him do all he can to deliver you, as I am determined to keep you here.'" Look to it; for evil is before you.—Or, as we should say, Go at your peril.

4 And if the houshold be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be [b]without blemish, a male †of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

6 And ye shall keep it up until the [c]fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it ‡in the evening.

7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and [d]unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

Ver. 24. Only let your flocks and herds.—These subterfuges sufficiently show the evil disposition of this wicked King.

Ver. 25. And we know not, &c.—Because the law had not yet been proclaimed.

CHAP. XII. Ver. 1. The Lord said.—Calmet contends that this should be read, the Lord had said, because the interview between Moses and Pharaoh mentioned in this chapter must have preceded that described at the conclusion of the Tenth, which seems to have been the last interview he had with the obdurate king of Egypt. Or, what is here spoken from verses four to eight inclusive, might have been declared at that interview, and was perhaps the cause of Pharaoh's driving Moses from his presence.

Ver. 2. Borrow.—See note on Chap. iii. 22.

Ver. 3. Moses was very great.—Evidently under the Divine protection, and consequently so dreaded that the Egyptians were afraid to offer him violence.

Ver. 5. The maid servant that is behind the mill.—The meanest slaves; for the lowest of these were always employed upon the mills, which were turned by hand, and the work was excessively laborious.

Ver. 7. Not a dog shall move his tongue.—Probably a proverbial expression, signifying that when the Israelites should be upon their march from the land of their bondage, not even a dog should be exerted to bark by so vast an assemblage, amid the noise and confusion of their departure.

Ver. 9. Pharaoh shall not, &c.—That is, Pharaoh will not, and therefore God left him to the consequences of his own obstinacy.

CHAP. XII. Ver. 2. This month.—The month Abib, which signifies an ear of corn, because the corn was then eared—and also Nisan, answers nearly to the latter part of our March and the beginning of April. This half-bitter has been reckoned the seventh month; and the Israelites continued afterwards to compute several of their civil concerns by this reckoning, which agreed with that of the surrounding countries: but in remembrance of their deliverance out of Egypt, when they were formed into a nation and a church, and received as it were a new kind of existence, it was appointed to be the first month of the year to them, and their sacred institutions were regulated according to it. This new style began the year with the Spring, when the face of creation was renewed.—Scott. Thus Abib was the beginning of the ecclesiastical year, as Tisri, which answered to the end of our September and beginning of October, was of their civil year.

Ver. 3. A lamb.—The original signifies the young either of sheep or of goats, and may therefore be read a lamb or kid indifferently. A lamb for an house.—That is, for a family.

Ver. 4. Every man, &c.—The exact number of persons that the lamb would satisfy should partake of it.

Ver. 6. In the evening.—or between the two evenings, according to the marginal reading, which was between noon and sunset. Thus the three-and-twentieth day when the first Jewish passover was slain, was the same in which Christ our passover was crucified for us.

Ver. 7. Take of the blood, &c.—The act here commanded was an emblem of that atoning sacrifice made by the blood of Christ, as St. Peter and St. Paul plainly intimate, 1 Pet. i. 2. Heb. ix. 13, 14; viii. 10.

Ver. 8. Roast with fire.—Neither boiled, as was their usual method

9 Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but [e]roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof.

10 [f]And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

11 ¶ And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: [g]it is the LORD's passover.

12 For I [h] will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and [i]against all the §gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: [k]I am the LORD.

13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you ‖ to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you [l]for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a [m]feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast [n]by an ordinance for ever.

15 [o]Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, [p]that soul shall be cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day there shall be [q]an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every *man must eat, that only may be done of you.

17 And ye shall observe [r]the feast of unleavened bread; for [s]in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

18 ¶ [t]In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 [t]Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, [u]even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land. B. C. 1491.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, [x]Draw out and take you a †lamb according to your families, and kill the passover.

22 [y]And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and [z]strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.

23 [a]For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and [b]will not suffer [c]the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, [d]according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26 [e]And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service?

27 That ye shall say, [f]It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people [g]bowed the head and worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went away, and [h]did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 ¶ [i]And it came to pass, that at midnight [k]the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, [l]from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the ‡dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a [m]great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 ¶ And [n]he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, [o]both ye and eating meat, nor raw, as was the custom among the Egyptians, in honour of their gods. This feast was to be distinguished, and therefore the manner of preparing it was quite out of the ordinary course. Bitter herbs.—a symbols of mortification and contrition, as unleavened bread was an emblem of sincerity and truth. Or the unleavened bread, which was hard and ungrateful to the appetite, might be intended as a memorial of their rigorous bondage in Egypt, and the bitter herbs of the severe sufferings to which they were subjected.

Ver. 9. With the purtenance thereof.—That is, the intestines, which were used by the Egyptians for purposes of divination, and could not consequently be so employed if the animal were roasted entire.

Ver. 11. And thus shall ye eat it, &c.—When ye eat it ye shall be equipped for your journey, ready to proceed at a moment's notice. It is the Lord's passover.—It shall be the memorial to future generations of my having passed over your houses when I slew the first-born of the Egyptians, and rescued you from the bondage of Pharaoh.

Ver. 12. Against all the gods of Egypt.—By destroying the first-born of beasts, God would destroy the objects which the Egyptians worshipped; he threatens an especial judgment upon the divinities of Egypt that besides the first born of beasts, there was a general destruction declared of all the Egyptian Deities.

At every feast also of the passover, the oldest person at the table instructed all the younger sort that were present, in the reason of this institution, rehearsing these very words, as Conradus Pellicanus observes: 'This is the sacrifice of the passover, in remembrance that the Lord passed over the houses of the children of Israel, in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses.'"—*Bp. LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the LORD'S.

13 And [p]every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a ‡lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children [q]shalt thou redeem.

14 ¶ [r]And it shall be when thy son asketh thee §in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, [s]By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage:

15 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that [t]the LORD slew all the firstborn in the land [r]of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for [u]a token upon thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people [x]repent when they see war, and [y]they return to Egypt:

18 But God [z]led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea: and the children of Israel went up ‖ harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, [a]God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 ¶ And [b]they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And [c]the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night:

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, [a]that they turn and encamp before [b]Pi-hahiroth, between [c]Migdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, [d]They are entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And [e]I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I [f]will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; [g]that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

5 ¶ And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: and [h]the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

7 And he took [i]six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 And the LORD [k]hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and [l]the children of Israel went out with an high hand.

9 But the [m]Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

10 ¶ And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel [n]cried out unto the LORD.

11 [o]And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 [p]Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, [q]Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: *for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

14 [r]The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall [s]hold your peace.

It separates Egypt on the west from Arabia on the east. Harnessed.—"Or, in military order, for though it is not likely the Egyptians suffered them to have any arms, yet they did not go away tumultuously, like fugitives, but marched like soldiers in good order, and, as in our margin it is translated, five in a rank."—*Bp. CHAP. XIV. Ver. 2. Pi-hahiroth.—The first encampment of the Israelites was before the Bay of Hiroth, or Chiroth, between a fortress called Migdol and the sea, and opposite to an idol temple, as some suppose, bearing the name of Baal-zephon, originally placed there as a guide to ships entering the bay.

Ver. 3. The wilderness hath shut them in.—They were confined in a narrow pass, bounded by hills on one side, and by the sea on the other.

Ver. 4. I will harden Pharaoh's heart.—I will leave him to his obduracy which has not abated, notwithstanding the heavy judgments with which he has been visited, and thus he shall rush upon his own destruction.

Ver. 5. From serving us.—They were loth to lose the valuable services of the Israelites, and desired therefore to continue them in their bondage.

Ver. 11. Because there were no graves.—Even thus early the ungrateful and want of faith of the Israelites displayed itself, in reproaching Moses and distrusting God.

Ver. 13. Stand still.—Be quiet; cease your murmurings, and you shall witness how signally God will deliver you from the wicked designs of Pharaoh.

Ver. 14. Ye shall hold your peace.—God shall still your murmurings by his miraculous interposition in your favour.

unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 But [t]lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

17 And I, behold, I will [u]harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will [x]get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians [y]shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 ¶ And the angel of God, [z]which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and [a]it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses [b]stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and [c]made the sea dry land, and the waters were [d]divided.

22 And [e]the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were [f]a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

23 ¶ And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch [g]the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians,

25 And took off their chariot wheels, †that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD [h]fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [i]Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea [k]returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD [l]†overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And [m]the waters returned, and [n]covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them.

29 But [o]the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD [p]saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel [q]saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore.

31 And Israel saw that great §work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and [r]believed the LORD, and his servant Moses.

CHAP. XV.

1 Moses' song. 22 The people want water. 23 The waters at Marah are bitter. 25 A tree sweeteneth them. 27 At Elim are twelve wells, and seventy palm trees.

THEN sang [s]Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will [b]sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 The LORD is my strength and [c]song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him [d]an habitation; my [e]father's God, and I [f]will exalt him.

3 The LORD is a man of [g]war: the LORD is his [h]name.

4 [i]Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: [k]his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea.

5 [l]The depths have covered them: [m]they sank into the bottom as a stone.

6 [n]Thy right hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O LORD, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

7 And in the greatness of thine [o]excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which [p]consumed them [q]as stubble.

8 And [r]with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, [s]the floods stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 [t]The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will [u]divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall [*]destroy them.

10 Thou didst [x]blow with thy wind, [y]the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

11 [z]Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among the †gods? who is like thee, [a]glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, [b]doing wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out [c]thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast [d]led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto [e]thy holy habitation.

14 [f]The people shall hear, and be afraid: [g]sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina.

15 [h]Then [i]the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; [k]the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; [l]all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

16 [m]Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still [n]as a stone; till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over, [o]which thou hast purchased.

17 Thou shalt bring them in, and [p]plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in, in the [q]Sanctuary, O LORD, which thy hands have established.

18 [r]The LORD shall reign for ever and ever.

19 For the [s]horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and [t]the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them; but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

20 ¶ And Miriam [u]the prophetess, [x]the sister of Aaron, [y]took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her [z]with timbrels and with dances.

21 And Miriam [a]answered them, [b]Sing ye to the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

22 So Moses brought Israel from the Red sea, and they went out into the wilderness of [c]Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

23 ¶ And when they came to [d]Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called ‡ Marah.

24 And the people [e]murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

25 And he [f]cried unto the LORD; and the LORD shewed him a [g]tree, [h]which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he [i]made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there [k]he proved them,

26 And said, [l]If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these [m]diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD [n]that healeth thee.

27 ¶ [o]And they came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and threescore and ten palm trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Israelites come to Sin. 2 They murmur for want of bread. God promises them bread from heaven. 11 Quails are sent, 14 and manna. 16 The ordering of manna. 25 It was not to be found on the Sabbath. 32 An omer of it is preserved.

AND they [a]took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came unto the wilderness of [b]Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel [c]murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness:

3 And the children of Israel said unto them, [d]Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, [e]when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain [f]bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather [*]a certain rate every day, that I may [g]prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no.

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in; and [h]it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, [i]At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning, then ye shall see [k]the glory of the LORD; for that he heareth your murmurings against the LORD: and [l]what are we, that ye murmur against us?

CHAP. XVI. Ver. 1. The wilderness of Sin.—Mr. Ainsworth conjectures that this desert took its name from a city called Sin, near which it lay.

Ver. 3. The flesh-pots.—Probably the large boilers in which their victuals were cooked, are here alluded to; for, being slaves in Egypt, their meals were no doubt prepared and eaten in common.

Ver. 4. I will rain bread.—It shall drop from the skies like rain.

Ver. 8. In the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread.—In the evening quails, and in the morning manna. And what are we?—Only instruments in God's hands.

t Num. 11. 9.

14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay [u]a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground.

u Num. 11. 7. Deut. 8. 3. Neh. 9. 15. Ps. 78. 24. & 105. 40. Wis. 16. 20.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, † It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, [x]This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

x John 6. 31, 49, 50. 1 Cor. 10. 3.

16 ¶ This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating, [y]an omer ‡ for every man, according to the number of your § persons; take ye every man for them which are in his tents.

y ver. 36.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less.

18 And when they did mete it with an omer, [z]he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack; they gathered every man according to his eating.

z 2 Cor. 8. 15.

19 And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning.

20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was wroth with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

22 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To morrow is [a]the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

a Gen. 2. 3. ch. 20. 8. & 31. 15. & 35. 2. Lev. 23. 3.

B. C. 1491.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did not [b]stink, neither was there any worm therein.

b ver. 20.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 [c]Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

c ch. 20. 9, 10.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long [d]refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

d 2 Kings 17. 14. Ps. 78. 10. 22. & 106. 13.

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and [e]it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

e Num. 11. 7, 8.

32 ¶ And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, [f]Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

f Heb. 9. 4.

34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up [g]before the Testimony, to be kept.

g ch. 25. 16, 21. & 40. 20. Num. 17. 10. Deut. 10. 5. 1 Kings 8. 9.

35 And the children of Israel did eat manna [h]forty years, [i]until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan.

h Num. 33. 38. Deut. 8. 2, 3. Neh. 9. 20, 21. John 6. 31, 49.
i Josh. 5. 12. Neh. 9. 15.

36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The people murmur for water at Rephidim. 5 God sendeth him for water to the rock in Horeb. 8 Amalek is overcome by the holding up of Moses's hands. 15 Moses buildeth the altar JEHOVAH-nissi.

AND [a]all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink.

a ch. 16. 1. Num. 33. 12, 14.

2 [b]Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye [c]tempt the LORD?

b Num. 20. 3, 4.
c Deut. 6. 16. Ps. 78. 18, 41. Is. 7. 12. Matt. 4. 7. 1 Cor. 10. 9.

Ver. 15. Manna.—"Critics are divided about the origin of this word. Some imagine that the manna was simply a fat and thick dew, which still falls in Arabia, which was quickly condensed, and served for food: that it is the same with the wild honey on which John the Baptist fed."—Calmet. But Dr. Adam Clarke judiciously observes that, by a pot of it being laid up in the ark, it is likely nothing of the kind ever appeared more after the miraculous supply in the wilderness had ceased.

Ver. 16. An omer.—About three quarts, wine measure.

Ver. 34. So Aaron laid it up before the Testimony to be kept.—This was afterwards done when the ark of the covenant, the TESTIMONY of God's presence with Israel, was made. It was eventually laid in the Holy of Holies.

Ver. 35. Did eat manna forty years.—This verse was probably added by Moses shortly before his death.

B. C. 1491.

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people [d] murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moses [e] cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to [f] stone me.

5 And the LORD said unto Moses, [g] Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith [h] thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go.

6 [i] Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place [k] * Massah, and † Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

8 ¶ [l] Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said unto [m] Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with [n] the rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when Moses [o] held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, [p] Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for [q] I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

15 And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it ‡ JEHOVAH-nissi:

16 For he said, § Because ‖ the LORD hath sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

1 Jethro bringeth to Moses his wife and two sons. 7 Moses entertaineth him. 13 Jethro's counsel is accepted. 27 Jethro departeth.

WHEN [a] Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard of all that [b] God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt;

2 Then Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, [c] after he had sent her back,

3 And her [d] two sons; of which the [e] name of the one was * Gershom; for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land:

4 And the name of the other was † Eliezer; for the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh:

5 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at [f] the mount of God:

6 And he said unto Moses, I thy father in law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

7 ¶ And Moses [g] went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and [h] kissed him; and they asked each other of ‡ welfare; and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father in law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had § come upon them by the way, and how the LORD [i] delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, [k] Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the LORD is [l] greater than all gods: [m] for in the thing wherein they dealt [n] proudly he was above them.

12 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law [o] before God.

13 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because [p] the people come unto me to enquire of God:

16 When they have [q] a matter, they come unto me; and I judge between ‖ one and another, and I do [r] make them know the statutes of God, and his laws.

17 And Moses' father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good.

18 [s] Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; [t] thou art not able to perform it thyself alone.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and [t] God shall be with thee: Be thou [u] for the people to Godward, that thou mayest [x] bring the causes unto God:

20 And thou shalt [y] teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them [z] the way wherein they must walk, and [a] the work that they must do.

21 Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people [b] able men, such as [c] fear God, [d] men of truth, [e] hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens:

22 And let them judge the people [f] at all seasons: [g] and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and [h] they shall bear the burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be [i] able to endure, and all this people shall also go to [k] their place in peace.

24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

25 And [l] Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they [m] judged the people at all seasons: the [n] hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 ¶ And Moses let his father in law depart; and [o] he went his way into his own land.

1 The people come to Sinai. 3 God's message by Moses unto the people out of the mount. 8 The people's answer returned again. 10 The people are prepared against the third day. 12 The mountain must not be touched. 16 The fearful presence of God upon the mount.

IN the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day [a] came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from [b] Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before [c] the mount.

3 And [d] Moses went up unto God, and the LORD [e] called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

4 [f] Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how [g] I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

5 Now [h] therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then [i] ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for [k] all the earth is mine:

6 And ye shall be unto me a [l] kingdom of priests, and an [m] holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 ¶ And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And [n] all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee [o] in a thick cloud, [p] that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and [q] believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and [r] sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them [s] wash their clothes,

11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD [t] will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: [u] whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death:

13 There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the * [x] trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

14 ¶ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and [y] sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said unto the people, [z] Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives.

Ver. 23. Go to their place in peace.—Return daily from the courts of judicature to their homes perfectly satisfied.

CHAP. XIX. Ver. 1. In the third month.—Called Sivan, and answers to our May.

Ver. 3. Went up unto God.—Upon Mount Sinai. This mountain had two peaks, the one called Horeb, on which God appeared to Moses in the burning bush, and the other Sinai.

Ver. 4. How I bare you on eagles' wings.—"How I carried you, as it were, aloft, above the reach of dangers, like as an eagle carrieth her young ones, supporting and helping them with her own wings."—Bp. Hall.

Ver. 6. A kingdom of priests.—A spiritual kingdom,—that is, a people especially set apart for my worship and service.

Ver. 7. The elders of the people.—The chiefs of tribes and heads of families.

Ver. 9. In a thick cloud.—See verse 18.

Ver. 10.—Sanctify them.—Make them abstain from all secular employments.

Ver. 11. The Lord will come down.—That is, the cloud and darkness, indicating the Divine presence, will descend upon the mount.

B. C. 1491.

16 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were [b] thunders and lightnings, and a [c] thick cloud upon the mount, and the [d] voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp [e] trembled.

17 And [f] Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And [g] mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it [h] in fire: [i] and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and [k] the whole mount quaked greatly.

19 And [l] when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, [m] Moses spake, and [n] God answered him by a voice.

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, [†] charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD [o] to gaze, and many of them perish.

22 And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, [p] sanctify themselves, lest the LORD [q] break forth upon them.

23 And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou chargedst us, saying, [r] Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.

24 And the LORD said unto him, Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them.

25 So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

1 The ten commandments. 18 The people are afraid. 20 Moses comforteth them. 22 Idolatry is forbidden. 24 Of what sort the altar should be.

AND God spake [a] all these words, saying,

2 [b] I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, [c] out of the house of [*] bondage.

3 [d] Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

4 [e] Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

5 [f] Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am [g] a jealous God, [h] visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

6 And [i] shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

7 [k] Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD [l] will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

8 [m] Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

9 [n] Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10 But the [o] seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, [p] nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For [q] in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

12 ¶ [r] Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

13 [s] Thou shalt not kill.

14 [t] Thou shalt not commit adultery.

15 [u] Thou shalt not steal.

16 [w] Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

17 [x] Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, [y] thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

18 ¶ And [z] all the people [a] saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain [b] smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off.

19 And they said unto Moses, [c] Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but [d] let not God speak with us, lest we die.

20 And Moses said unto the people, [e] Fear not: [f] for God is come to prove you, and [g] that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto [h] the thick darkness where God was.

22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you [i] from heaven.

23 Ye shall not make [k] with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

24 ¶ An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, [l] thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all [m] places where I record my name I will come unto thee, and I will [n] bless thee.

25 And [o] if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not † build it of hewn stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it.

26 Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Laws for menservants. 5 For the servant whose ear is bored. 7 For womenservants. 12 For manslaughter. 16 For stealers of men. 17 For cursers of parents. 18 For smiters. 22 For a hurt by chance. 28 For an ox that goreth. 33 For him that is an occasion of harm.

NOW these are the judgments which thou shalt [a] set before them.

2 [b] If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he came in * by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him.

4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 [c] And if the servant † shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free:

6 Then his master shall bring him unto the [d] judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall [e] bore his ear through with an aul; and he shall serve him for ever.

7 ¶ And if a man [f] sell his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out [g] as the menservants do.

8 If she ‡ please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he take him another wife; her food, her raiment, [h] and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish.

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

12 ¶ [i] He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.

13 And [k] if a man lie not in wait, but God [l] deliver him into his hand; then [m] I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come [n] presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; [o] thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

15 ¶ And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

16 ¶ And [p] he that stealeth a man, and [q] selleth him, or if he be [r] found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 ¶ And [s] he that § curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18 ¶ And if men strive together, and one smite ‖ another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed:

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad [t] upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only ye shall pay for * the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

20 ¶ And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely † punished.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for [u] he is his money.

22 ¶ If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall [x] pay as the judges determine.

23 And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life,

24 [y] Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 ¶ And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.

27 And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.

28 ¶ If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die; then [z] the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit.

29 But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

30 If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for [a] the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him.

31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

Ver. 25. Thou shalt not build it of hewn stone.---Because their abode in the wilderness was only to be temporary, the altars which they erected should be constructed of those materials which were available with the least expense of labor. If thou lift up thy tool upon it.---That is, if thou form it of stones, hewn in such an artificial manner that it may become an object of idolatrous worship, thou hast polluted it.

In this chapter, contrary to the plan of commentators generally, I have abstained from copious expositions of the ten commandments, because their import appears to me so obvious as to render such expositions unnecessary. It is almost impossible to mistake it.

32 If the ox shall push a manservant or maidservant; he shall give unto their master [b] thirty shekels of silver, and the [c] ox shall be stoned.

33 ¶ And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 ¶ And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox: and the dead shall be his own.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Of theft. 5 Of damage. 7 Of trespasses. 14 Of borrowing. 16 Of fornication. 18 Of witchcraft. 19 Of beastiality. 20 Of idolatry. 21 Of strangers, widows, and fatherless. 26 Of usury. 26 Of pledges. 28 Of reverence to magistrates. 29 Of the first-fruits.

IF a man shall steal an ox, or a * sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and [a] four sheep for a sheep.

2 ¶ If a thief be found [b] breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall [c] no blood be shed for him.

3 If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be [d] sold for his theft.

4 If the theft be certainly [e] found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall [f] restore double.

5 ¶ If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution.

6 ¶ If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith; [g] he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 ¶ If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; [h] if the thief be found, let him pay double.

8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the [i] judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods.

9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the [j] cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

11 Then shall an [k] oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.

12 And [l] if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.

13 If it be torn in pieces, then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

14 ¶ And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good.

15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be an hired thing, it came for his hire.

16 ¶ And [m] if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife.

17 If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall † pay money according to the [n] dowry of virgins.

18 ¶ [o] Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.

19 ¶ [p] Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death.

20 ¶ [q] He that sacrificeth unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

21 ¶ [r] Thou shalt neither vex a stranger nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ [s] Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.

23 If thou afflict them in any wise, and they [t] cry at all unto me, I will surely [u] hear their cry;

24 And my [x] wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and [y] your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

25 ¶ [z] If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury.

26 [a] If thou at all take thy neighbour's raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by that the sun goeth down:

27 For that is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he [b] crieth unto me, that I will hear; for I am [c] gracious.

28 ¶ [d] Thou shalt not revile the ‡ gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.

29 ¶ Thou shalt not delay to offer § [e] the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy ‖ liquors: [f] the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.

1 Of slander and false witness. 3, 6 Of justice. 4 Of charitableness. 10 Of the year of rest. 12 Of the sabbath. 13 Of idolatry. 14 Of the three feasts. 18 Of the blood and the fat of the sacrifice. 20 An Angel is promised, with a blessing, if they obey him.

THOU [a] shalt not [*] raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an [b] unrighteous witness.

2 ¶ [c] Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; [d] neither shall thou [†] speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment:

3 ¶ Neither shalt thou countenance a poor man in his cause.

4 ¶ [e] If thou meet thine enemy's ox or ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

5 [f] If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, [‡] and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.

6 [g] Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause.

7 [h] Keep thee far from a false matter; [i] and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for [k] I will not justify the wicked.

8 ¶ And [l] thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth § the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

9 ¶ Also [m] thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the ‖ heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10 And [n] six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof:

11 But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy [*] oliveyard.

12 [o] Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed.

13 And in all things that I have said unto you [p] be circumspect: and [q] make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 ¶ [r] Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year.

15 [s] Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: [t] and none shall appear before me empty:)

16 [u] And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in thy field: and [x] the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

17 [y] Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the LORD God.

18 [z] Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my [†] sacrifice remain until the morning.

19 [a] The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. [b] Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

20 ¶ [c] Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, [d] provoke him not; for he will [e] not pardon your transgressions: for [f] my name is in him.

22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then [g] I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and [‡] an adversary unto thine adversaries.

23 [h] For mine Angel shall go before thee, and [i] bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off.

24 Thou shalt not [k] bow down to their gods, nor serve them, [l] nor do after their works: [m] but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images.

25 And ye shall [n] serve the LORD your God, and [o] he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and [p] I will take sickness away from the midst of thee.

26 ¶ [q] There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will [r] fulfil.

27 I will send [s] my fear before thee, and will [t] destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their [‡] backs unto thee.

28 And [u] I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee.

29 [w] I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.

CHAP. XXIII. Ver. 2. Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil.—Houbigant renders this and the following verses thus:—"Thou shalt not be a follower of great men to do evil: neither shalt thou so answer in a cause as to decline to sin, after great men; but neither shalt thou honor or countenance a poor man in his cause." So that "upon this version," observes Dr. Dodd, "the meaning of the law is this; that no person in legal suits, and especially as witnesses in such suits, were to be influenced, either by the favor of the great, or by false compassion for the poor."

Ver. 6. Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor.—"Thou shalt neither countenance him in his crimes, nor condemn him in his righteousness."—Clarke's Commentary.

Ver. 7. Keep thee far from a false matter.—This refers to the judge. He is cautioned not to be guilty of passing a false judgment.

Ver. 9. For ye know the heart of a stranger.—Having been strangers, or slaves, in the land of Egypt, ye know what their feelings are.

Ver. 11. The seventh year.—This was ordered to be a sabbatical year.

Ver. 14. Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me, &c.—The three great Jewish festivals were the Passover, the feast of Pentecost, and the feast of Tabernacles. The first commemorated the deliverance from Egyptian bondage; the second the delivery of the law from Mount Sinai; and the third the Israelites' dwelling in tents forty years in the wilderness.

Ver. 19. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.—This referred to an idolatrous custom of the heathen who were accustomed "to boil a kid in its mother's milk, and sprinkle the liquid on their fields and trees, in order to make them fruitful."—Pyle. See also Cudworth on the Lord's Supper.

Ver. 26. The number of thy days I will fulfil.—You shall all attain to a good old age.

30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.

31 And [x] I will set thy bounds from the Red sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert unto the river: for I will [y] deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee.

32 [z] Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

33 They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, [a] it will surely be a snare unto thee.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Moses is called up into the mountain. 3 The people promise obedience. 4 Moses buildeth an altar, and twelve pillars. 6 He sprinkleth the blood of the covenant. 9 The glory of God appeareth. 14 Aaron and Hur have the charge of the people. 15 Moses goeth into the mountain, where he continueth forty days and forty nights.

AND he said unto Moses, Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aaron, [a] Nadab, and Abihu, [b] and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off.

2 And Moses [c] alone shall come near the LORD: but they shall not come nigh; neither shall the people go up with him.

3 ¶ And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, [d] All the words which the LORD hath said will we do.

4 And Moses [e] wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve [f] pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

6 And Moses [g] took half of the blood, and put it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he [h] took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, [i] All that the LORD hath said will we do, and be obedient.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold [k] the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

9 ¶ Then [l] went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel: B. C. 1491. [l] ver. 1.

10 And they [m] saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a [n] sapphire stone, and as it were the [o] body of heaven in his clearness.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he [p] laid not his hand: also [q] they saw God, and did [r] eat and drink.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [s] Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee [t] tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them.

13 And Moses rose up, and [u] his minister Joshua: and Moses [w] went up into the mount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

15 And Moses went up into the mount, and [x] a cloud covered the mount.

16 And [y] the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like [z] devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and [a] Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

Ver. 31. The sea of the Philistines.—The Mediterranean sea. The desert of Arabia; unto the river—Euphrates. The boundaries of the country which the Israelites were to inherit are thus set down. They were to extend from the Red sea on the south-east, to the Mediterranean on the south-west; and from the Arabian desert, or the wilderness of Shur, on the east, to the river Euphrates, on the north-east.

CHAP. XXIV. Ver. 2. Moses alone shall come near.—Moses was unaccompanied when he approached the Divine presence on Mount Sinai. As he ascended, the people stood at the base. Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the seventy elders went up, and remained at a distance from the most sacred part of the mountain, consecrated by the immediate presence of God, while Moses ascended to the summit alone, to receive the Divine communication.

Ver. 4. An altar—and twelve pillars.—The former to represent God who had just issued his commands, the latter the twelve tribes of Israel, through whom he enjoined obedience to the whole people.

Ver. 7. The book of the covenant.—The sacred writing, in which were described all the laws of the three last chapters. It was called the book of the covenant, because it contained all the terms of the covenant made between God and man.

Ver. 9. Then went, &c.—After Moses had concluded the important solemnity mentioned in the preceding verses of this chapter, he again ascended the mount, accompanied by Aaron, his sons, and the seventy elders. Here he saw a vision, representing the Divine glory. The tenth and eleventh verses, says Dr. Dodd, may be thus read and interpreted: "And they saw the God of Israel, beneath whom there was, as it were, a paved work of sapphire stones, a bright ethereal blue; and, as it were, the body of heaven in his clearness, as the purest sky in its general brightness. And upon the nobles, or select ones, of the children of Israel, he did not lay his hand, so as to conceal himself from them; therefore they saw God and did eat and drink,—that is, continued to exist."

Ver. 12. Come up to me into the mount.—To the summit of the mount, which no other person was permitted to ascend, though Joshua was allowed to accompany him higher than either Aaron, his sons, or the elders of Israel.

Ver. 16. The seventh day, &c.—"It is very likely that Moses went up into the mount on the first day of the week; and having, with Joshua, remained in the region of the cloud during six days, on the seventh, which was the sabbath, God spake to him, and delivered successively to him, during forty days and forty nights, the different statutes and ordinances which are afterwards mentioned."—Clarke's Commentary.

CHAP. XXV. Ver. 4. Goats' hair.—The extreme fineness of the hair upon the back of the Cashmere goat is sufficiently notorious from the exquisitely fine shawls which are produced from that material.

Ver. 5. Rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins.—The badger being an unclean beast, Bochart considers that a color only is here meant, and therefore renders the passage thus: "Rams' skins dyed of a red and of a violet or purple color." Shittim wood.—By some considered to have been a very fine sort of cedar.

Ver. 7. The ephod.—"This word," says Calmet, "comes from aphad, to tie, fasten, or gird: and the use of it was suitable to this signification; being a kind of girdle passing from behind over the neck and shoulders, and hanging down before, crossing the stomach, then being carried round the waist, and used as a girdle to the tunic, it went twice round the body, girt about the tunic, and after this, the extremities of it fell before, and hung to the ground." See Calmet, article Ephod, where the description is very full.

Ver. 11. A crown of gold.—A rim of gold.

Ver. 15. The staves shall not be taken from it.—In order that it might always be ready to be removed.

Ver. 16. The testimony.—The tables of the law, upon which were recorded the testimony of God's will.

Ver. 17. A mercy-seat.—The original word is derived from a Hebrew verb, signifying to cover or overspread; because, by an act of pardon, sins are represented as being covered, so that they no longer appear in the eye of Divine justice to displease, irritate, or call for punishment; and the person of the offender is covered, or protected from the stroke of the broken law. In the Septuagint version, the word used signifies a propitiatory, and is the name used by the apostle, Heb. ix. 5. At each end of this propitiatory was a cherub, between whom the Divine presence was manifested: hence in scripture, it is so often said, he dwelleth between the cherubim.—See Clarke's Commentary. What these cherubim were is uncertain.

Ver. 29. The dishes.—Patens or salvers, on which the bread was placed. Spoons.—Probably censers. "The covers thereof are sufficiently shown Chapter 37. 16, to mean, according to the translation of the Seventy, cups for libations. CHAP. XXVI.

1 The ten curtains of the tabernacle. 7 The eleven curtains of goats' hair. 14 The covering of rams' skins. 15 The boards of the tabernacle, with their sockets and bars. 31 The vail for the ark. 36 The hanging for the door.

MOREOVER [a] thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims [*] of cunning work shalt thou make them.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the taches: and it shall be one tabernacle.

7 ¶ And [b] thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the [†] tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the backside of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side [‡] of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 And [c] thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.

17 Two [§] tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards:

21 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

24 And they shall be [‖] coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward.

28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end.

29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold.

30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle [d] according to the fashion thereof which was shewed thee in the mount.

31 ¶ And [e] thou shalt make a vail of blue,

Ver. 1. The tabernacle.—Literally a place to dwell in; in this place it signifies a moveable pavilion or tent. With cherubims of cunning work.—That is, with cherubim curiously wrought. The cherubim figures were probably embroidered upon the linen, or worked like ancient tapestry.

Ver. 15. Boards for the tabernacle.—To support the fabric.

Ver. 31. Thou shalt make a vail.—To divide the tabernacle into two parts—the holy from the most holy place. Into the former none but the priests could go. Into the latter, called the Holy of Holies, the High Priest alone was permitted to enter, and only once a year—on the great day of atonement.

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

33 ¶ And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail [f]the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between [g]the holy place and the most holy.

34 And [h]thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

35 And [i]thou shalt set the table without the vail, and [k]the candlestick over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north side.

36 And [l]thou shalt make an hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging [m]five pillars of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.

AND thou shalt make [a]an altar of shittim wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and the height thereof shall be three cubits.

2 And thou shalt make the horns of it upon the four corners thereof: his horns shall be of the same: and [b]thou shalt overlay it with brass.

3 And thou shalt make his pans to receive his ashes, and his shovels, and his basons, and his fleshhooks, and his firepans: all the vessels thereof thou shalt make of brass.

4 And thou shalt make for it a grate of network of brass; and upon the net shalt thou make four brazen rings in the four corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.

6 And thou shalt make staves for the altar, staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with brass.

7 And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to bear it.

Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons.

2 And [b]thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother for glory and for beauty.

3 And [c]thou shalt speak unto all that are wise hearted, [d]whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

4 And these are the garments which they shall make; [e]a breastplate, and [f]an ephod, and [g]a robe, and [h]a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

5 And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

6 ¶ [i]And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cunning work.

7 It shall have the two shoulder-pieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together.

8 And the * curious girdle of the ephod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel:

10 Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth.

11 [k]With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and [l]Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders [m]for a memorial.

13 ¶ And thou shalt make ouches of gold;

14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the ouches.

15 ¶ And [n]thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, thou shalt make it.

16 Foursquare it shall be being doubled; a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof.

B. C. 1491.

17 [o]And thou shalt † set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be a ‡ sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row.

18 And the second row shall be an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

19 And the third row a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

20 And the fourth row a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be set in gold in their § inclosings.

21 And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.

22 ¶ And thou shalt make upon the breastplate chains at the ends of wreathen work of pure gold.

23 And thou shalt make upon the breastplate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

24 And thou shalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod before it.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breastplate in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward.

27 And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

28 And they shall bind the breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the ephod.

29 And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, [p]for a memorial before the LORD continually.

30 ¶ And [q]thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

to have officiated as priests, and to have offered sacrifices; but upon the institution of a regular priesthood, they ceased to perform those offices. Eventually, the whole tribe of Levy were set apart for the services of the Tabernacle.

Ver. 2. Holy garments.—Because worn by the priests, who were holy persons.

Ver. 11. Ouches of gold.—According to Bishop Patrick, these were the sockets in which the gems were set.

Ver. 12. Stones of memorial.—To remind the priest that he appeared before God in behalf of the whole people of Israel, and likewise as a memorial of God's covenant with them.

Ver. 15. The breastplate of judgment.—So named, probably, because by it was discovered the divine judgment and will: or because the High Priest who wore it was the dispenser of justice, and put it on when he exercised his judicial capacity in matters of great consequence, which concerned the whole nation.

Ver. 30. Urim and Thummim.—These words signify light and perfection. The opinions respecting their meaning have been various, but there is no certainty in any. It is however certain that, whatever the ornament was, it enabled the High Priest to collect instruction on occasions of national importance, and even of private concern. It is wholly unknown how the Lord answered by Urim and Thummim. The Jews generally think it was done by the shining of the stones on the breastplate, or of some letters inscribed upon it: others, with more reason, suppose that the Urim and Thummim only qualified the High Priest to present himself in the holy place, to receive answers from the mercy-seat in the tabernacle. For a full account of Urim and Thummim, consult Calmet, Dean Prideaux, Bishop Patrick, and Dr Dodd.

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

35 [s]And it shall be upon Aaron to minister: and his sound shall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy place before the LORD, and when he cometh out, that he die not.

36 ¶ And [t]thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be.

38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may [u]bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be [w]accepted before the LORD.

39 ¶ And thou shalt embroider the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of needlework.

40 ¶ [x]And for Aaron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt [y]anoint them, and [z]consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

42 And thou shalt make them [a]linen breeches to cover † their nakedness; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall ‡ reach:

Upon this plate, beaten into the form of a leaf or one of the petals of a beautiful flower, and rendered as bright as possible, were engraved Hebrew words, signifying HOLINESS TO THE LORD. It may be considered as the grand badge of the sacerdotal office. "It was placed on the mitre exactly over the High Priest's forehead, so that every one whom he faced might read the inscription. This was suited to remind him of the sanctity of his office and character, as the typical mediator between Jehovah and his people; and so especially required to be in all respects devoted in holiness to the service of a holy God, and to warn him neither to disgrace, nor attempt to conceal, his sacred function. It likewise instructed the people to honour his person and ministrations. In wearing constantly, when officiating as High Priest, his holy crown, he was also reminded that he was to bear the iniquity of the holy things which Israel offered to the Lord. If any thing was neglected, or done contrary to law, he must be answerable for it, and should therefore be circumspect; and their involuntary imperfections must be expiated by his typical services."—Scott.

CHAP. XXIX. Ver. 4. Shalt wash them with water.—This chapter contains an account of the consecration of Aaron and his sons for the sacerdotal office. They were first washed with water, in token of that purity which their sacred function enjoined.

Ver. 5. And thou shalt take the garments.—They were next clothed with the official garments, figuring, as Ainsworth observes, that after purifying themselves from the pollution of sin, they were to study to be clothed with the robes of righteousness, of which their holy vestments were an emblem.

Ver. 7. Then shalt thou take the anointing oil.—Which typified the communication of the Holy Spirit.

Ver. 10. Shall put their hands upon the head.—By which the sins of the person were transferred to the sacrifice, which became a vicarious offering, thus typifying the great offering of the atonement made by Christ. By this, as Bishop Wilson observes, the priests confessed that they deserved the death which the victim was about to suffer.

B. C. 1491.

14 But [p]the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire without the camp: it is a sin offering.

15 ¶ [q]Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall [r]put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and §unto his head.

18 And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering unto the LORD: it is a [s]sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

19 ¶ [t]And thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of [u]the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and [w]he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration:

23 [x]And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD:

24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt ‖[y] wave them for a wave offering before the LORD.

25 [z]And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 And thou shalt take [a]the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: and [b]it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctify [c]the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons:

B. C. 1491.

28 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' [d]by a statute for ever from the children of Israel: for it is an heave offering: and [e]it shall be an heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the LORD.

29 ¶ And the holy garments of Aaron [f]shall be his sons' after him, [g]to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

30 And *[h] that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on [i]seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 ¶ And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and [k]seethe his flesh in the holy place.

32 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the [l]bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

33 And [m]they shall eat those things wherewith the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: [n]but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy.

34 And if ought of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then [o]thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35 And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: [p]seven days shalt thou consecrate them.

36 And thou shalt [q]offer every day a bullock for a sin offering for atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, [r]and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it.

37 Seven days thou shalt make an atonement for the altar, and sanctify it; [s]and it shall be an altar most holy: [t]whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy.

38 ¶ Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; [u]two lambs of the first year [w]day by day continually.

39 The one lamb thou shalt offer [x]in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even:

40 And with the one lamb a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink offering.

41 And the other lamb thou shalt [y]offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat offering of the morning, and according

Ver. 14. It is a sin offering.—The offering made for the sins of Aaron and his sons, which sins it was necessary should be expiated before they could be qualified to make offerings for those of the people. See Bishop Patrick's Commentary.

Ver. 20. Take of his blood.—The singular ceremony described in this verse is supposed to signify that they should dedicate all their faculties and powers to the service of God.

Ver. 22. The rump.—Or tail, which, of some Eastern sheep, is so large as to weigh from ten to fifty pounds' weight.

Ver. 24. A wave offering.—"The original word signifies agitation or shaking to and fro; which Abarbinel saith was performed upward and downright, and then round about to all quarters of the world, to signify that 'the earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof;' or rather that he is the possessor of heaven and earth."—By Patrick.

Ver. 27. Heave offering.—Between the wave offering and the heave offering, Houbigant makes the following distinction. The former implies that the victim was moved to and fro: the latter that it was lifted up and down, which was done several times. In this way the Jews explain these things, and teach Christians that by these acts the cross was adumbrated, upon which that peace offering of the human race was lifted up, which was prefigured by all the ancient victims.

Ver. 33. A stranger.—A person not of Aaron's family.

42 This shall be [a] a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD: [a] where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and † the tabernacle [b] shall be sanctified by my glory.

44 And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will [c] sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office.

45 ¶ And [d] I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God.

46 And they shall know that [e] I am the LORD their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the LORD their God.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The altar of incense. 11 The ransom of souls. 17 The brasen laver. 22 The holy anointing oil. 34 The composition of the perfume.

AND thou shalt make [a] an altar [b] to burn incense upon: of shittim wood shalt thou make it.

2 A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof; foursquare shall it be: and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same.

3 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the [*] top thereof, and the † sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt make unto it a crown of gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two ‡ corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal.

5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 And thou shalt put it before the vail that is by the ark of the testimony, before the [c] mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee.

7 And Aaron shall burn thereon § [d] sweet incense every morning: when [e] he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it.

8 And when Aaron ‖ [*] lighteth the lamps † at even, he shall burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

9 Ye shall offer no [f] strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor meat offering; neither shall ye pour drink offering thereon.

10 And [g] Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 [h] When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after ‡ their number, then shall they give every man [i] a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that there be no [k] plague among them, when thou numberest them.

13 [l] This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (m a shekel is twenty gerahs:) [n] an half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD.

14 Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD.

15 The [o] rich shall not § give more, and the poor shall not ‖ give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an [p] atonement for your souls.

16 And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and [q] shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be [r] a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 [s] Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, and his foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt [t] put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sons [u] shall wash their hands and their feet thereat:

20 When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the LORD:

21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and [w] it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations.

22 ¶ Moreover the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Take thou also unto thee [x] principal spices, of pure [y] myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet [z] calamus two hundred and fifty shekels,

Le Clerc has quoted a remarkable passage from Seneca, a heathen indeed, but a wise man, which shows that pious heathens had a very just appreciation of the Divine influence upon mankind. "It is God," says this gifted philosopher, "who has invented so many arts; for those things which we invent are no more our own than the increase of our bodies. As the secret hand of God has implanted seeds in the body, by which it springs up to a proper growth in all the stages of life; so has he implanted in the minds of men the seeds of all arts; and, being the great master, calls them forth as he pleases."

Ver. 13. My sabbaths ye shall keep.—The injunction to keep the sabbath is repeated here, to show that their being employed upon the erection of the Tabernacle did not exonerate them from so sacred a duty.

Ver. 14. That soul shall be cut off.—Not only shall the person profaning the sabbath be stoned to death, but his soul shall be excluded from the blessings of the covenant, because the sabbath was a type of that heavenly rest "prepared for the righteous from the foundation of the world."

2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the [d] golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings, which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

4 [e] And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made [f] proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the [g] people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [h] Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, [i] have corrupted themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which [k] I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, [l] These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, [m] I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

10 Now therefore [n] let me alone, that [o] my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and [p] I will make of thee a great nation.

11 [q] And Moses besought [r] the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12 [s] Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and [t] repent of this evil against thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou [u] swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, [v] I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I [w] give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

14 And the LORD [x] repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

15 ¶ And [y] Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And the [z] tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for † being overcome: but the noise of them that sing do I hear.

19 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that [a] he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount.

20 [b] And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strawed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

21 And Moses said unto Aaron, [c] What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: [d] thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief.

23 For they said unto me, [e] Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

Ver. 18. Written with the finger of God.—That is, by his immediate appointment, and delivered to Moses with the moral law engraved upon them.

CHAP. XXXII. Ver. 1. Make us gods. Make us idols, or rather an idol, an emblem of the Divinity, that we may worship him by a visible representation of him.

Ver. 4. And fashioned it with a graving tool.—It seems to be the general opinion of commentators that the golden ornaments contributed for the idol which the Israelites demanded of Aaron, were fused, cast into a mould, and then finished with the graver. A molten calf.—It has been with good reason supposed that this molten calf was a representation of the Egyptian god Apis, who was worshipped by the subjects of Pharaoh under the similitude of an ox.

Ver. 6. And rose up to play.—They finished their idolatrous devotion by indulging, like the heathen, in licentious revelry. According to Parkhurst, the word rendered play in this verse signifies sporting, in an obscene sense.

Ver. 7. Thy people.—No longer My people, lost dissolutions them, as they had thrown off their allegiance to him, and worshipped "strange gods."

Ver. 9. A stiffnecked people.—A people who, like unruly oxen, would not submit their necks to the yoke.

Ver. 10. Now therefore let me alone.—God, foreseeing that Moses would intercede for his offending countrymen, expresses his desire to punish them, as if he had said, Do not attempt to intercede for them, but let my anger take its course, that I may chastise them for their defection, and reward thee for thy fidelity.

Ver. 11. And Moses besought the Lord.—Nothing can more strongly exhibit the generous and disinterested character of Moses than his conduct in this transaction.

Ver. 14. And the Lord repented.—"This is merely spoken after the manner of men who, having formed a purpose, permit themselves to be diverted from it by strong and forcible reasons, and so change their minds relative to their former intentions."—Clarke's Commentary.

Ver. 20. And made the children of Israel drink of it. He made them swallow part of the object of their idolatrous worship, to show what an impotent and contemptible thing it was.

B. C. 1491.

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there [o]came out this calf.

25 ¶ And when Moses saw that the people were [p]naked; (for Aaron [q]had made them naked unto their shame among ‡ their enemies:

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD's side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and [r]slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

29 [s]§ For Moses had said, ‖ Consecrate yourselves to day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

30 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow that Moses said unto the people, [t]Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; [u]peradventure I shall [v]make an atonement for your sin.

31 And Moses [w]returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have [x]made them gods of gold.

32 Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, [y]blot me, I pray thee, [z]out of thy book which thou hast written.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, [a]Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.

34 Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: [b]behold, mine Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless [c]in the day when I visit I will visitt their sin upon them.

35 And the LORD plagued the people, because [d]they made the calf, which Aaron made.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 The Lord refuseth to go as he had promised with the people. 4 The people murmur thereat. 7 The tabernacle is removed out of the camp. 9 The Lord talketh familiarly with Moses. 12 Moses desireth to see the glory of God.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Depart, and go up hence, thou [a]and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I sware unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, [b]Unto thy seed will I give it:

2 [c]And I will send an angel before thee; [d]and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:

3 [e]Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: [f]for I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a [g]stiffnecked people: lest [h]I consume thee in the way.

4 ¶ And when the people heard these evil tidings, [i]they mourned: [k]and no man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, [l]Ye are a stiffnecked people: I will come up [m]into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may [n]know what to do unto thee.

6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb.

7 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, [o]and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which [p]sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man [q]at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD [r]talked with Moses.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and [s]worshipped, every man in his tent door.

11 And [t]the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but [u]his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, See, [x]thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, [y]I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

Ver. 24. I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.—This was evidently the subterfuge of conscious guilt, insinuating that he merely melted gold, and it assumed the accidental form of a calf. Dr. Shuckford has ingenious gloss upon this passage, extenuating Aaron, but it is overstrained.

The criminality of Aaron's conduct is sufficiently evident when, but the intercession of Moses, he would have been destroyed with the idolaters, whose idolatries he had sanctioned.

Ver. 25. And when Moses saw that the people were naked.—"Without Divine protection. For Aaron had made them naked, &c.—Laid them open by their sin to the scorn of their enemies, who should hear of such a shameful revolt from their God."—Bp. Patrick. I do not however see why the literal sense of the passage should be entirely abandoned here, as it was common practice for the heathen to dance entirely naked before their gods. The sense, moreover, of the expression, they rose up to play, ver. 6, implying acts of licentiousness, and, according to Parkhurst's interpretation, of obscenity, would seem to justify the literal acceptation.

Ver. 26. All the sons of Levi.—Who appear not to have participated in the idolatry of their countrymen.

Ver. 32. Blot me, &c.—An Oriental figure for Destroy me.

Ver. 35. Plagued the people.—That is, punished them.

CHAP. XXXIII. Ver. 2. I will send an angel before thee.—Not the Angel of the Covenant, but one of the heavenly family, as a guide into the promised land.

Ver. 3. For I will not go up in the midst of thee.—That is, I will no longer distinguish thee by my own immediate presence, as I have done hitherto. This shows that the angel, mentioned verse 2, was not the Divinity himself, but an inferior minister.

Ver. 5. Now put off thy ornaments from thee.—Appear before me in a garb of the deepest humiliation.

Ver. 7. Moses took the tabernacle.—Saurin observes that, "before the building of the Tabernacle, there was a tent, which bore the same name as was afterwards given to the real tabernacle. This was the tent of Moses—not that in which he dwelt with his family, but that destined for the conference between God and his Lawgiver."

Ver. 11. Face to face.—Not visibly, but in a familiar manner, as a man

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, [r]if I have found grace in thy sight, [s]shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is [t]thy people.

14 And he said, [u]My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee [v]rest.

15 And he said unto him, [w]If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? [x]is it not in that thou goest with us? so [y]shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the LORD said unto Moses, [z]I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for [a]thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me [b]thy glory.

19 And he said, [c]I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; [d]and will be [e]gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.

20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for [f]there shall no man see me, and live.

21 And the LORD said, Behold there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock:

22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee [g]in a clift of the rock, and will [h]cover thee with my hand while I pass by:

23 And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back parts: [i]but my face shall [k]not be seen.

CHAP. XXXIV.

1 The tables are renewed. 5 The name of the LORD proclaimed. 8 Moses intreateth God to go with them. 10 God maketh a covenant with them, repeating certain duties of the first table. 28 Moses after forty days in the mount cometh down with the tables. 29 His face shineth, and he covereth it with a vail.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, [a]Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first: [b]and I will write upon these tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou brakest.

2 And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me [c]in the top of the mount.

3 And no man shall [d]come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

4 ¶ And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.

5 And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and [e]proclaimed the name of the LORD.

6 And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD [f]God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in [g]goodness and [h]truth,

7 [i]Keeping mercy for thousands, [k]forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and [l]that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.

8 And Moses made haste, and [m]bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.

9 And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O LORD, [n]let my Lord, I pray thee, go among us; for [o]it is a stiffnecked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for [p]thine inheritance.

10 ¶ And he said, Behold, [q]I make a covenant: before all thy people I will [r]do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which thou art shall see the work of the LORD: for it is [s]a terrible thing that I will do with thee.

11 [t]Observe thou that which I command thee this day: behold, [u]I drive out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

12 [x]Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for [y]a snare in the midst of thee:

13 But ye shall [z]destroy their altars, break their [a]images, and [b]cut down their groves:

14 For thou shalt worship [c]no other god: for the LORD, whose [d]name is Jealous, is a [e]jealous God:

15 [f]Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they [g]go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one [h]call thee, and thou [i]eat of his sacrifice;

speaketh to his friend. A young man.—Young, compared with Moses; or young in his ministry, not in years, for he was upwards of fifty.

Ver. 13. Shew me now thy way.—How this people are to be governed, so as to be kept in obedience to the laws. That I may know thee.—"That I may be fully assured of thy gracious acceptance of me."—Bp. Patrick.

Ver. 14. My presence shall go with thee.—I will accompany thee by the manifestations of my presence in the pillar of the cloud, and in the tabernacle.

Ver. 16. So shall we be separated.—From the heathen, which, at this time, included all nations, the Israelites only excepted.

Ver. 18. Shew me thy glory.—Thy visible presence; or it may signify a fuller display of the Divine perfections.

Ver. 19. All my goodness pass before thee.—My gracious intentions towards the children of Israel. Proclaim the name of the Lord.—That is, proclaim his glorious attributes.

Ver. 22. I will cover thee with my hand.—I will conceal my ineffable presence from thee, for thou couldest not behold it and live.

Ver. 23. Thou shalt see my back parts.—Thou shalt behold sufficient of my glory to shew thee that it was the Lord Jehovah who passed by thee, but not the full effulgence of the Divine and incomprehensible Majesty.

CHAP. XXXIV. Ver. 5. Proclaimed the name of the Lord.—The Divine attributes and perfections.

Ver. 7. That will by no means clear the guilty.—"As the word guilty is not in the original, many commentators interpret the words to mean, that in executing judgments, the Lord will not proceed to extremities with his people."—Scott. The original words are confessed by all to be very obscure. "The sense of the whole," says Bishop Patrick, "that is, of the seventh verse, "seems to be that this is the glory of the Divine Majesty, that he hath a sovereign dominion over all, because he is the fountain of being, the original of all things, most powerful to do what he pleases, and so merciful that he delights to bestow his benefits unasked, and even to go on as to continue them to the unthankful; bearing long with them, when they provoke him; multiplying favours on those who have no deserts, and graciously performing his promises though never so great; doing good unto many thousand generations of those who adhere faithfully to him, and do not apostatize from him; for he pardons innumerable offences of all sorts which are committed against his laws; and, when the provocations are so great that they are fit to be punished, he proceeds not to the utmost extremity till there be no remedy; then he punishes idolaters terribly, to the third and fourth generation."

16 And thou take of [i]their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters [k]go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods.

17 [l]Thou shalt make thee no molten gods.

18 ¶ The feast of [m] unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the month Abib: for in the [n] month Abib thou camest out from Egypt.

19 [o]All that openeth the matrix is mine; and every firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male.

20 But [p] the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a † lamb: and if thou redeem him not, then shalt thou break his neck. All the firstborn of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And none shall appear before me [q]empty.

21 ¶ [r]Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in earing time and in harvest thou shalt rest.

22 ¶ [s]And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the ‡ year's end.

23 ¶ [t]Thrice in the year shall all your men children appear before the LORD God, the God of Israel.

24 For I will [u]cast out the nations before thee, and [x]enlarge thy borders: [y]neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thy God thrice in the year.

25 [z]Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven: [a]neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left unto the morning.

26 [b]The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. [c]Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

27 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou [d] these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel.

28 [e]And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And [f]he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten § commandments.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the [g]two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that [h]the skin of his face shone while he talked with him.

30 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him.

31 And Moses called unto them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh: [i]and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinai.

33 And till Moses had done speaking with them, he put [k]a vail on his face.

34 But [l]when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the vail off, until he came out. And he came out, and spake unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone: and Moses put the vail upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

CHAP. XXXV.

4 The sabbath. 4 The free gifts for the tabernacle. 20 The readiness of the people to offer. 30 Bezaleel and Aholiab are called to the work.

AND Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, [a]These are the words which the LORD hath commanded, that ye should do them.

2 [b]Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you [c]an holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD: whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death.

3 [c]Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath day.

4 ¶ And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, [d]This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying,

5 Take ye from among you an offering unto the LORD: [e]whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD; gold, and silver, and brass,

6 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

7 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

8 And oil for the light, [f]and spices for anointing oil, and for the sweet incense,

10 And [g]every wise hearted among you shall come, and make all that the LORD hath commanded;

[o] and the anointing oil, and [p] the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle,

16 [q] The altar of burnt offering, with his brasen grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot,

17 [r] The hangings of the court, his pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court,

18 The pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords,

19 [s] The cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

20 ¶ And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, every one [t] whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORD's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and earrings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold: and every man that offered offered an offering of gold unto the LORD.

23 And [u] every man, with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them.

24 Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD's offering: and every man, with whom was found shittim wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the women that were [w] wise hearted did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26 And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair.

27 And [x] the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the breastplate;

28 And [y] spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Israel brought a [z] willing offering unto the LORD, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

30 ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, [a] the LORD hath called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;

31 And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;

32 And to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

33 And in the cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work.

34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and [b] Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

35 Them hath he [c] filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that devise cunning work.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 The offerings are delivered to the workmen. 5 The liberality of the people is restrained. 8 The curtains of cherubims. 14 The curtains of goats' hair. 19 The covering of skins. 20 The boards with their sockets. 31 The bars. 35 The vail. 37 The hanging for the door.

THEN wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every [a] wise hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the [b] sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded.

2 And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one [c] whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it:

3 And they received of Moses all the offering, which the children of Israel [d] had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him free offerings every morning.

4 And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;

5 ¶ And they spake unto Moses, saying, [e] The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8 ¶ [f] And every wise hearted man among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work made he them.

9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size.

10 And he coupled the five curtains one unto another: and the other five curtains he coupled one unto another.

23 5. 12 [g] Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches: so it became one tabernacle.

26 7. 14 ¶ [h] And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

26 14. 19 [i] And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that.

26 15. 20 ¶ [k] And he made boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood, standing up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One board had two tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward:

24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards,

26 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

ch. twined. 29 And they were * coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.

30 And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, † under every board two sockets.

ch. two rts. Two rts under ch. 26 26. 31 ¶ And he made [l] bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward. B. C. 1491.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

m ch. 26 31. 35 ¶ And he made [m] a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubims made he it of cunning work.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

20 And in the candlestick were four bowls made like almonds, his knops, and his flowers:

21 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made his seven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuffdishes, of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof,

25 ¶ [f]And he made the incense altar of shittim wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit; it was foursquare; and two cubits was the height of it; the horns thereof were of the same.

[f] ch. 30. 1.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a crown of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal.

28 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

tify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

14 And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with coats:

15 And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be [n] an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

16 Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the [o] tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he took and put [p] the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy seat above upon the ark:

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and [q] set up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ [r] And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail.

23 [s] And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

24 ¶ [t] And he put the candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

25 And [u] he lighted the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses. B. C. 1491.

26 ¶ [y] And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the vail:

27 [z] And he burnt sweet incense thereon; as the LORD commanded Moses.

28 ¶ [a] And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle.

29 [b] And he put the altar of burnt offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and [c] offered upon it the burnt offering and the meat offering; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 ¶ [d] And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash withal.

31 And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet thereat:

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; [e] as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 [f] And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

34 ¶ [g] Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses [h] was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 [i] And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel ‡ went onward in all their journeys:

37 But [k] if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up.

38 For [l] the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

EVITICUS.—This title is taken from the Septuagint and Vulgate Latin slations of the Bible, and is adopted by almost all the modern versions. book was so called because it relates chiefly to the laws of the priests Levites, thence called the Levitical law. It treats of various sacrifices, eals, purifications, and of the numerous ceremonial observances imd upon the Israelites when they were about to become a settled nation e "Land of promise." It contains an account of the consecration of n and his sons to the priesthood, and the confirmation of it to their erity, during the continuance of the Jewish dispensation. It also re- s the institution of the three great festivals, the Passover, the feast of ecost, and the feast of Tabernacles, embracing, in fact, nearly the le ecclesiastical polity of the primitive Jews. "In the ceremonies rolled in this book," says Mr. Scott, "the gospel was preached to d: and the solemn and exact manner, and the many repetitions, with h they are enforced are suited to impress the serious mind with a conion that something immensely more important and spiritual than the ernal observance, is couched under each of them."

CHAP. I. Ver. 1. And the Lord called unto Moses.—From the manner in which this book commences it appears to be a continuation of the foregoing.

Ver. 2. If any man of you bring an offering.—"Sacrifices had been appointed from the fall of man, but the design of them had been perverted, or forgotten. The sacrifices of the Levitical law are to be considered, first, in a carnal, worldly view, as freeing the Jew from all contracted uncleanness, and rendering him worthy to continue a member of that church, and an inheritor of the earthly Canaan. Secondly, in a spiritual sense, with regard to the sacrifice of Christ, which was to cleanse them from sin, and fit them for an inheritance in the heavenly Canaan."—Bp. Wilson. Of the cattle.—Animals of the beeve kind. Of the flock.—Sheep and goats.

Ver. 3. Burnt sacrifice.—So called because wholly consumed by fire upon the altar. It typified Christ's offering up his whole self as an atonement for mankind.

the herd, let him offer a male [d] without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.

4 [e] And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be [f] accepted for him [g] to make atonement for him.

5 And he shall kill the [h] bullock before the LORD: [i] and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, [k] and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces.

7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and [l] lay the wood in order upon the fire:

8 And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

9 But his inwards and his legs shall he wash in water: and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a [m] sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 ¶ And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male [n] without blemish.

11 [o] And he shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar.

12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is in the fire which is upon the altar:

13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 ¶ And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of [p] turtledoves, or of young pigeons.

15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and * wring off his head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar:

16 And he shall pluck away his crop with † his feathers, and cast it [q] beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes:

17 And he shall cleave it with the wings hereof, but [r] shall not divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: [s] it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

1 The meat offering of flour with oil and incense. 4 either baken in the oven, 5 or on a plate, 7 or in a frying pan, 12 or of the firstfruits in the ear. 13 The salt of the meat offering.

AND when any will offer [a] a meat offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon:

2 And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn [b] the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD:

3 And [c] the remnant of the meat offering shall be Aaron's, and his sons': [d] it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the Lord made by fire,

4 ¶ And if thou bring an oblation of a meat offering baken in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers [e] anointed with oil.

5 ¶ And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken * in a pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil.

6 Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a meat offering.

7 ¶ And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken in the fryingpan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

8 And thou shalt bring the meat offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: and when it is presented unto the priest, he shall bring it unto the altar.

9 And the priest shall take from the meat offering [f] a memorial thereof, and shall burn it upon the altar: it is an [g] offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 And [h] that which is left of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

11 No meat offering, which ye shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with [i] leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the LORD made by fire.

12 ¶ [k] As for the oblation of the firstfruits, ye shall offer them unto the LORD:

Ver. 8. The priests—shall lay the parts.—"The sacrifice was divided according to its larger joints. First, after its blood was poured out and the skin removed, the head was cut off. Secondly; they opened it, and took out the omentum or caul, that invests the intestines. Thirdly; they took out the intestines with the mesentery, and washed them well, as also the fat. Fourthly; they placed the four quarters upon the altar, covered them with the fat, laid the remains of the intestines upon them, and then laid the head above all. Ver. 2. Shall burn the memorial of it.—"Part of it was to be burned as a testimony of its being dedicated to God, and to be a memorial to him of his covenant and promise in the sacred seed Christ."—Dr. Dodd.

Ver. 11. No leaven, nor any honey.—According to Mr. Locke, they were forbidden to offer honey, because the heathens always used it in their sacrifices for the dead. As leaven had, undoubtedly, a moral reference, so it is most probable that honey had the same.

e ch. 16. 14. Num. 19. 4.

Ver. 13. Every oblation shalt thou season with salt.—Salt has two qualities, the one is employed to season meat, and the other to preserve it from corruption; thus it denotes that integrity and uncorruptedness of heart which renders every sacrifice, and renders men's persons and services grateful to God.

Chap. iii. Ver. 1. A sacrifice of peace-offering.—Dr. Beaumont observes that the original signifies a sacrifice of payments or pacifications, whereby men returned to God confession and thanks for peace and prosperity; and for his performing of mercies and purifications; and paid their vows. Compare Psalm lvi. 13, and Proverbs vii. 14. This peace offering figured both Christ and his oblation of himself, whereby he became our peace and salvation; and also our oblation of praise, thanksgiving, and prayer unto God.

Ver. 3. Aaron's sons shall burn it.—The fat here mentioned was the suet, and this was the most valuable part of the animal, it was offered in preference to all other parts. "The heathens probably borrowed this custom from the Jews, for they burnt the omentum or caul, in honor of their gods."—Clarke's Commentary.

Ver. 17. That ye eat neither fat nor blood.—The Israelites were only restricted from eating the fat that covered the inwards, or the suet and the blood of the sacrifice, which, besides being the life of the beast, was a type of that most precious blood of Christ, "which cleanseth from all sin."

Chap. iv. Ver. 2. If a soul shall sin through ignorance.—Without any immediate consciousness of the requisitions of the ceremonial law

Ver. 3. If the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people.—That is, if the High Priest, who, in that sacred character, ought to be an example of sanctity to the people, should sanction and confirm them in their sins, by committing the same or similar offences, thus causing them to trangress with the greater confidence, then let him bring for his sin, &c.

B. C. 1490

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the vail of the sanctuary.

7 And the priest shall [f]put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour [g]all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the sin offering; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away,

10 [h]As it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering.

11 [i]And the skin of the bullock, and all his flesh, with his head, and with his legs, and his inwards, and his dung,

12 Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth [k]without the camp unto a clean place, [k]where the ashes are poured out, and [l]burn him on the wood with fire: † where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt.

13 ¶ And [m]if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, [n]and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty;

14 When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the elders of the congregation [o]shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD: and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD.

16 [p]And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation:

17 And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, even before the vail.

18 And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the altar.

20 And he shall do with the bullock as he did [q]with the bullock for a sin offering, so shall he do with this: [r]and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock: it is a sin offering for the congregation.

22 ¶ When a ruler hath sinned, and [s]done somewhat through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD his God concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty;

23 Or [t]if his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish:

24 And [u]he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD: it is a sin offering.

25 [x]And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out his blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering.

26 And he shall burn all his fat upon the altar, as [y]the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings: [z]and the priest shall make an atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 ¶ And [a]if ‡ any one of the § common people sin through ignorance, while he doeth somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty;

28 Or [b]if his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge: then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned.

29 [c]And he [r]shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering.

30 And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar.

31 And [d]he shall take away all the fat thereof, [e]as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a [f]sweet savour unto the LORD; [g]and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

32 And if he bring a lamb for a sin offering, [h]he shall bring it a female without blemish.

33 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.

Ver. 12. Without the camp.—This refers typically to Christ's suffering without the walls of Jerusalem. The bullock was removed whole without the camp, because the sins of the priest being transferred to it, it was no longer a fit object to be near the tabernacle, where the Divine presence was especially manifested. It was therefore removed, as it were, from the sight of God, as an unclean thing, the sin of the person in whose behalf the offering was made being thus removed with it.

Ver. 13. If the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance.—By omitting some rite of the ceremonial law, or by not adhering strictly to the requisition in every minute particular. The obligation of obedience to the very letter of the ceremonial law was most rigidly enforced by the Divine appointment, until this obligation ceased under the succession of a more perfect dispensation.

Ver. 22. A ruler.—Any person in authority.

CHAP. V. Ver. 1. If a soul sin, &c.—Dr. Waterland's translation gives a clear sense to this passage. "If any person, being adjured as a witness, shall offend in not discovering what he has seen or known, he shall bear his iniquity."

Ver. 4. If a soul swear, &c.—If a person make any rash vows, or solemn protestations, without knowing whether he can realize them or not.

Ver. 6. His trespass-offering.—Dr. Beaumont observes that "these trespass-offerings were for sins of less importance, as omission of some duties, or not observing the legal washings and purifications, &c.; whereas the sin-offerings in chap. iv. were for greater offences, in doing things forbidden of God, and therefore these oblations for trespasses of this kind were made less, if the sinner were poor, see verse 11, which, in the former, were never lessened. See Chapter 4.

Ver. 11. The tenth part of an ephah.—The ephah contained thirty quarts; the tenth part was consequently three.

Ver. 15. In the holy things of the Lord.—These holy things are supposed to refer to eating inadvertently that part of the sacrifice which belonged to the priest, or neglecting to present any thing due to the sanctuary. With thy estimation.—That is, paying, in addition to his oblation, as many shekels as the priest should consider an adequate remuneration for the loss sustained.

Ver. 16. Make amends.—Make restitution.

21 In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baken, thou shalt bring it in: and the baken pieces of the meat offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

22 And the priest of his sons [d]that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the LORD; [e]it shall be wholly burnt.

23 For every meat offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.

24 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, [f]This is the law of the sin offering: [g]In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD: [h]it is most holy.

26 [i]The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: [k]in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 [l]Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the holy place.

28 But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden [m]shall be broken: and if it be sodden in a brasen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water.

B. C. 1490. in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.

CHAP. VII.

1 The law of the trespass offering, 11 and of the peace offerings, 12 whether it be for a thanksgiving, 16 or a vow, or a freewill offering. 22 The fat, 26 and the blood, are forbidden. 28 The priests' portion in the peace offerings.

LIKEWISE [a]this is the law of the trespass offering: [b]it is most holy.

2 [c]In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill the trespass offering: and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about upon the altar.

3 And he shall offer of it [d]all the fat thereof; the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards,

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away:

5 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a trespass offering.

6 [e]Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: [f]it is most holy.

7 As the sin offering is, so is [g] the trespass offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it.

8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered.

9 And [h]all the meat offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is dressed in the fryingpan, and * in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.

10 And every meat offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another.

11 And [i]this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD.

12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers [k]anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering [l]leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings.

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for an heave offering unto the LORD, [m]and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings.

15 [n]And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.

16 But [o]if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be [p]imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an [q]abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity.

19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that pertain unto the LORD, [r]having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul [s]shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as [t]the uncleanness of man, or any [u]unclean beast, or any [w]abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul [x]shall be cut off from his people.

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, [y]Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

24 And the fat of the †beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use: but ye shall in no wise eat of it.

25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people.

26 [z]Moreover ye shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

27 Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

28 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

29 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, [a]He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace offerings unto the LORD shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace offerings.

30 [b]His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that [c]the breast may be waved for a wave offering before the LORD.

31 [d]And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: [e]but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

CHAP. VII. Ver. 2. In the place, &c.---See note on Chapter 6, verse 25.

Ver. 4. The fat.---This fat always applies to the fat detached from the entrails---the suet.

Ver. 8. Shall have to himself the skin.---"All the flesh of the burnt offering," says Bishop Patrick, "being consumed, as well as the fat, upon the altar, Chapter I. 8, 9, there was nothing that could fall to the share of the priest, but only the skin. I observed upon Gen. iii. 21, that it is probable that himself offered the first sacrifice, and had the skin given him by God, to make garments for him and his wife: in conformity with which, the priests after had the skin of the whole burnt offering for their portion.

Ver. 13. Leavened bread.---All leaven being forbidden in their offerings on the altar, the leavened bread here mentioned is supposed to have been designed to be eaten by the priests, and also by the offerer and his friends.

Ver. 15. He shall not leave any of it until the morning.---Because in a hot country it would become putrid, and to have exposed consecrated meat to such a contingency would have been sinful.

Ver. 18. Be eaten at all on the third day.---This is supposed to refer to the custom of drying meats, which was probably done to those offered in the sanctuary.

Ver. 23. Ye shall eat no manner of fat.---None of the suet, which was especially commanded to be offered on the altar.

B. C. 1490.

32 And [f]the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for an heave offering of the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron, that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

34 For [g]the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons by a statute for ever from among the children of Israel.

35 ¶ This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest's office;

36 Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, [h]in the day that he anointed them, by a statute for ever throughout their generations.

37 This is the law [i]of the burnt offering, [k]of the meat offering, [l]and of the sin offering, [m]and of the trespass offering, [n]and of the consecrations, and [o]of the sacrifice of the peace offerings;

38 Which the LORD commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel [p]to offer their oblations unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Moses consecrateth Aaron and his sons. 14 Their sin offering. 18 Their burnt offering. 22 The ram of consecrations. 31 The place and time of their consecration.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [a]Take Aaron and his sons with him, and [b]the garments, and [c]the anointing oil, and a bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread;

3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moses said unto the congregation, [d]This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, [e]and washed them with water.

7 [f]And he put upon him the [g]coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.

8 And he put the breastplate upon him: also he [h]put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim.

9 [i]And he put the mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, even upon his forefront, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the LORD [k]commanded Moses.

10 [l]And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them.

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them.

12 And he [m]poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.

13 [n]And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and * put bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

14 [o]And he brought the bullock for the sin offering: and Aaron and his sons [p]laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering.

15 And he slew it; [q]and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.

16 [r]And he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar.

17 But the bullock, and his hide, his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the LORD [s]commanded Moses.

18 ¶ [t]And he brought the ram for the burnt offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

19 And he killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

20 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

21 And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD; [u]as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And [w]he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

23 And he slew it; and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

24 And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25 [x]And he took the fat, and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder:

26 [y] And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder:

27 And he put all [z] upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD.

28 [a] And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt offering: they were consecrations for a sweet savour: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was Moses' [b] part; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And [c] Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

31 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, [d] Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 [e] And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire.

33 And ye shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for [f] seven days shall he consecrate you.

34 [g] As he hath done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and [h] keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAP. IX.

1 The first offerings of Aaron, for himself and the people. 8 The sin offering. 12 and the burnt offering for himself. 15 The offerings for the people. 23 Moses and Aaron bless the people. 24 Fire cometh from the Lord, upon the altar.

AND [i] it came to pass on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel;

2 And he said unto Aaron, [k] Take thee a young calf for a sin offering, [l] and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, [m] Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering;

4 Also a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and [n] a meat offering mingled with oil: for [o] to day the LORD will appear unto you.

5 ¶ And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do: and [p] the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and [q] offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people: and [r] offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 [s] And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and [t] put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar:

10 [u] But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar; [v] as the LORD commanded Moses.

11 [w] And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, [x] which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 [y] And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 [z] And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 ¶ [a] And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it [b] according to the * manner.

17 And he brought [c] the meat offering, and † took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, [d] beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning.

18 He slew also the bullock and the ram for [e] a sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about, inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver:

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, [a] and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved [a] for a wave offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded.

22 And Aaron lifted up his hand towards the people, and [b] blessed them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: [c] and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

24 And [d] there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, [e] they shouted, and fell on their faces.

CHAP. X.

1 Nadab and Abihu, for offering of strange fire, are burnt by fire. 6 Aaron and his sons are forbidden to mourn for them. 8 The priests are forbidden wine when they are to go into the tabernacle. 12 The law of eating the holy things. 16 Aaron's excuse for transgressing thereof.

AND [a] Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, [b] took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered [c] strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not.

2 And there [d] went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them [e] that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be [f] glorified. [g] And Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of [h] Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, [i] carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

5 So they went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, [k] Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes; lest ye die, and lest [l] wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled.

7 [m] And ye shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: [n] for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying,

9 [o] Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations:

10 And that ye may put [p] difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean.

11 [q] And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

12 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take [r] the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for [s] it is most holy:

13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for [t] so I am commanded.

14 And [u] the wave breast and heave shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15 [x] The heave shoulder and the wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

16 ¶ And Moses diligently sought [y] the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron which were left alive, saying,

17 [z] Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?

18 Behold, [a] the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, [b] as I commanded.

19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, [c] this day have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin offering to day, [d] should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?

20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.

Ver. 22. And Aaron lifted up his hand.---Lifting up the hand was the form of blessing a multitude, and imposition of hands the form of blessing an individual.

Ver. 24. And there came a fire out from before the Lord.---From that Divine glory which now appeared to all the people. They shouted.---Raised a shout of joy, and prostrated themselves in reverential adoration.

CHAP. X. Ver. 1. Offered strange fire.---Fire not consecrated to the service of the sanctuary. The consecrated fire was always kept burning upon the altar.

Ver. 2. And there went out fire---and devoured them.---Blasted them as if by a flash of lightning.

Ver. 3. Aaron held his peace.---Acquiesced in the Divine judgment with a spirit of pious resignation.

Ver. 6. Uncover not your heads.---They were forbidden to exhibit the common tokens of sorrow.

Ver. 7. For the anointing oil of the Lord is upon you.---They had been consecrated to God's service, and nothing therefore could exonerate them the duties of their ministry.

Ver. 10. That ye may put difference between holy and unholy---your faculties may be always so perfectly clear as to enable you at to distinguish between holy things and common, or between clean clean.

Ver. 16. Moses diligently sought the goat.---"The goat which was the same day for the sins of the priests and people, and which, by confusion that happened on account of the death of Nadab and A burnt instead of being eaten."---Clarke's Commentary.

Ver. 17. To bear the iniquity of the congregation.---"The eating the sin offering, receiving the guilt upon himself, was figure one who should be both priest and a sacrifice for sin, accomplished in Christ."---Biblioth. Bib.

CHAP. XI.

1 What beasts may, 4 and what may not be eaten. 9 What fishes. 13 What fowls. 29 The creeping things which are unclean.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying unto them,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, [a]These are the beasts which ye shall eat among the beasts that are on the earth.

Deut. 14. 4. & 12. 15, 22.

3 Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is clovenfooted, and cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ye eat.

4 Nevertheless these shall ye not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

5 And the coney, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

6 And the hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

7 And [b]the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be clovenfooted, yet he cheweth not the cud; [c]he is unclean to you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase shall ye not touch; [d]they are unclean to you.

9 ¶ [e]These shall ye eat of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

10 And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall be an [f]abomination unto you.

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you; ye shall not eat of their flesh, but ye shall have their carcases in abomination.

12 Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

13 ¶ [g]And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

14 And the vulture, and the kite after his kind;

15 Every raven after his kind;

16 And the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,

17 And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,

18 And the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle,

19 And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

20 All fowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you. B. C. 1490.

21 Yet these may ye eat of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth;

22 Even these of them ye may eat; [h]the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind.

[h] Matt. 3. 4. Mark 1. 6.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcase of them shall be unclean until the even.

25 And whosoever beareth ought of the carcase of them [i]shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

[i] ch. 14. 8. & 15. 5. Num. 19. 10, 21. & 31. 24.

26 The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not clovenfooted, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the even.

28 And he that beareth the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean unto you.

29 ¶ These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth; the weasel, and [k]the mouse, and the tortoise after his kind,

[k] Is. 66. 17.

30 And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even.

32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, [l]it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even; so it shall be cleansed.

33 And every earthen vessel, whereinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and [m]ye shall break it.

[m] ch. 6. 28. & 15. 12.

34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean.

35 And every thing whereupon any part of their carcase falleth shall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down: for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you.

CHAP. XI. Ver. 5. The coney.---A small animal resembling the rabbit, bounding in Palestine and Arabia.

Ver. 13. The ossifrage.---A kind of eagle, called ossifrage, or bone-breaker, because it breaks the bones of its prey, by dropping from a great height upon a rock. It then strips off the flesh, and extracts the marrow.---The ospray.---Another description of eagle.

Ver. 16. The owl.---This is supposed to mean the ostrich, the literal word signifying the daughter of vociferation.

Ver. 17. The little owl.---The bittern, according to Bochart and Le Clerc. The great owl.---Probably the ibis, a very ravenous bird, and held sacred among the Egyptians.

Ver. 19. The bat.---"It is observable generally that the birds forbidden are either rapacious and live on flesh, are night-birds, and haunt marshes, or are heavy and not easily raised from the ground, and live on dung and coarse diet. On the contrary, the birds allowed by the law of Moses are those that live upon a cleaner food."---Lewis.

Ver. 20. All fowls that creep.---Houbigant reads, All winged reptiles.

Ver. 22. The beetle---the grasshopper.---As these insects never could have been used for human food, some description of eatable locust is no doubt meant.

Ver. 35. Ranges for pots.---The following account by Rauwolff will best explain this passage. "The Eastern people make in their tents or houses a hole about a foot and half deep, wherein they put their earthen-pots, with the meat in them closed up; three-fourth parts thereof they lay about with stones, and the other fourth part is left open, through which they fling in their dried dung, twigs, and straw, which burn immediately, and give so great

3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague seven days:

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he [c]shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

c ch. 11. 25. & 14. 8.

24 And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, [d]and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people.

25 And [e]the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar.

7. Unto devils.—The original word signifies hairy ones, and most likely refers to goats.

8. Strangers. Proselytes.

11. In the blood. "Admit the sacrifice of Christ to be held in [illegible] in the institutions of the law, and every part is plain and intelligible; that notion, and every theory derived by the ingenuity of man, to explain the nature of the ceremonial worship, becomes trifling and inconsistent."—Dr. Magee.

Ver. 15. That which died of itself, or that which was torn.—Because in both instances, the blood remained in the veins and arteries.

CHAP. XVIII. Ver. 6. None of you shall approach, &c.—In this chapter all kinds of incestuous marriages are prohibited.

with thy neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her.

21 And thou shalt not let any of thy seed [a]pass through the fire to [b]Molech, neither shalt thou [c]profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

22 [d]Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

23 [e] Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is [f]confusion.

24 [g]Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: [h]for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you:

25 And [i]the land is defiled: therefore I do [k]visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself [l]vometeth out her inhabitants.

26 [m]Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you:

27 (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;)

28 That [n]the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you.

29 For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be cut off from among their people.

30 Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, [o]that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye [p]defile not yourselves therein: [q]I am the LORD your God.

CHAP. XIX.

A repetition of sundry laws.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, [a]Ye shall be holy: for I the LORD your God am holy.

3 [b]Ye shall fear every man his mother, and his father, and [c]keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

4 [d]Turn ye not unto idols, [e]nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the LORD your God.

5 And [f]if ye offer a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, ye shall offer it at your own will.

6 It shall be eaten the same day ye offer it, and on the morrow: and if ought remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire.

7 And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable; it shall not be accepted.

8 Therefore every one that eateth it shall bear his iniquity, because he hath profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD: and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

9 ¶ And [g]when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.

10 And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the LORD your God.

11 ¶ [h]Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, [i]neither lie one to another.

12 ¶ And ye shall not [k]swear by my name falsely, [l]neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

13 ¶ [m]Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: [n]the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.

14 ¶ Thou shalt not curse the deaf, [o]nor put a stumbling block before the blind, but shalt [p]fear thy God: I am the LORD.

15 ¶ [q]Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.

16 ¶ [r]Thou shalt not go up and down as a talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou [s]stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the LORD.

17 ¶ [t]Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: [u]thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, * and not suffer sin upon him.

18 ¶ [x]Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, [y]but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD.

19 ¶ Ye shall keep my statutes. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a diverse kind: [z]thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed: [a]neither shall a garment mingled of linen and woollen come upon thee.

20 ¶ And whosoever lieth carnally with a woman, that is a bondmaid, † ‡ betrothed to an husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her; § ‖ she shall be scourged; they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.

21 And [b]he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, even a ram for a trespass offering.

22 And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the LORD for his sin which he hath done: and the sin which he hath done shall be forgiven him.

C. 1490.

23 ¶ And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food, then ye shall count the fruit thereof as uncircumcised: three years shall it be as uncircumcised unto you: it shall not be eaten of.

24 But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be * holy c to praise the LORD withal.

25 And in the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit thereof, that it may yield unto you the increase thereof: I am the LORD your God.

26 ¶ d Ye shall not eat any thing with the blood: e neither shall ye use enchantment, nor observe times.

27 f Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard.

28 Ye shall not g make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the LORD.

29 ¶ h Do not † prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness.

30 ¶ i Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and k reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

31 ¶ l Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

32 ¶ m Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and n fear thy God: I am the LORD.

33 ¶ And o if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not ‡ vex him.

34 p But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and q thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

35 ¶ r Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in meteyard, in weight, or in measure.

36 s Just balances, just § weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

37 t Therefore shall ye observe all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: I am the LORD.

1 Of him that giveth of his seed to Molech. 4 Of him that favoureth such an one. 6 Of going to wizards. 7 Of sanctification. 9 Of him that curseth his parents. 10 Of adultery. 11, 14, 17, 19 Of incest. 13 of sodomy. 15 Of beastuality. 18 Of uncleanness. 22 Obedience is required with holiness. 27 Wizards must be put to death.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 u Again, thou shalt say to the children of Israel, b Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that giveth any of his seed unto Molech; he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones. B. C. 1490.

3 And c I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to d defile my sanctuary, and e to profane my holy name.

4 And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and f kill him not:

5 Then g I will set my face against that man, and h against his family, and will cut him off, and all that i go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

6 ¶ And k the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

7 ¶ l Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the LORD your God.

8 m And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: n I am the LORD which sanctify you.

9 ¶ o For every one that curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; p his blood shall be upon him.

10 ¶ And q the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

11 r And the man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

12 s And if a man lie with his daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death: t they have wrought confusion; their blood shall be upon them.

13 u If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

14 x And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.

15 y And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast.

16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman, and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

17 [a] And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

18 [a] And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath * discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

19 [b] And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister: [c] for he uncovereth his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity.

20 [d] And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

21 [e] And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is † an unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

22 ¶ Ye shall therefore keep all my [f] statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, [g] spue you not out.

23 [h] And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and [i] therefore I abhorred them.

24 But [k] I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey: I am the LORD your God, [l] which have separated you from other people.

25 [m] Ye shall therefore put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: [n] and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that ‡ creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 And ye shall be holy unto me: [o] for I the LORD am holy, and [p] have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine.

27 ¶ [q] A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: [r] their blood shall be upon them.

1 Of the priests' mourning. 6 Of their holiness. 8 Of their estimation. 7, 13 Of their marriages. 17 The priests that have blemishes must not minister in the sanctuary.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, [a] There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people:

2 But for his kin, that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

3 And for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath no husband: for her may he be defiled.

4 But * he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

5 [b] They shall not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy unto their God, and [c] not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and [d] the bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy.

7 [e] They shall not take a wife that is a whore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman [f] put away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God.

8 Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: [g] for I the LORD, which sanctify you, am holy.

9 ¶ [h] And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

10 [i] And he that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and [k] that is consecrated to put on the garments, [l] shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes;

11 Neither shall he [m] go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother;

12 [n] Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for [o] the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.

13 And [p] he shall take a wife in her virginity.

14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, or an harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife.

15 Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for [q] I the LORD do sanctify him.

16 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of thy seed in their generations that hath any blemish, let him not [r] approach to offer the † bread of his God.

Ver. 5. They shall not make baldness.—This was prohibited, together with the other particulars mentioned in the same verse, because they were practised by the heathen priests.

Ver. 10. Uncover his head, nor rend his clothes.—He is forbidden to show any outward signs of mourning, which would be unbecoming his character.

Ver. 12. The crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him.—In office, the priest represented Christ in his sacerdotal character, anointing, the prophetic influence; and by the crown, the royalty of our Lord.—Clarke's Commentary.

Ver. 15. Neither shall he profane his seed—by forbidden marriage alliances.

Ver. 17. He—that hath any blemish.—Deformed persons were not to be admitted to the service of the sanctuary, in accordance with the judges of the vulgar, who look chiefly on the outward appearance, would be likely to withhold their respect from a minister who was apparently visited with his judgments.

18 For whatsoever man he be that hath a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a flat nose, or any thing [a] superfluous,

19 Or a man that is brokenfooted, or brokenhanded,

20 Or crookbackt, or ‡ a dwarf, or that hath a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or [t] hath his stones broken;

21 No man that hath a blemish of the seed of Aaron the priest shall come nigh to [u] offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire: he hath a blemish; he shall not come nigh to offer the bread of his God.

22 He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the [x] most holy, and of the [y] holy.

23 Only he shall not go in unto the vail, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that [z] he profane not my sanctuaries: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The priests in their uncleanness must abstain from the holy things. 6 How they shall be cleansed. 10 Who of the priest's house may eat of the holy things. 17 The sacrifices must be without blemish. 26 The age of the sacrifice. 29 The law of eating the sacrifice of thanksgiving.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they [a] separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they [b] profane not my holy name in those things which they [c] hallow unto me: I am the LORD.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, that goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hollow unto the LORD, [d] having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

4 What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath [e] a * running issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, [f] until he be clean. And [g] whoso toucheth any thing that is unclean by the dead, or [h] a man whose seed goeth from him;

5 Or [i] whosoever toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or [k] a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath;

6 The soul which hath touched any such shall be unclean until even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he [l] wash his flesh with water.

7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things; because [m] it is his food.

8 [n] That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the LORD.

9 They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, [o] lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them.

10 [p] There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.

11 But if the priest buy any soul † with his money, he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house: [q] they shall eat of his meat.

12 If the priest's daughter also be married unto ‡ a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things.

13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is [r] returned unto her father's house, [s] as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

14 ¶ [t] And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the holy thing.

15 And [u] they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD;

16 Or ‡ suffer them [x] to bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, [y] Whatsoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his freewill offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt offering;

19 [z] Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats.

20 [a] But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And [b] whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD [c] to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in beeves or § sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein.

22 [d] Blind or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make [e] an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD.

23 Either a bullock or a ‖ lamb that hath any thing [f] superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make any offering thereof in your land.

ye offer [b] the bread of your God of any of these; because their [i] corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them: they shall not be accepted for you.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

27 [k] When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat, is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And whether it be cow or [*] ewe, ye shall not kill it [l] and her young both in one day.

29 And when ye will [m] offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your own will.

30 On the same day it shall be eaten up; ye shall leave [n] none of it until the morrow: I am the LORD.

31 [o] Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the LORD.

32 [p] Neither shall ye profane my holy name; but [q] I will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I am the LORD which [r] hallow you,

33 [s] That brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD.

1 The feasts of the Lord. 3 The sabbath. 4 The passover. 9 The sheaf of firstfruits. 15 The feast of Pentecost. 22 Gleanings to be left for the poor. 23 The feast of trumpets. 26 The day of atonement. 33 The feast of tabernacles.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning [a] the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall [b] proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.

3 [c] Six days shall work be done: but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

4 ¶ [d] These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

5 [e] In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD's passover.

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

7 [f] In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, [g] When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a [*] [†] sheaf of [h] the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest:

11 And he shall [i] wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12 And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf an he lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

13 [k] And the meat offering thereof, shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour: and the drink offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of an hin.

14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the self-same day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15 ¶ And [l] ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number [m] fifty days; and ye shall offer [n] a new meat offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baken with leaven; they are [o] the firstfruits unto the LORD.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their meat offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice [p] one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of [q] peace offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits for a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: [r] they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 ¶ And [s] when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field, when thou reapest, [t] neither shalt thou gather any gleaning of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the LORD your God.

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the [a] seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, [x] a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation.

25 Ye shall do no servile work therein: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

27 [y] Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And ye shall do no work in that same day: for it is a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God.

29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, [z] he shall be cut off from among his people.

30 And whatsoever soul it be that doeth any work in that same day, [a] the same soul will I destroy from among his people.

31 Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye ‡ celebrate your sabbath.

33 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, [b] The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD.

35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

36 Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: [c] on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a §[d] solemn assembly; and ye shall do no servile work therein.

37 [e] These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon his day:

38 [f] Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.

39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have [g] gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.

B. C. 1490.

40 And [b] ye shall take you on the first day the ‖ boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; [i] and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

41 [k] And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 [l] Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths:

43 [m] That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

44 And Moses [n] declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [a] Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, * to cause the lamps to burn continually.

3 Without the vail of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning before the LORD continually: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations.

4 He shall order the lamps upon [b] the pure candlestick before the LORD continually.

5 ¶ And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve [c] cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row [d] upon the pure table before the LORD.

7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

8 [e] Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

9 And [f] it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; [g] and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute.

12 And they [l] put him in ward, † [m] that the mind of the LORD might be shewed them.

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

14 Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp; and let all that heard him [n] lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God [o] shall bear his sin.

16 And he that [p] blasphemeth the name of the LORD, he shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as he that is born in the land, when he blasphemeth the name of the LORD, shall be put to death.

21 [t] And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it: [u] and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.

22 Ye shall have [x] one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for I am the LORD your God.

23 ¶ And Moses spake to the children of Israel, [y] that they should bring forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

1 The sabbath of the seventh year. 8 The jubile in the fiftieth year. 14 Of oppression. 18 A blessing of obedience. 23 The redemption of land. 29 Of houses. 35 Compassion of the poor. 39 The usage of bondmen. 47 The redemption of servants.

1491. AND the LORD spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land * keep [a] a sabbath unto the LORD.

3 Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof;

4 But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.

5 [b] That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes † of thy vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.

6 And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee,

7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

8 ¶ And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.

9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet ‡ of the jubile to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, [c] in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and [d] proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; [e] and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

11 A jubile shall that fiftieth year be unto you: [f] ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.

12 For it is the jubile; it shall be holy unto you: [g] ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

13 [h] In the year of this jubile ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 And if thou sell ought unto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbour's hand, [i] ye shall not oppress one another:

15 [k] According to the number of years after the jubile thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee:

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 [l] Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; [m] but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

Ver. 14. And let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head;—In order to bear public testimony of his guilt.

Ver. 16. Blasphemeth the name of the Lord.—Blasphemy received the same punishment as murder. We cannot therefore be ignorant of the extent of its criminality.

CHAP. XXV. Ver. 2. Then shall the land keep a sabbath unto the Lord.—After the seventh year the land was to lie fallow for twelve months, in order to recruit its strength. "The sabbath day was a rest from the labours laid upon man for sin: the sabbath year was a rest for the ground, which for man's sin God had cursed."—Biblioth. Bib.

Ver. 6. The sabbath of the land shall be meat for you.—"By sabbath is here meant the produce that grew of itself in the sabbatical year."—Bishop Patrick.

Ver. 10. A jubile.—"The design of the law respecting the jubilee was partly political and partly typical. It was political, inasmuch as it tended to prevent the too great oppression of the poor, as well as to save the perpetual slavery; also to prevent too great accumulation of land in the rich, and to preserve the distinction of tribes, in respect both to families and possessions. The typical use of the jubilee is pointed out in Isaiah, chap. lxi. 1, 2, in which passage "the acceptable year of the Lord," when "liberty was proclaimed to the captive," and "the opening of the prison to them that are bound," evidently refers to the jubilee. So the prophetic sense, it means the gospel state and dispensation, which proclaims spiritual liberty from the bondage of sin and Satan; and the liberty of returning to our own possessions, even the heavenly inheritance, which we had, having incurred forfeiture by sin, we had lost all right to class."—Jennings.

Ver. 13. Shall return every man unto his possession.—Should be restored to his family possessions.

Ver. 15. According to the number of years—between the time of the jubilee and the jubilee, when the land was to return to the original proprietor.

and keep my judgments, and do them; [c]and ye shall dwell in the land in safety.

19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and [p]ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, [q]What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, [r]we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:

21 Then I will [s]command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 [t]And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of [a]old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store.

23 ¶ The land shall not be sold § || for ever: for [x]the land is mine; for ye are [y]strangers and sojourners with me.

24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

25 ¶ [z]If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if [a]any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.

26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and [b]himself be able to redeem it;

27 Then [b]let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession.

28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubile: [c]and in the jubile it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.

29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubile.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: †they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubile.

32 Notwithstanding [d]the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

33 And if ‡a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, [e]shall go out in the year of jubile: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But [f]the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.

35 ¶ And if thy brother be waxen poor, and § fallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt || [g]relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee.

36 [h]Take thou no usury of him, or increase: but [i]fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee.

37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.

38 [k]I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 ¶ And [l]if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not [*]compel him to serve as a bondservant:

40 But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubile:

41 And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children [m]with him, and shall return unto his own family, and [n]unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

42 For they are [o]my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold † as bondmen.

43 [p]Thou shalt not rule over him [q]with rigour; but [r]shalt fear thy God.

44 Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids.

45 Moreover of [s]the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession.

46 And [t]ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; ‡ they shall be your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren the children of Israel, [u]ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

47 ¶ And if a sojourner or stranger § wax rich by thee, and [x]thy brother that dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family:

48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may [y]redeem him:

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if [z]he be able, he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubile: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, [a]according to the time of an hired servant shall it be with him.

51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

29 [a]And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

30 And [b]I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and [c]cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and my soul shall [d]abhor you.

31 [e]And I will make your cities waste, and [f]bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

32 [g]And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be [h]astonished at it.

33 And [i]I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34 [k]Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

35 As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your [l]sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

36 And upon them that are left alive of you [m]I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and [n]the sound of a † shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

37 And [o]they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and [p]ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

38 And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39 And they that are left of you [q]shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

40 [r]If they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me;

41 And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their [s]uncircumcised hearts be [t]humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity:

42 Then will I [u]remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will [x]remember the land.

43 [y]The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they [z]despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

44 And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, [a]I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their God.

45 But I will [b]for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, [c]whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt [d]in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.

7 And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be from sixty years old and shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to his ability that vowed shall the priest value him.

9 And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: [a] as thou valuest it, who art the priest, so shall it be.

[a] Heb. according to thy estimation, O priest, &c.

13 [b] But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

[b] ver. 15, 19.

14 ¶ And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

[d] ver. 18.

15 [d] And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: † an homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

† Or, the land of an homer, &c.

17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jubile, according to thy estimation it shall stand.

18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubile, then the priest shall [e] reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubile, and it shall be abated from thy estimation.

[e] ch. 2 1, 16.

19 [f] And if he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.

[f] ver. 13.

20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more.

21 But the field, [g] when it goeth out in the jubile, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field [h] devoted; [i] the possession thereof shall be the priest's.

CHAP. I.

God commandeth Moses to number the people. 5 The princes of the tribes. 17 The number of every tribe. 47 The Levites are exempted for the service of the Lord.

[a] Ex. 19 1. ch. 10. 11, 12. [b] Ex. 25. 22.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses [a] in the wilderness of Sinai, [b] in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

[c] Ex. 30 12. ch. 26 2.

2 [c] Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their polls;

NUMBERS. "The book of Numbers is the fourth of the Pentateuch. The Hebrews call it Vajedabber, And he spoke, because in Hebrew it begins with those words. Some Jews call it Hemiddebar, in the desert, because it includes the history of the Israelites' journeying in the wilderness. The Greeks, and after them the Latins, call it the Book of Numbers, because the three first chapters contain the numbering of the Hebrews and Levites, which was performed separately, after the erection and consecration of the tabernacle."—Calmet. "In this book, which comprehends the history of between thirty-eight and thirty-nine years, we have a distinct account of the several stages of the Israelites' journey in the wilderness, the various occurrences on the way; their trials, rebellions, punishments, deliverances, conquests, &c.; with several laws and ordinances, not given in the preceding books, together with a repetition and explanation of others which had been previously delivered; the whole forming a most interesting history of the justice, mercy, and providence of God."—Adam Clarke.

CHAP. I. Ver. 1. On the first day, &c.—All that is related in the foregoing book seems to have passed in the first month of the year after their coming out of Egypt, in the beginning of which the tabernacle was set up; in the middle of it the passover was kept, as appears from ch. 9 1, 2.

3 From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them by their armies.

4 And with you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers.

5 ¶ And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: of the tribe of Reuben; Elizur the son of Shedeur.

6 Of Simeon; Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

7 Of Judah; Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

8 Of Issachar; Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

9 Of Zebulun: Eliab the son of Helon.

10 Of the children of Joseph: of Ephraim; Elishama the son of Ammihud: of Manasseh; Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

11 Of Benjamin; Abidan the son of Gideoni.

12 Of Dan; Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

13 Of Asher; Pagiel the son of Ocran.

14 Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of [d] Deuel.

15 Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan.

16 [e] These were the renowned of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, [f] heads of thousands in Israel.

17 ¶ And Moses and Aaron took these men which are expressed by their names:

18 And they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls.

19 As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the children of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

21 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

22 ¶ Of the children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

23 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

24 ¶ Of the children of Gad, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

25 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Gad, were forty and five thousand six hundred and fifty.

B. C. 1490.

26 ¶ Of the children of Judah, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

27 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Judah, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

28 ¶ Of the children of Issachar, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

29 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Issachar, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

30 ¶ Of the children of Zebulun, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

31 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

32 ¶ Of the children of Joseph, namely, of the children of Ephraim, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

33 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand and five hundred.

34 ¶ Of the children of Manasseh, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

35 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

36 ¶ Of the children of Benjamin, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

37 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

38 ¶ Of the children of Dan, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

39 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Dan, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

Ver. 1. These also are the generations of Aaron and Moses.—"Here is of opinion that Aaron is here mentioned first, as being the elder her, and, on that account, having the priesthood attached to his erity, whereas the posterity of Moses were numbered only among common Levites; and he thinks that one reason for excluding the of Moses from the priesthood was their not being born of an Israel- mother. It has been justly observed that the disinterestedness of s in making no provision for his own family at once shows the divine ority of his mission.

Ver. 6. Bring the tribe of Levi near.—"God orders the tribe of Levi to ffered in a solemn manner to his service, and to the ministration of tabernacle under the priests, into whose peculiar office they were o means to intrude, but were to perform the mere servile offices of the tabernacle in the wilderness; guarding it, taking it down, carrying it and setting it up again; and when settled in the land of Canaan, still employed in different functions about the temple; for the more regular performance of which they were distributed into different classes or courses."—Dr. Dodd.

Ver. 7. They shall keep his charge, &c.—This verse is better rendered in our old version—"And they shall take the charge with him, even the charge of the whole congregation, before the tabernacle of the congregation."

Ver. 12. I have taken the Levites, &c.—The Levites were taken for the service of the tabernacle, instead of the firstborn, which God had commanded to be dedicated to himself.

19 And the sons of Kohath by their families; [p] Amram, and Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

20 [q] And the sons of Merari by their families; Mahli, and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.

21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the Gershonites.

22 Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those that were numbered of them were seven thousand and five hundred.

23 [r] The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward.

24 And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael.

25 And [s] the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation shall be [t] the tabernacle, and [u] the tent, [x] the covering thereof, and [y] the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

26 And [z] the hangings of the court, and [a] the curtain for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and [b] the cords of it for all the service thereof.

27 ¶ [c] And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izeharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites.

28 In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.

29 [d] The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward.

30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 And [e] their charge shall be [f] the ark, and [g] the table, and [h] the candlestick, and [i] the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and [k] the hanging, and all the service thereof.

32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be chief over the chief of the Levites, and have the oversight of them that keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33 ¶ Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari.

34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred.

35 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail: [l] these shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward.

36 And ‡ [m] under the custody and charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and all that serveth thereto,

37 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.

38 ¶ [n] But those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, [o] keeping the charge of the sanctuary [p] for the charge of the children of Israel; and [q] the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

39 [r] All that were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

40 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [s] Number all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 [t] And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel.

43 And all the firstborn males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen.

44 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 [u] Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD.

46 And for those that are to be [x] redeemed of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of the children of Israel, [y] which are more than the Levites;

47 Thou shalt even take [z] five shekels apiece by the poll, after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them: ([a] the shekel is twenty gerahs:)

48 And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons.

49 And Moses took the redemption money of them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Levites:

50 Of the firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money; [b] a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

51 And Moses [c] gave the money of them that were redeemed unto Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAP. IV.

1 The age and time of the Levites' service. 4 The carriage of the Kohathites, when the priests have taken down the tabernacle. 16 The charge of Eleazar. 17 The office of the priests. 21 The carriage of the Gershonites. 29 The carriage of the Merarites. 34 The number of the Kohathites, 38 of the Gershonites, 42 and of the Merarites.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers,

3 [a] From thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 [b] This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, about [c] the most holy things:

5 ¶ And when the camp setteth forward, Aaron shall come, and his sons, and they shall take down [d] the covering vail, and cover the [e] ark of testimony with it:

6 And shall put thereon the covering of badgers' skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put in [f] the staves thereof.

7 And upon the [g] table of shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to * cover withal: and the continual bread shall be thereon:

8 And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put in the staves thereof.

9 And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the [h] candlestick of the light, [i] and his lamps, and his tongs, and his snuffdishes, and all the oil vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it:

10 And they shall put it and all the vessels thereof within a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put it upon a bar.

11 And upon [k] the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put to the staves thereof:

12 And they shall take all the instruments of ministry, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put them on a bar:

13 And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon:

14 And they shall put upon it all the vessels thereof, wherewith they minister about it, even the censers, the fleshhooks, and the shovels, and the † basons, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers' skins, and put to the staves of it.

15 And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward; after that, [l] the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it: [m] but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. [n] These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation.

16 ¶ And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest pertaineth [o] the oil for the light, and the [p] sweet incense, and [q] the daily meat offering, and the [r] anointing oil, and the oversight of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein is, in the sanctuary, and in the vessels thereof.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

18 Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites:

19 But thus do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach unto [s] the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden:

20 [t] But they shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die.

21 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

22 Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon, throughout the houses of their fathers, by their families;

23 [u] From thirty years old and upward until fifty years old shalt thou number them; all that enter in ‡ to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

24 This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, to serve, and for § burdens:

25 And [x] they shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the badgers' skins that is above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

26 And the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them: so shall they serve.

27 At the ‖ appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service: and ye shall appoint unto them in charge all their burdens.

28 This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation: and their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

29 ¶ As for the sons of Merari, thou shalt number them after their families, by the house of their fathers;

30 [y] From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old shalt thou number them, every one that entereth into the * service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation.

CHAP. V.

1 The unclean are removed out of the camp. 5 Restitution is to be made in trespasses. 11 The trial of jealousy.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every [a]leper, and every one that hath an [b]issue, and whosoever is defiled by the [c]dead:

3 Both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camps, [d]in the midst whereof I dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Speak unto the children of Israel, [e]When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty;

7 [f]Then they shall confess their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespass [g]with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even to the priest: beside [h]the ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him.

9 And every [i]*offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his.

10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be [k]his.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him,

13 And a man [l]lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner; him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled:

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, [m] bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD:

17 And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water:

18 And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse:

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness † ‡ with another instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse:

20 But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man have lain with thee beside thine husband:

21 Then the priest shall [n] charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman, [o] The LORD make thee a curse and an oath among thy people, when the LORD doth make thy thigh to § rot, and thy belly to swell;

22 And this water that causeth the curse [p] shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot: [q] And the woman shall say, Amen, amen.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water:

24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.

25 Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand, and shall [r] wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar:

26 [s] And the priest shall take an handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.

27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that, if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman [t] shall be a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another [u] instead of her husband, and is defiled;

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31 Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman [x] shall bear her iniquity.

CHAP. VII.

1 The offering of the princes at the dedication of the tabernacle. 10 Their several offerings at the dedication of the altar. 89 God speaketh to Moses from the mercy seat.

AND it came to pass on the day that Moses had fully [a] set up the tabernacle, and had anointed it, and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the altar and all the vessels thereof, and had anointed them, and sanctified them;

[a] Ex. 40. 2, 17.

2 That [b] the princes of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, [c] and were over them that were numbered, offered:

[b] Ex. 24. 5.
[c] ch. 1. 4, 16. 44.

3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle.

4 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

5 Take it of them, that they may be [d] to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his service.

[d] ch. 3. 7, 8. 4. 26.

6 And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites.

7 Two wagons and four oxen [e] he gave unto the sons of Gershon, according to their service:

[e] ch. 4. 24.

8 [d] And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their service, [e] under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

9 But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none: because [f] the service of the sanctuary belonging unto them [g] was that they should bear upon their shoulders.

[f] ch. 4. 4, 15.
[g] Ex. 25. 14, 15. 37. 4, 5.

10 ¶ And the princes offered for [h] dedicating of the altar in the day that it was anointed, even the princes offered their offering before the altar.

[h] Ex. 40. 10.

11 And the LORD said unto Moses, They shall offer their offering, each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar.

12 ¶ And he that offered his offering the first day was [i] Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah:

[i] Ruth 4. 20. 1 Chro. 2. 10. Matt. 1. 4. Luke 3. 32.

13 And his offering was one silver charger, the weight thereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after [k] the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a [l] meat offering:

[k] Ex. 30. 13. Lev. 27. 25.

1 How the lamps are to be lighted. 5 The consecration of the Levites. 23 The age and time of their service.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou [a]lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the candlestick.

3 And Aaron did so; he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick, as the LORD commanded Moses.

4 [b]And this work of the candlestick was of beaten gold, unto the shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was [c]beaten work: [d]according unto the pattern which the LORD had shewed Moses, so he made the candlestick.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.

7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle [e]water of purifying upon them, and [*f]let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with [g]his meat offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering.

the LORD: and the children of Israel [k]shall put their hands upon the Levites:

11 And Aaron shall †offer the Levites before the LORD for an ‡offering of the children of Israel, that §they may execute the service of the LORD.

12 [l]And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the LORD.

14 Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be [m]mine.

15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and [n]offer them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; [o]instead of such as open every womb, even instead of the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me.

17 [p]For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel.

19 And [q]I have given the Levites as ‖a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel: [r]that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the sanctuary.

20 And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them.

21 [s]And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes; [t]and Aaron offered them as an offering before the LORD; and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them.

22 [u]And after that went the Levites in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron, and before his sons: [x]as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them.

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 This is it that belongeth unto the Levites: [y]from twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in *to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation:

25 And from the age of fifty years they shall †cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more:

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, [z]to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

1 The passover is commanded again. 6 A second passover allowed for them that were unclean or absent. 15 The cloud guideth the removings and encampments of the Israelites.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel also keep [a]the passover at his appointed season.

3 In the fourteenth day of this month *at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it.

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

5 And [b]they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And there were certain men, who were [c]defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: [d]and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel?

8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and [e]I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD.

11 [f]The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, and [g]eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

HAP. IX. Ver. 1. The Lord spake.—As the first fourteen verses of this chapter refer to what took place at the commencement of Exodus, Calmet conjectures that they ought to be placed at the beginning of this book, and "very rightly," says Houbigant, "if you consider the order of the transactions: not that Moses neglected the order of time, but because those things which were first noted down in the separate table of his commentaries, were afterwards digested in the present order. This is no reason why any thing in the present order should be changed. It is sufficient for us to know that the books of Moses contain the genuine acts of his time, and not a regular and continued history."

13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul [l]shall be cut off from among his people: because he [m]brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season, that man shall [n]bear his sin.

14 And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: [o]ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land.

15 ¶ And [p]on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and [q]at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning.

16 So it was alway: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud [r]was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched: [s]as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents.

19 And when the cloud † tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel [t]kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud ‡ abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel [u]abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they [x]kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the [a]calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when [b]they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are [c]heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm, then [d]the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie [e]on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, [f]ye shall blow, but ye shall not [g]sound an alarm.

8 [h]And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

9 And [i]if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that [k]oppresseth you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be [l]remembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies.

10 Also [m]in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; that they may be to you [n]for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God.

11 ¶ And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud [o]was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony.

12 And the children of Israel took [p]their journeys out of the [q]wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud rested in the [r]wilderness of Paran.

and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, [y] bearing the tabernacle.

18 ¶ And [z] the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the [a] sanctuary: and [a] the other did set up the tabernacle against they came.

22 ¶ And [b] the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

25 ¶ And [c] the standard of the camp of the children of Dan set forward, which was the rereward of all the camps throughout their hosts: and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

28 † [d] Thus were the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they set forward.

29 ¶ And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of [e] Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father in law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, [f] I will give it you: come thou with us, and [g] we will do thee good: for [h] the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel.

30 And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred.

31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us [i] instead of eyes.

32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that [k] what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

33 ¶ And they departed from [l] the mount of the LORD three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD [m] went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them.

34 And [n] the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp.

35 And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, [o] Rise up, LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee.

36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the ‡ many thousands of Israel.

CHAP. XI.

1 The burning at Taberah quenched by Moses' prayer. 4 The people lust for flesh, and loathe manna. 10 Moses complaineth of his charge. 16 God divideth his burden unto seventy elders. 31 Quails are given in wrath at Kibroth-hattaavah.

AND [a] when the people * complained † it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; [b] and his anger was kindled; and the [c] fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.

2 And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses [d] prayed unto the LORD, the fire ‡ was quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place § Taberah: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

4 ¶ And the [e] mixt multitude that was among them ‖ fell a lusting: and the children of Israel also * wept again, and said, [f] Who shall give us flesh to eat?

5 [g] We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick:

6 But now [h] our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, beside this manna, before our eyes.

7 And [i] the manna was as coriander seed, and the † colour thereof as the colour of [k] bdellium.

8 And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it, in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it: and [l] the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil.

9 And [m] when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

10 ¶ Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and [n] the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased.

11 [o] And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me?

12 Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldest say unto me, [p] Carry them in thy bosom, as a [q] nursing father beareth the sucking child, unto the land which thou [r] swarest unto their fathers?

4 [c]And the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

5 [f]And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him [g]in a vision, and will speak unto him [h]in a dream.

7 [i]My servant Moses is not so, [k]who is faithful in all [l]mine house.

8 With him will I speak [m]mouth to mouth, even [n]apparently, and not in dark speeches; and [o]the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then [p]were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed.

10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, [q]behold, Miriam became [r]leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous.

11 And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, [s]lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned.

12 Let her not be [t]as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb.

15 [y]And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again.

16 And afterward the people removed from [z]Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The names of the men who were sent to search the land. 17 Their instructions. 21 Their acts. 26 Their relation.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [a]Send thou men, that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them.

3 And Moses by the commandment of the LORD sent them [b]from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of the children of Israel.

4 And these were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.

5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.

6 [c]Of the tribe of Judah, [d]Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.

8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, [e]Oshea the son of Nun.

9 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu.

10 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi.

11 Of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi.

12 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli.

13 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael.

14 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.

15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

16 These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called [f]Oshea the son of Nun Jehoshua.

17 ¶ And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way [g]southward, and go up into [h]the mountain:

18 And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many;

19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds;

20 And what the land is, whether it be [i]fat or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not. And [k]be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the firstripe grapes.

21 ¶ So they went up, and searched the land [l]from the wilderness of Zin unto [m]Rehob, as men come to Hamath.

22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron; where [n]Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, [o]the children of Anak, were. (Now [p]Hebron was built seven years before [q]Zoan in Egypt.)

23 [r]And they came unto the * brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

24 The place was called the † brook ‡Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty days.

26 ¶ And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, [a] unto the wilderness of Paran, to [f] Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with [n] milk and honey; [x] and this is the fruit of it.

28 Nevertheless [y] the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw [z] the children of Anak there.

29 [a] The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south: and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains: and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan.

30 And [b] Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

31 [c] But the men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.

32 And they [d] brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and [e] all the people that we saw in it are § men of a great stature.

33 And there we saw the giants, [f] the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight [g] as grasshoppers, and so we were [h] in their sight.

CHAP. XIV.

1 The people murmur at the news. 6 Joshua and Caleb labour to still them. 11 God threateneth them. 13 Moses persuadeth God, and obtaineth pardon. 26 The murmurers are deprived of entering into the land. 36 The men who raised the evil report die by a plague. 40 The people that would invade the land against the will of God are smitten.

AND all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and [a] the people wept that night.

2 [b] And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or [c] would God we had died in this wilderness!

3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, [d] Let us make a captain, and [e] let us return into Egypt.

5 Then [f] Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 ¶ [g] And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, [h] The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

8 If the LORD [i] delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; [k] a land which floweth with milk and honey.

9 Only [l] rebel not ye against the LORD, [m] neither fear ye the people of the land; for [n] they are bread for us: their [o] defence is departed from them, [o] and the LORD is with us: fear them not.

10 [p] But all the congregation bade stone them with stones. And [q] the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

11 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people [r] provoke me? and how long will it be ere they [s] believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them?

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and [t] will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

13 ¶ And [u] Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: [x] for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that [y] thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 ¶ Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying,

16 Because the LORD was not [z] able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my LORD be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18 The LORD is [a] longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, [b] visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

19 [c] Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people [d] according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and [e] as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even † until now.

20 And the LORD said, I have pardoned [f] according to thy word:

21 But as truly as I live, [g] all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD.

22 [h] Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, have tempted me now [l]these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;

23 [k] ‡ Surely they shall not see the land which I sware unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it:

24 But my servant [l]Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and [m] hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it.

25 (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwelt in the valley.) To morrow turn you, [n]and get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

27 [o]How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? [p]I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.

28 Say unto them, [q] As truly as I live, saith the LORD, [r]as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you:

29 Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and [s]all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me,

30 Doubtless ye shall not come into the land, concerning which I § sware to make you dwell therein, [t]save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

31 [u] But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which [x]ye have despised.

32 But as for you, [y]your carcases, they shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall ‖ [z]wander in the wilderness [a]forty years, and [b] bear your whoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness.

34 [c] After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even [d]forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years, [e]and ye shall know * my breach of promise.

35 [f]I the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all [g]this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

36 [h] And the men, which Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land,

37 Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, [i]died by the plague before the LORD.

38 [k] But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of the men that went to search the land, lived still.

39 And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel: [l]and the people mourned greatly.

40 ¶ And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, [m]we be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned.

41 And Moses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress [n]the commandment of the LORD? but it shall not prosper.

42 [o]Go not up, for the LORD is not among you: that ye be not smitten before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: [p]because ye are turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you.

44 [q]But they presumed to go up unto the hill top: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, departed not out of the camp.

45 [r]Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites which dwelt in that hill, and smote them and discomfited them, even unto [s]Hormah.

NOW [a]Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men:

2 And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, [b]famous in the congregation, men of renown:

3 And [c]they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, * Ye take too much upon you, seeing [d]all the congregation are holy, every one of them, [e]and the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD?

4 And when Moses heard it, [f]he fell upon his face:

5 And he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even to morrow the LORD will shew who are his, and who is [g]holy; and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath [h]chosen will he cause to [i]come near unto him.

6 This do; Take you censers, Korah, and all his company;

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the LORD to morrow: and it shall be that the man whom the LORD doth choose, he shall be holy: ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi.

8 And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi:

9 Seemeth it but [k]a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath [l]separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them?

10 And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also?

11 For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together against the LORD: [m]and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

12 ¶ And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: which said, We will not come up:

13 [n]Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou [o]make thyself altogether a prince over us?

14 Moreover thou hast not brought us into [p]a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou †put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, [q]Respect not thou their offering: [r]I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

16 And Moses said unto Korah, [s]Be thou and all thy company [t]before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, to morrow:

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censer.

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and [u]the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

21 [x]Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may [y]consume them in a moment.

22 And they [z]fell upon their faces, and said, O God, [a]the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, [b]Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of their's, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children.

28 And Moses said, [c]Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them [d]of mine own mind.

29 If these men die ‡the common death of all men, or if they be [e]visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hath not sent me.

30 But if the LORD §make [f]a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they [g]go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.

B. C. 1471.

31 ¶ [h]And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them:

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and [i]all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

33 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

35 And there [k]came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed [l]the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

36 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder; for [m]they are hallowed.

38 The censers of these [n]sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: [o]and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel.

39 And Eleazar the priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar:

40 To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, [p]that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the LORD; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 ¶ But on the morrow [q]all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD.

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, [r]the cloud covered it, and [s]the glory of the LORD appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 [t]Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And [u]they fell upon their faces.

46 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: [x]for there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun.

47 And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people.

48 And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed.

49 Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, beside them that died about the matter of Korah.

50 And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was stayed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Aaron's rod among all the rods of the tribes only flourisheth. 10 It is left for a monument against the rebels.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the house of their fathers twelve rods: write thou every man's name upon his rod.

3 And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi: for one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, [a]where I will meet with you.

5 And it shall come to pass, that the man's rod, [b]whom I shall choose, shall blossom: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, [c]whereby they murmur against you.

6 ¶ And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, and every one of their princes gave him * a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in [d]the tabernacle of witness.

8 And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring [e]Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept [f]for a token against the †rebels; [g]and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not.

11 And Moses did so: as the LORD commanded him, so did he.

12 And the children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The charge of the priests and Levites. 9 The priests' portion. 21 The Levites' portion. 25 The heave offering to the priests out of the Levites' portion.

AND the LORD said unto Aaron, [a] Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall [b] bear the iniquity of the sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.

2 And thy brethren also of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be [c] joined unto thee, and [d] minister unto thee: but [e] thou and thy sons with thee shall minister before the tabernacle of witness.

3 And they shall keep thy charge, and [f] the charge of all the tabernacle: [g] only they shall not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, [h] that neither they, nor ye also, die.

4 And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle: [i] and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you.

5 And ye shall keep [k] the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar: [l] that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Israel.

6 And I, behold, I have [m] taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel: [n] to you they are given as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 Therefore [o] thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your priest's office for every thing of the altar, and [p] within the vail; and ye shall serve: I have given your priest's office unto you as a service of gift: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Behold, [q] I also have given thee the charge of mine heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them [r] by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever.

9 This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of their's, every [s] meat offering of their's, and every [t] sin offering of their's, and every [u] trespass offering of their's, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons.

10 [x] In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee.

11 And this is thine; [y] the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto [z] thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: [a] every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.

B. C. 1471.

12 [b] All the * best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, [c] the first-fruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee.

13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, [d] which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine; [e] every one that is clean in thine house shall eat of it.

14 [f] Every thing devoted in Israel shall be thine.

15 Every thing that openeth [g] the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless [h] the firstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem, [i] according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, [k] which is twenty gerahs.

17 [l] But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy: [m] thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the [n] wave breast and as the right shoulder are thine.

19 [o] All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: [p] it is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

20 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: [q] I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 And, behold, [r] I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even [s] the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 [t] Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, [u] lest they bear sin, † and die.

23 [x] But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance.

24 [y] But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as an heave offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them,

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and [c] sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times:

[c] Lev. 4. 6. & 1. 14, 19. Heb. 9. 13.

5 And one shall burn the heifer in his sight; [d] her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn:

[d] Ex. 29. 14. Lev. 4. 11, 12.

6 And the priest shall take [e] cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

[e] Lev. 14. 4, 6, 49.

7 [f] Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

CHAP. XX.

1 The children of Israel come to Zin, where Miriam dieth. 2 They murmur for want of water. 7 Moses smiting the rock bringeth forth water at Meribah. 14 Moses at Kadesh desireth passage through Edom, which is denied him. 23 At mount Hor Aaron resigneth his place to Eleazar, and dieth.

THEN [a] came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month: and the people abode in Kadesh; and [b] Miriam died there, and was buried there.

2 [c] And there was no water for the congregation: [d] and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

3 And the people [e] chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God that we had died [f] when our brethren died before the LORD!

4 And [g] why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?

5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and [h] they fell upon their faces: and [i] the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.

7 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

8 [k] Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and [l] thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.

9 And Moses took the rod [m] from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, [n] Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock?

11 And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and [o] the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because [p] ye believed me not, to [q] sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

13 [r] This is the water of [*] Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them.

14 ¶ [s] And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, [t] Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the travel that hath [†] befallen us:

15 [u] How our fathers went down into Egypt, [v] and we have dwelt in Egypt a long time; [x] and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers:

16 And [y] when we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and [z] sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border:

17 [a] Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's high way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders.

18 And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the high way: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, [b] then I will pay for it: I will only, without doing any thing else, go through on my feet.

20 And he said, [c] Thou shalt not go through. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand.

21 Thus Edom [d] refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel [e] turned away from him.

22 ¶ And the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, journeyed from [f] Kadesh, [g] and came unto mount Hor.

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in mount Hor, by the coast of the land of Edom, saying,

24 Aaron shall be [h] gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because [i] ye rebelled against my ‡ word at the water of Meribah.

25 [k] Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up unto mount Hor:

26 And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son: and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the LORD commanded: and they went up into mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

28 [l] And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and [m] Aaron died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount.

29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron [n] thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

Ver. 26. Strip Aaron of his garments. By this he was deposed from the sacerdotal office, which was transferred to his son Eleazar.

Ver. 28. And Aaron died there. Hence, as Dr. Lightfoot has justly observed, "we have an indispensable proof that the earthly Canaan was not the utmost felicity at which God's promises to the Israelites aimed, since the best men among them were excluded from it."

AND [a] the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in the plains of Moab on this side Jordan by Jericho.

2 ¶ And [b] Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And [c] Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab said unto [d] the elders of Midian, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

5 [e] He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor to [f] Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover * the face of the earth, and they abide over against me:

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, [g] curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I wot that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with [h] the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said unto them, [i] Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak unto me: and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 [k] And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying,

11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse me them; peradventure † I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

12 And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for [l] they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with us.

15 ¶ And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, ‡ Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me:

17 For I will promote thee unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me: [m] come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, [n] If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, [o] I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD God, to do less or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, [p] tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me more.

20 [q] And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them; but [r] yet the word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 ¶ And God's anger was kindled because he went: [s] and the angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

23 And [t] the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way.

24 But the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

25 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

Ver. 28. The Lord opened the mouth of the ass.—It was the Lord's doing. The ass did not speak of itself, but the Lord caused it to speak miraculously, to the confusion of the wicked prophet.

Ver. 29. And Balaam said unto the ass.—The prophet was no doubt familiar with prodigies, and therefore probably felt no surprise at this supernatural occurrence, or he might have felt surprise without expressing it; but as Moses is silent upon the subject, all conjectures must be futile.

Ver. 40. Sent to Balaam.—"To feast upon the oxen and sheep which he had slain."—Bp. Patrick.

Ver. 41. The high places of Baal.—The eminences upon which adoration was offered to the Moabitish idol Baal.

CHAP. XXIII. Ver. 1. Seven altars.—"The number seven was observed among the Hebrews by God's order, but as we never read of more than one altar built by the patriarchs when they offered sacrifice, or more than one was allowed by Moses, it is probable that in Balaam's office there was something of heathen superstition. The sun, which is usually meant by Baal, being the object of the Moabitish worship, the god of Pethor offered also to all the seven planets."—Bp. Patrick.

Ver. 7. He took up his parable.—He delivered his prophecy.

Ver. 10. The dust of Jacob.—The posterity of Jacob.

Ver. 13. And shalt not see them all.—Imagining probably that the prophet had been alarmed at the sight of so numerous a host.

26 But Balaam answered and said unto Balak, Told not I thee, saying, [g]All that the LORD speaketh, that I must do?

27 ¶ And Balak said unto Balaam, [h]Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another place; peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from thence.

1 Balaam leaving divinations, prophesieth the happiness of Israel. 10 Balak in anger dismisseth him. 15 He prophesieth of the Star of Jacob, and the destruction of some nations.

AND when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not, as at [a]other times, [*]to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel [b]abiding in his tents according to their tribes; and [c]the Spirit of God came upon him.

3 [d]And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man [†]whose eyes are open hath said:

Ver. 21. He hath not beheld iniquity.—"The words which we translate iniquity and perverseness signify frequently in scripture the highest wickedness, namely, idolatry. So that the reason which Balaam gives why God had blessed and he could not curse them is because they were free from idolatry: unto which unless they could be seduced, there was no hope that God would deliver them into the power of their enemies. For which reason Balaam afterwards counselled Balak to entice them to this sin, as the only way to move God's anger against them."—Bp. Patrick.

Ver. 22. An unicorn.—Probably the rhinoceros, as no such animal as the unicorn has been yet discovered.

Ver. 23. Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob.—No enchantment can prevail against the posterity of Jacob. According to this time.—The time is now at hand when God shall do great things for Israel."—Bp. Hall.

Ver. 28. Unto the top of Peor.—Upon this hill was the celebrated temple of Baal-peor, in which the Moabites worshipped Baal with the most obscene rites.

CHAP. XXIV. Ver. 1. He went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments.—This is a difficult passage, and thus explained by Le Clerc: "He judged it superfluous to inquire further into the mind of God, as God had sufficiently declared his purpose to bless the Israelites."

Ver. 3. Whose eyes are open.—"It should rather be, Whose eyes were opened, which exactly agrees with the version of the Vulgate, approved by Clerc and Calmet, The man whose eyes were shut (formerly shut) but now opened; referring either to that part of the history in which we are told that the ass saw the angel, Balaam saw him not until the Lord opened his eyes; or to that more sublime intelligence with which God had now enlightened his understanding; the man whose eyes are opened to the wonderful knowledge of future things through God's Spirit."—Dr. Dodd.

Ver. 4. Falling into a trance, but having his eyes open.—"In the original there is no mention of a trance. The passage should be rendered, Falling, and his eyes were opened; alluding to what happened in the way—to Balaam's falling with his falling ass, and then having his eyes opened; chapter xxii. 27."—Bp. Newton.

Ver. 6. Lign aloes.—"This tree is described as being eight or ten feet high, with very large leaves growing at the top; and it is supposed that a forest of these trees at some distance must bear some resemblance to a numerous encampment."—Clarke's Commentary.

Ver. 7. He shall pour the water, &c.—"He shall have a plentiful and rich progeny; his issue shall spread over fruitful regions, and the kings that shall issue from his loins shall be more mighty than the most flourishing kings of the Amalekites."—Bp. Hall. Agag.—This name is supposed to have been common to all the Amalekite kings.

Ver. 11. The Lord hath kept thee back from honour.—which is thus paraphrased by Pyle: "The God you seem to be so great withal, has deprived you of the best post in my court, for the service you have done him."—A bitter sarcasm against Balaam and that God who had directed his prophecies.

Ver. 20. The first of the nations.—The most ancient of the neighbouring states.

Ver. 21. Thou puttest thy nest in a rock.—Thy habitations are among lofty mountains and inaccessible rocks. It is supposed that the Kenites were not one of the Canaanitish nations, but a tribe of the Midianites; Jethro, the father-in-law of Moses, as Bishop Newton observes, being called in one place "the priest of Midian," Exodus iii. 1, and in another, the Kenite, Judges i. 16.

Ver. 12, 13. My covenant of peace—even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood.—In these words are contained a promise of great blessings, temporal and spiritual, and the continuance of the priesthood in the family of Phinehas for many generations; the word everlasting not implying perpetuity, but only a long duration.

33 ¶ And [j] Zelophehad the son of Hepher had no sons, but daughters: and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

34 These are the families of Manasseh, and those that were numbered of them, fifty and two thousand and seven hundred.

35 ¶ These are the sons of Ephraim after their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthalhites: of [s] Becher, the family of the Bachrites: of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.

36 And these are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites.

37 These are the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those that were numbered of them, thirty and two thousand and five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph after their families.

38 ¶ [a] The sons of Benjamin after their families: of Bela, the family of the Belaites: of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites: of [b] Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites:

39 Of [c] Shupham, the family of the Shuphamites: of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites.

40 And the sons of Bela were [d] Ard and Naaman: of Ard, the family of the Ardites: and of Naaman, the family of the Naamites.

41 These are the sons of Benjamin after their families: and they that were numbered of them were forty and five thousand and six hundred.

42 ¶ [e] These are the sons of Dan after their families: of § Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan after their families.

43 All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those that were numbered of them, were threescore and four thousand and four hundred.

44 ¶ [f] Of the children of Asher after their families: of Jimna, the family of the Jimnites: of Jesui, the family of the Jesuites: of Beriah, the family of the Beriites.

45 Of the sons of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites: of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites.

46 And the name of the daughter of Asher was Sarah.

47 These are the families of the sons of Asher according to those that were numbered of them; who were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

48 ¶ [g] Of the sons of Naphtali after their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites: of Guni, the family of the Gunites:

49 Of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites: of [h] Shillem, the family of the Shillemites.

50 These are the families of Naphtali according to their families: and they that were numbered of them were forty and five thousand and four hundred.

51 [i] These were the numbered of the children of Israel, six hundred thousand and a thousand seven hundred and thirty.

52 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

53 [k] Unto these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names.

54 [l] To many thou shalt ‖ give the more inheritance, and to few thou shalt * give the less inheritance: to every one shall his inheritance be given according to those that were numbered of him.

55 Notwithstanding the land shall be [m] divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit.

56 According to the lot shall the possession thereof be divided between many and few.

57 ¶ [n] And these are they that were numbered of the Levites after their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites: of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites: of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

58 These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korathites. And Kohath begat Amram.

59 And the name of Amram's wife was [o] Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bare to Levi in Egypt: and she bare unto Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister.

60 [p] And unto Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

61 And [q] Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before the LORD.

62 [r] And those that were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand, all males from a month old and upward: * for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was [t] no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

63 ¶ These are they that were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel [u] in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

64 [x] But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

65 For the LORD had said of them, They [y] shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, [z] save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

THEN came the daughters of [a] Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh, the son of Joseph: and these are the names of his daughters; Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.

Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

3 Our father [b] died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of them that gathered themselves together against the LORD [c] in the company of Korah; but died in his own sin, and had no sons.

4 Why should the name of our father be [*] done away from among his family, because he hath no son? [d] Give unto us therefore a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 And Moses [e] brought their cause before the LORD.

6 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: [f] thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them.

8 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter.

9 And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

10 And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

11 And if his father have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel [g] a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [h] Get thee up into this mount Abarim, and see the land which I have given unto the children of Israel.

13 And when thou hast seen it, thou also [i] shalt be gathered unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

14 For ye [k] rebelled against my commandment in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the water before their eyes: that is the [l] water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

15 ¶ And Moses spake unto the LORD, saying,

16 Let the LORD, [m] the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation,

17 [n] Which may go out before them, and which may go in before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD be not [o] as sheep which have no shepherd.

18 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, a man [p] in whom is the spirit, and [q] lay thine hand upon him;

19 And set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and [r] give him a charge in their sight.

20 And [s] thou shalt put some of thine honour upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel [t] may be obedient.

21 [u] And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask counsel for him [x] after the judgment of Urim before the LORD: [y] at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation.

22 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him: and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation:

23 And he laid his hands upon him, [z] and gave him a charge, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Offerings are to be observed. 3 The continual burnt offering. 9 The offering on the sabbath, 11 on the new moons, 16 at the passover, 26 in the day of first fruits.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My offering, and [a] my bread for my sacrifices made by fire, for [*] a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season.

3 And thou shalt say unto them, [b] This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot [†] day by day, for a continual burnt offering.

4 The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer [‡] at even;

5 And [c] a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a [d] meat offering, mingled with the fourth part of an [e] hin of beaten oil.

6 It is [f] a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 And the drink offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: [g] in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink offering.

8 And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the meat offering of the morning, and as the drink offering thereof, thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and the drink offering thereof:

10 This is [b] the burnt offering of every sabbath, beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

11 ¶ And [i] in the beginnings of your months ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot;

12 And [k] three tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, for one ram;

13 And a several tenth deal of flour mingled with oil for a meat offering unto one lamb; for a burnt offering of a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

14 And their drink offerings shall be half an hin of wine unto a bullock, and the third part of an hin unto a ram, and a fourth part of an hin unto a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year.

15 And [l] one kid of the goats for a sin offering unto the LORD shall be offered, beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

16 [m] And in the fourteenth day of the first month is the passover of the LORD.

17 [n] And in the fifteenth day of this month is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

18 In the [o] first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein:

19 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: [p] they shall be unto you without blemish:

20 And their meat offering shall be of flour mingled with oil: three tenth deals shall ye offer for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram;

21 A several tenth deal shalt thou offer for every lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

22 And [q] one goat for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you.

23 Ye shall offer these beside the burnt offering in the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.

24 After this manner ye shall offer daily, throughout the seven days, the meat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: it shall be offered beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

25 And [r] on the seventh day ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work.

26 ¶ Also [s] in the day of the firstfruits, when ye bring a new meat offering unto the LORD, after your weeks be out, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work:

27 But ye shall offer the burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; [t] two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year;

28 And their meat offering of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto one bullock, two tenth deals unto one ram,

29 A several tenth deal unto one lamb, throughout the seven lambs;

30 And one kid of the goats, to make an atonement for you.

31 Ye shall offer them beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, (u they shall be unto you without blemish) and their drink offerings.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 The offering at the feast of trumpets, 7 at the day of afflicting their souls, 13 and on the eight days of the feast of tabernacles.

AND in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: [a] it is a day of blowing the trumpets unto you.

2 And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

3 And their meat offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram,

4 And one tenth deal for one lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

5 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you:

6 Beside [b] the burnt offering of the month, and his meat offering, and [c] the daily burnt offering, and his meat offering, and their drink offerings, [d] according unto their manner, for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 ¶ And [e] ye shall have on the tenth day of this seventh month an holy convocation; and ye shall [f] afflict your souls: ye shall not do any work therein:

8 But ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD for a sweet savour; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year; [g] they shall be unto you without blemish:

9 And their meat offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals to a bullock, and two tenth deals to one ram,

10 A several tenth deal for one lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

11 One kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside [h] the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering, and the meat offering of it, and their drink offerings.

12 ¶ And [i] on the fifteenth day of the seventh month ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work, and ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days:

13 And [k] ye shall offer a burnt offering,

33 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

34 And one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering.

35 ¶ On the eighth day ye shall have a [n] solemn assembly: ye shall do no servile work therein:

36 But ye shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: one bullock, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

37 Their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

38 And one goat for a sin offering, beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.

39 These things ye shall [*] do unto the LORD in your [o] set feasts, beside your [p] vows, and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meat offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.

3 And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and the suburbs of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts.

4 And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits round about.

5 And ye shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.

6 And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites there shall be [b] six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither: and [*] to them ye shall add forty and two cities.

7 So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall be [c] forty and eight cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.

8 And the cities which ye shall give shall be [d] of the possession of the children of Israel: [e] from them that have many ye shall give many; but from them that have few ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites according to his inheritance which [†] he inheriteth.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

DEUTERONOMY. "The fifth and last book of the Pentateuch, is called Deuteronomy, a word composed of two Greek words, signifying a repetition of the law. It contains, indeed, a compendious repetition of the law, enlarged with many explanatory additions, and enforced by the strongest and most pathetic exhortations to obedience; as well for the more forcible impression on the Israelites in general, as in particular for the benefit of those who, being born in the wilderness, were not present at the first promulgation of the law. It is a kind of manual of Divine wisdom; a commentary on the Decalogue; and contains such laws as concerned the people in general, as to their civil, military and religious government, omitting for the most part what related to the Priests and Levites. It was delivered by Moses, a little before his death, to the people whom he had long governed and instructed; and it was bequeathed, with his other writings, to the

The history is continued about seven days after the death of Moses; for he began to deliver his first discourse to the people in the plains of Moab, the first day of the eleventh month of the fortieth year, chap. i. 3, and died on the first day of the twelfth month of the same year, aged a hundred and twenty years."—Dr. Adam Clarke.

33 [f]Who went in the way before you, [m]to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.

34 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, [n]and sware, saying,

35 [o]Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers,

36 [p]Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because [q]he hath ‡ wholly followed the LORD.

37 [r]Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither.

38 [s]But Joshua the son of Nun, [t]which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: [u]encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 [x]Moreover your little ones, which [y]ye said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day [z]had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 [a]But as for you, turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.

41 Then ye answered and said unto me, [b]We have sinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill.

42 And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, [c]Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and § [d]went presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Amorites, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, [e]as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah.

45 And ye returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you.

46 [f]So ye abode in Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

CHAP. II.

1 The story is continued, that they were not to meddle with the Edomites, 9 nor with the Moabites, 17 nor with the Ammonites, 24 but Sihon the Amorite was subdued by them.

THEN we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea, [a]as the LORD spake unto me: and we compassed mount Seir many days.

2 And the LORD spake unto me, saying,

3 Ye have compassed this mountain [b]long enough: turn you northward.

4 And command thou the people, saying, [c]Ye are to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore:

5 Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, [d]no, not so much as a foot breadth; [e]because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession.

6 Ye shall buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.

7 For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: [f]these forty years the LORD thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.

8 [g]And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plain from [h]Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 And the LORD said unto me, † Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because [i]Ar unto [k]the children of Lot for a possession.

10 [l]The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as [m]the Anakims;

11 Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites call them Emims.

12 [n]The Horims also dwelt in Seir beforetime; but the children of Esau ‡ succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their § stead; as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.

13 Now rise up, said I, and get you over [o]the ‖ brook Zered. And we went over the brook Zered.

14 And the space in which we came [p]from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; [q]until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, [r]as the LORD sware unto them.

15 For indeed the [s]hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed.

16 ¶ So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people,

17 That the LORD spake unto me, saying,

Ver. 44. And chased you, as bees do.—In vast multitudes.

A. C. 1451.

18 Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day:

19 And when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto [s]the children of Lot for a possession.

20 (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in old time; and the Ammonites call them [t]Zamzummims;

21 [u]A people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead:

22 As he did to the children of Esau, [x]which dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed [y]the Horims from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day:

23 And [z]the Avims which dwelt in Hazerim, even unto [a]Azzah, [b]the Caphtorims, which came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.)

24 ¶ Rise ye up, take your journey, and [c]pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into thine hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: [*]begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle.

25 [d]This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee.

26 ¶ And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon [e]with words of peace, saying,

27 [f]Let me pass through thy land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: [g]only I will pass through on my feet;

29 ([h]As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, [i]did unto me;) until I shall pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God giveth us.

30 [j]But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for [k]the LORD thy God [l]hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day.

31 And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to [m]give Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land.

32 [n]Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz.

33 And [o]the LORD our God delivered him before us; and [p]we smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities at that time, and [q]utterly destroyed †the men, and the women, and the little ones, of every city, we left none to remain:

35 Only the cattle we took for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took.

36 [r]From Aroer, which is by the brink of the river of Arnon, and from the city that is by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: [s]the LORD our God delivered all unto us:

37 Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto any place of the river [t]Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, nor unto [u]whatsoever the LORD our God forbad us.

THEN we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and [a]Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle [b]at Edrei.

2 And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto [c]Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

3 So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: [d]and we smote him until none was left to him remaining.

4 And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities, [e]all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside unwalled towns a great many.

6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king [f]of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city.

7 But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.

8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon;

9 (Which [g]Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion; and the Amorites call it [h]Shenir;)

10 [i]All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and [k]all Bashan, unto Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 [l]For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of [m]giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in [n] Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

12 And this land, which we possessed at that time, [o] from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and [p] the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites.

13 [q] And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants.

14 [r] Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob [s] unto the coasts of Geshuri and Maachathi; and [t] called them after his own name, Bashan-havoth-jair, unto this day.

15 [u] And I gave Gilead unto Machir.

16 And unto the Reubenites [w] and unto the Gadites I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon half the valley, and the border even unto the river Jabbok, [x] which is the border of the children of Ammon;

17 The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast thereof, from [y] Chinnereth [z] even unto the sea of the plain, [a] even the salt sea, ‡ under Ashdoth-pisgah eastward.

18 ¶ And I commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it: [b] ye shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are § meet for the war.

19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you;

20 Until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and then shall ye [c] return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

21 ¶ And [d] I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for [e] the LORD your God he shall fight for you.

23 And [f] I besought the LORD at that time, saying,

24 O Lord GOD, thou hast begun to shew thy servant [g] thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for [h] what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?

25 I pray thee, let me go over, and see [i] the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.

26 But the LORD [k] was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter.

27 [l] Get thee up into the top of ‖ Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

28 But [m] charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.

29 So we abode in [n] the valley over against Beth-peor.

CHAP. IV.

1 An exhortation to obedience. 41 Moses appointeth the three cities of refuge on this side Jordan.

NOW therefore hearken, O Israel, unto [a] the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you.

2 [b] Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of [c] Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you.

4 But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them; for this is [d] your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For [e] what nation is there so great, who hath [f] God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and [g] keep thy soul diligently, [h] lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but [i] teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons;

the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the [t]mountain burned with fire unto the [*]midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness.

12 [u]And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: [n]ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; [o]† only ye heard a voice.

13 [p]And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even [q]ten commandments; and [r]he wrote them upon two tables of stone.

14 ¶ And [s]the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

15 [t]Take ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; for ye saw no manner of [u]similitude on the day that the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire:

16 Lest ye [x]corrupt yourselves, and [y]make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, [z]the likeness of male or female,

17 The likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the air,

18 The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou [a] lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even [b]all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to [c]worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath ‡ divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

20 But the LORD hath taken you, and [d]brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, [e]to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day.

21 Futhermore [f]the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance:

22 But [g]I must die in this land, [h]I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess [i]that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, [k]lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, [l]and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.

24 For [m]the LORD thy God is a consuming fire, even [n]a jealous God.

25 ¶ When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and ye shall have remained long in the land, and [o]shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and [p]shall do evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger:

26 [q]I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the LORD [r]shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you.

28 And [s]there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, [t]which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 [u]But if from thence thou shalt seek the LORD thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things § are come upon thee, [x]even in the latter days, if thou [y]turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice;

31 (For the LORD thy God is [z]a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he sware unto them.

32 For [a]ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask [b]from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been heard like it?

33 [c]Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live?

34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, [d]by temptations, [e]by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and [f]by a mighty hand, and [g]by a stretched out arm, [h]and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that the LORD he is God; [i]there is none else beside him.

36 [k]Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he shewed thee his great fire; and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire.

39 Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that [o] the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

40 [p] Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, [q] that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.

41 ¶ Then Moses [r] severed three cities on this side Jordan toward the sun rising;

42 [s] That the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbour unawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might live:

43 Namely, [t] Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.

44 ¶ And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel:

45 These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt,

46 On this side Jordan, [u] in the valley over against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel [x] smote, after they were come forth out of Egypt:

CHAP. V.

1 The covenant in Horeb. 6 The ten commandments. 22 At the people's request Moses receiveth the law from God.

AND Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and * keep, and do them.

2 [a] The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

3 The LORD [b] made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.

4 [c] The LORD talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire,

5 ([d] I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to shew you the word of the LORD: for [e] ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying,

6 ¶ [f] I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of † bondage.

7 [g] Thou shalt have none other gods before me.

8 [h] Thou shalt not make thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth:

9 Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, [i] visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me,

10 [k] And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

11 [l] Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

12 [m] Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee.

13 [n] Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work:

14 But the seventh day is the [o] sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; that thy manservant, and thy maidservant may rest as well as thou.

15 [p] And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God brought thee out thence [q] through a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD thy God commanded thee to keep the sabbath day.

16 ¶ [r] Honour thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee; [s] that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

17 [t] Thou shalt not kill.

18 [u] Neither shalt thou commit adultery.

19 [x] Neither shalt thou steal.

20 [y] Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour.

21 [z] Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is thy neighbour's.

22 ¶ These words the LORD spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and he added no more. And [a] he wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me.

the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that ye came near unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders;

24 And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath shewed us his glory and his greatness, and [c]we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he [d]liveth.

25 Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: [e]if we ‡hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die.

26 [f]For who is there of all flesh, that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

27 Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say: and [g]speak thou unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it.

28 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me; and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: [h]they have well said all that they have spoken.

29 [i]O that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and [k]keep all my commandments always, [l]that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!

30 Go say to them, Get you into your tents again.

31 But as for thee, stand thou here by me, [m]and I will speak unto thee all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.

32 Ye shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: [n]ye shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

33 Ye shall walk in [o]all the ways which the LORD your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, [p]and that it may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess.

CHAP. VI.

1 The end of the law is obedience. 3 An exhortation thereto.

NOW these are [a]the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye [*]go to possess it:

2 [b]That thou mightest fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; [c]and that thy days may be prolonged.

3 ¶ Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it; that it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, [d]as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in [e]the land that floweth with milk and honey.

4 [f]Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD:

5 And [g]thou shalt love the LORD thy God [h]with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

6 And [i]these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:

7 And [k]thou shalt †teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

8 [l]And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

9 [m]And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

10 And it shall be, when the LORD thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, [n]which thou buildedst not,

11 And houses full of all good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not; [o]when thou shalt have eaten and be full;

12 Then beware lest thou forget the LORD, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of ‡bondage.

13 Thou shalt [p]fear the LORD thy God, and serve him, and [q]shalt swear by his name.

14 Ye shall not [r]go after other gods, [s]of the gods of the people which are round about you;

15 (For [t]the LORD thy God is a jealous God among you) [u]lest the anger of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth.

16 ¶ [x]Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God, [y]as ye tempted him in Massah.

17 Ye shall [z]diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he hath commanded thee.

18 And thou [a]shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, 19 [b]To cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the LORD hath spoken.

Ver. 32. Ye shall not turn aside.—"A phrase signifying their strict observance of God's laws, and stedfast persisting in the path of their duty. It is a metaphor taken from a traveller, who, being set in the right way, ought not to deviate from it."—Dr. Dodd.

Ver. 4. The Lord our God is one Lord.—This solemn declaration of there being but one supreme, self-existing, universal and everlasting God, struck at once at the root of idolatry, in which divinities were multiplied without number.

Ver. 8. Thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, &c. That is, thou shalt make them as familiar to them as if they were written upon their arms, or foreheads, upon the posts of their houses or upon their gates. Hence was derived the practice of wearing phylacteries among the Jews.

Ver. 13. Shalt swear by his name.—When thou takest an oath, it shall be by a solemn appeal to God.

An exhortation to obedience in regard of God's dealing with them.

ALL the commandments which I command thee this day [a]shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God [b]led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and [c]to prove thee, [d]to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled thee, and [e]suffered thee to hunger, and [f]fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth [g]not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.

4 [h]Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years.

5 [i]Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, [k]to walk in his ways, and to fear him.

7 For the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a good land, [l]a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land [o]of oil olive, and honey;

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land [m]whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass. B. C. 1451.

10 [n]When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the LORD thy God, for the good land which he hath given thee. n ch. 6. 11, 12.

11 Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day:

Moses dissuadeth them from the opinion of their own righteousness, by rehearsing their several rebellions.

that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land: but [k] for the wickedness of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee.

[k] Gen. 15. 16. Lev. 18. 21, 25. ch. 18. 12.

5 [l] Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform [m] the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art [n] a stiffnecked people.

[n] ver. 13. Ex. 32. 9. & 33. 3. & 34. 9.

7 ¶ Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: [o] from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD.

9 [q] When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then [r] I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

[q] Ex. 24. 12, 18

[r] Ex. 24. 18. & 34. 28.

10 [s] And the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire [t] in the day of the assembly.

[t] Ex. 19. 17 & 20. 1. ch. 4. 10. & 10. 4. & 18. 16

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

12 And the LORD said unto me, [u] Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are [x] quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I [g] fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

[g] Ex. 34. 28 Ps. 106. 23

19 [h] For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. [i] But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And [k] I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

Frequent mention is made of this simple diet in the holy Scriptures; where the flesh of animals, though it may be sometimes included in the eating of bread, or making a meal, is not often recorded."—Dr. Shaw.—See Travels, vol. 1. page 230.

Ver. 14. Let me alone, that I may destroy them.—"The awful menace of God, to destroy the Jews and raise from Moses a nation mightier and greater than they, is here introduced with great propriety. For nothing more to inculcate deeply the humiliating but necessary truth of our own unworthiness, than to state to them that the greatness of their rebellion had almost induced that God, in whom they trusted, totally to disherit and destroy them, and raise up another nation in their place."—Dr. Graves

CHAP. X.

1 God's mercy in restoring the two tables, 6 in continuing the priesthood, 8 in separating the tribe of Levi, 10 in hearkening unto Moses his suit for the people. 12 An exhortation unto obedience.

AT that time the LORD said unto me, [a]Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and [b]make thee an ark of wood.

2 And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and [c]thou shalt put them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of [d]shittim wood, and [e]hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, having the two tables in mine hand.

4 And [f]he wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten *commandments, [g]which the LORD spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire [h]in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.

5 And I turned myself and [i]came down from the mount, and [k]put the tables in the ark which I had made; [l]and there they be, as the LORD commanded me.

6 ¶ And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth [m]of the children of Jaakan to [n]Mosera: [o]there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead.

7 [p]From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.

8 ¶ At that time [q]the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, [r]to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, [s]to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and [t]to bless in his name, unto this day.

9 [u]Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him.

10 And [x]I stayed in the mount, according to the †first time, forty days and forty nights; and [y]the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy thee.

11 [z]And the LORD said unto me, Arise, ‡take thy journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give unto them.

12 ¶ And now, Israel, [a]what doth the LORD thy God require of thee, but [b]to fear the LORD thy God, [c]to walk in all his ways, and [d]to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul,

13 To keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command thee this day [e]for thy good?

14 Behold, [f]the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the LORD's thy God, [g]the earth also, with all that therein is.

15 [h]Only the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

16 Circumcise therefore [i]the foreskin of your heart, and be no more [k]stiffnecked.

17 For the LORD your God is [l]God of gods, and [m]Lord of lords, a great God, [n]a mighty, and a terrible, which [o]regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward:

18 [p]He doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.

19 [q]Love ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20 [r]Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou [s]cleave, [t]and swear by his name.

21 [u]He is thy praise, and he is thy God, [x]that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes have seen.

22 Thy fathers went down into Egypt [y]with threescore and ten persons; and now the LORD thy God hath made thee [z]as the stars of heaven for multitude.

CHAP. XI.

1 An exhortation to obedience, 2 by their own experience of God's great works, 8 by promise of God's great blessings, 16 and by threatenings. 18 A careful study is required in God's words. 26 The blessing and curse is set before them.

THEREFORE thou shalt [a]love the LORD thy God, and [b]keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, alway.

2 And know ye this day: for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen [c]the chastisement of the LORD your God, [d]his greatness, [e]his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm,

3 [f]And his miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

4 And what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; [g]how he made the water of the Red sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD hath destroyed them unto this day;

5 And what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place;

6 And [h]what he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the *substance that †was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel:

7 But [i]your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did.

8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that ye may [k]be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither ye go to possess it;

9 And [l]that ye may prolong your days in the land, [m] which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, [n] a land that floweth with milk and honey.

B. C. 1451.

10 ¶ For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, [o] where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 [p] But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven:

12 A land which the LORD thy God ‡ careth for: [q] the eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

13 ¶ And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken [r] diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, [s] to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,

14 That [t] I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, [u] the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.

15 [x] And I will § send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest [y] eat and be full.

16 Take heed to yourselves, [z] that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and [a] serve other gods, and worship them;

17 And then [b] the LORD's wrath be kindled against you, and he [c] shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest [d] ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you.

18 ¶ Therefore [e] shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and [f] bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.

19 [g] And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

20 [h] And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates:

21 That [i] your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, [k] as the days of heaven upon the earth.

22 ¶ For if [l] ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and [m] to cleave unto him;

23 Then will the LORD [n] drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall [o] possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves.

24 [p] Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be your's: [q] from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea shall your coast be.

25 [r] There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall [s] lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, [t] as he hath said unto you.

26 ¶ [u] Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse;

27 [x] A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day:

28 And a [y] curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.

29 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put [z] the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Ebal.

30 Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the champaign over against Gilgal, [a] beside the plains of Moreh?

31 [b] For ye shall pass over Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein.

32 And ye shall observe [c] to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

CHAP. XII.

1 Monuments of idolatry are to be destroyed. 5 The place of God's service is to be kept. 15, 23 Blood is forbidden. 17, 20, 26 Holy things must be eaten in the holy place. 19 The Levite not to be forsaken. 29 Idolatry is not to be inquired after.

THESE are [a] the statutes and judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, [b] all the days that ye live upon the earth.

2 [c] Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall [*] possess served their gods, [d] upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree:

3 And [e] ye shall † overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place.

CHAP. XII. Ver. 10. And wateredst it with thy foot.—"To water a large garden requires three men, one of whom stands on a lever near the well, which has a rope and a bucket attached to it. On this lever he moves backward or forward, as the bucket has to ascend or descend. Another person stands on the ground near the well, to pour the water into a basin. From this a channel, of about eight inches deep and nine broad, runs through the garden; and connected with it are smaller water-courses, which go to the different beds and shrubs. The business of the third person, then, is to convey the water to its destined place, which he does by stopping the mouth of each course, where sufficient water has been directed, with a little earth; so that it flows to the next course, till the whole is watered. On these herbs or shrubs, which require an extra quantity, he dashes the water pitcher with his foot."—Robert's Oriental Illustrations.

Ver. 19. Speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, &c.—"When a heathen sits down he makes mention of the name of his God. The worshippers of Siva say, when they sit down, 'Siva, Siva,' and when they rise they repeat the same name. At night when they retire to rest, when they rise in the morning, or when they stumble in the way they say, 'Siva, Siva.' They have a proverb to the same purport—'when I walk in the way, I know only to mention thy holy name.'" Ward's Illustrations.

B. C. 1451.

4 [f]Ye shall not do so unto the LORD your God.

5 But unto the place which the LORD your God shall [g]choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come:

6 And [h]thither ye shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your [i]tithes, and heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks:

7 And [k]there ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and [l]ye shall rejoice in all that ye put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the LORD thy God hath blessed thee.

8 Ye shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, [m]every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes.

9 For ye are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD your God giveth you.

10 But when [n]ye go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God giveth you to inherit, and when he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety;

11 Then there shall be [o]a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all ‡your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD:

12 And [p]ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your maidservants, and the Levite that is within your gates; forasmuch as [q]he hath no part nor inheritance with you.

13 [r]Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every place that thou seest:

14 [s]But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee.

15 Notwithstanding [t]thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee: [u]the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, [x]as of the roebuck, and as of the hart.

16 [y]Only ye shall not eat the blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water.

17 ¶ Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the tithe of thy corn, or of thy wine, or of thy oil, or the firstlings of thy herds or of thy flock, nor any of thy vows which thou vowest, nor thy freewill offerings, or heave offering of thine hand:

18 [z]But thou must eat them before the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God in all that thou puttest thine hands unto.

19 [a]Take heed to thyself that thou forsake not the Levite § as long as thou livest upon the earth.

20 ¶ When the LORD thy God shall enlarge thy border, [b]as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, because thy soul longeth to eat flesh; thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

21 If the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to put his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy herd and of thy flock, which the LORD hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

22 [c]Even as the roebuck and the hart is eaten, so thou shalt eat them: the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike.

23 [d]Only ‖ be sure that thou eat not the blood: [e]for the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it; [f]that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, [g]when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

26 Only thy [h]holy things which thou hast, and [i]thy vows, thou shalt take, and go unto the place which the LORD shall choose:

27 And [k]thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the LORD thy God: and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the LORD thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh.

28 Observe and hear all these words which I command thee, [l]that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the LORD thy God.

29 ¶ When [m]the LORD thy God shall cut off the nations from before thee, whither thou goest to possess them, and thou * succeedest them, and dwellest in their land;

30 Take heed to thyself [n]that thou be not snared † by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou enquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise.

31 [o]Thou shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God: for every ‡ abomination to the LORD, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for [p]even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods.

32 What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: [q] thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Enticers to idolatry, 6 how near soever unto thee, 9 are to be stoned to death. 12 Idolatrous cities are not to be spared.

IF there arise among you a prophet, or a [a] dreamer of dreams, [b] and giveth thee a sign or a wonder,

2 And [c] the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them;

3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God [d] proveth you, to know whether ye love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

4 Ye shall [e] walk after the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him, and [f] cleave unto him.

5 And [g] that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath * spoken to turn you away from the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the LORD thy God commanded thee to walk in. [h] So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee.

6 ¶ [i] If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or [k] the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, [l] which is as thine own soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers;

7 Namely, of the gods of the people which are round about you, nigh unto thee, or far off from thee, from the one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth;

8 Thou shalt [m] not consent unto him, nor hearken unto him; neither shall thine eye pity him, neither shalt thou spare, neither shalt thou conceal him:

9 But [n] thou shalt surely kill him; [o] thine hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

10 And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die; because he hath sought to thrust thee away from the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of † bondage.

11 And [p] all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is among you.

12 ¶ [q] If thou shalt hear say in one of thy cities, which the LORD thy God hath given thee to dwell there, saying,

13 Certain men, ‡ the children of Belial, [r] are gone out from among you, and have [s] withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, [t] Let us go and serve other gods, which ye have not known;

14 Then shalt thou enquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought among you;

15 Thou shalt surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, [u] destroying it utterly, and all that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the edge of the sword.

16 And thou shalt gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street thereof, and shalt [x] burn with fire the city, and all the spoil thereof every whit, for the LORD thy God: and it shall be [y] an heap for ever; it shall not be built again.

17 And [z] there shall cleave nought of the § cursed thing to thine hand: that the LORD may [a] turn from the fierceness of his anger, and shew thee mercy, and have compassion upon thee, and multiply thee, [b] as he hath sworn unto thy fathers;

18 When thou shalt hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, [c] to keep all his commandments which I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD thy God.

CHAP. XIV.

1 God's children are not to disfigure themselves in mourning. 3 What may, and what may not be eaten, 4 of beasts, 9 of fishes, 11 of fowls. 21 That which dieth of itself may not be eaten. 22 Tithes of divine service. 23 Tithes and firstlings of rejoicing before the Lord. 28 The third year's tithe of alms and charity.

YE are [a] the children of the LORD your God: [b] ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead.

2 [c] For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth.

3 ¶ [d] Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing.

4 [e] These are the beasts which ye shall eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat,

5 The hart, and the roebuck, and the fallow deer, and the wild goat, and the * † pygarg, and the wild ox, and the chamois.

6 And every beast that parteth the hoof, and cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that ye shall eat.

7 Nevertheless these ye shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof; as the camel, and the hare, and the coney: for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they are unclean unto you.

8 And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean

9 ¶ [g] These ye shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales shall ye eat:

10 And whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye may not eat; it is unclean unto you.

11 ¶ Of all clean birds ye shall eat.

12 [h] But these are they of which ye shall not eat: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

13 And the glede, and the kite, and the vulture after his kind,

18 And the stork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

19 And [i] every creeping thing that flieth is unclean unto you: [k] they shall not be eaten.

20 But of all clean fowls ye may eat.

21 ¶ [l] Ye shall not eat of any thing that dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien: [m] for thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God. [n] Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

22 [o] Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year by year.

23 [p] And thou shalt eat before the LORD thy God, in the place which he shall choose to place his name there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and [q] the firstlings of thy herds and of thy flocks; that thou mayest learn to fear the LORD thy God always.

29 [y] And the Levite, (because [z] he hath no part nor inheritance with thee,) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which are within thy gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that [a] the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doest.

1 The seventh year a year of release for the poor. 7 It must be no let of lending or giving. 12 An Hebrew servant, 16 except he will not depart, must in the seventh year go forth free and well furnished. 19 All firstling males of the cattle are to be sanctified unto the Lord.

AT the end of [a] every seven years thou shalt make a release.

2 And this is the manner of the release: Every * creditor that lendeth ought unto his neighbour shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the LORD's release.

3 [b] Of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release;

4 † Save when there shall be no poor among you; [c] for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it:

5 Only [d] if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day.

6 For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and [e] thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and [f] thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.

7 ¶ If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, [g] thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother:

8 [h] But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

9 Beware that there be not a ‡ thought in thy § wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine [i] eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and [k] he cry unto the LORD against thee, and [l] it be sin unto thee.

10 Thou shalt surely give him, and [m] thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that [n] for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

11 For [o] the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.

12 ¶ And [p] if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:

[y] according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee.

18 ¶ [z] Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment.

19 [a] Thou shalt not wrest judgment; [b] thou shalt not respect persons, [c] neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the * words of the righteous.

20 † That which is altogether just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest [d] live, and inherit the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

21 ¶ [e] Thou shalt not plant thee a grove of any trees near unto the altar of the LORD thy God, which thou shalt make thee.

22 [f] Neither shalt thou set thee up any ‡ image; which the LORD thy God hateth.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The things sacrificed must be sound. 2 Idolaters must be slain. 8 Hard controversies are to be determined by the priests and judges. 12 The contemner of that determination must die. 14 The election, 16 and duty, of a king.

THOU [a] shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock, or * sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evilfavouredness: for that is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

2 ¶ [b] If there be found among you, within any of thy gates which the LORD thy God giveth thee, man or woman, that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the LORD thy God, [c] in transgressing his covenant,

3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either [d] the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, [e] which I have not commanded;

4 [f] And it be told thee, and thou hast heard of it, and enquired diligently, and, behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel:

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, and [g] shalt stone them with stones, till they die.

6 [h] At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.

7 [i] The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So [k] thou shalt put the evil away from among you.

8 ¶ [l] If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, [m] between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, [n] and get thee up into the place which the LORD thy God shall choose;

9 And [o] thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and [p] unto the judge that shall be in those days, and enquire; [q] and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgment:

10 And thou shalt do according to the sentence, which they of that place which the LORD shall choose shall shew thee; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee:

11 According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand, nor to the left.

12 And [r] the man that will do presumptuously, † and will not hearken unto the priest [s] that standeth to minister there before the LORD thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and [t] thou shalt put away the evil from Israel.

13 [u] And all the people shall hear and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

14 ¶ When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, [x] I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me;

15 Thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee, [y] whom the LORD thy God shall choose: one [z] from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

16 But he shall not multiply [a] horses to himself, nor cause the people [b] to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as [c] the LORD hath said unto you, [d] Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.

17 Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that [e] his heart turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

18 [f] And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book out of [g] that which is before the priests the Levites:

19 And [h] it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them:

20 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he [i] turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

1 The Lord is the priests' and Levites' inheritance. 3 The priest's due. 6 The Levite's portion. 9 The abominations of the nations are to be avoided. 15 Christ the Prophet is to be heard. 20 The presumptuous prophet is to die.

THE priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, [a] shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they [b] shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance.

2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the LORD is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

3 ¶ And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and [c] they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.

4 [d] The firstfruit also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him.

5 For [e] the LORD thy God hath chosen him out all thy tribes, [f] to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

6 ¶ And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where he [g] sojourned, and come with all the desire of his mind [h] unto the place which the LORD shall choose;

7 Then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, [i] as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there before the LORD.

8 They shall have like [k] portions to eat, beside * that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

9 ¶ When thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, [l] thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations.

10 There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter [m] to pass through the fire, [n] or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch,

11 [o] Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a [p] necromancer.

12 For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and [q] because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

13 Thou shalt be † perfect with the LORD thy God.

14 For these nations, which thou shalt ‡ possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath not suffered thee so to do.

15 ¶ [r] The LORD thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken;

16 According to all that thou desiredst of the LORD thy God in Horeb [s] in the day of the assembly, saying, [t] Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not.

17 And the LORD said unto me, [u] They have well spoken that which they have spoken.

18 [x] I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and [y] will put my words in his mouth; [z] and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.

19 [a] And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him.

20 But [b] the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or [c] that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken?

22 [d] When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, [e] if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it [f] presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him.

WHEN the LORD thy God [a] hath cut off the nations, whose land the LORD thy God giveth thee, and thou * succeedest them, and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses;

2 [b] Thou shalt separate three cities for thee in the midst of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

3 Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and divide the coasts of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

4 ¶ And [c] this is the case of the slayer, which shall flee thither, that he may live: Whoso killeth his neighbour ignorantly, whom he hated not † in time past;

5 As when a man goeth into the wood with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the ax to cut down the tree, and the ‡ head slippeth from the § helve, and ‖ lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live:

6 [d] Lest the avenger of the blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and * slay him; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not † in time past.

7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee.

CHAP. XIX. Ver. 14 Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's land mark.—As these landmarks consisted of stones, or of some object easily replaced, the injunction was necessary, in order to prevent perpetual dissensions, and probably frequent bloodshed, among the owners of neighbouring estates.

Ver. 21. Life shall go for life, &c.—From this verse it appears that the strictest retaliation for personal injury was enforced by the Mosaic law. This was done rather as a preventive than a remedial measure, the dread of such retaliation tending to prevent the civil transgression.

CHAP. XX. Ver. 5. Hath built a new house.—"Some think that this was not a precept, but a bare concession to such persons; who, if they could overcome their affection to all things but the safety of their country, might remain in the camp and go to battle. Hath not dedicated it—means, hath not dwelt in it: for, on their first entrance into a house to dwell in it, they made a feast which they called dedication." —Bishop Patrick.

16 But [l] of the cities of these people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth:

17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them; namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That [m] they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye [n] sin against the LORD your God.

19 ¶ When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an ax against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down († for the tree of the field is man's life) ‡ to employ them in the siege:

20 Only the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until § it be subdued.

IF one be found slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him:

2 Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain:

3 And it shall be that the city which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take an heifer, which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke;

4 And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley:

5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for [a] them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and [b] by their * word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried:

6 And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man, [c] shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

13 And she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thine house, and [f] bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife.

14 And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go whither she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make merchandise of her, because thou hast [g] humbled her.

15 ¶ If a man have two wives, one beloved, [h] and another hated, and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be her's that was hated:

16 Then it shall be, [i] when he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the hated, which is indeed the firstborn:

17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, [k] by giving him a double portion of all ‖ that he hath: for he is [l] the beginning of his strength; [m] the right of the firstborn is his.

18 ¶ If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them:

19 Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place;

20 And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard.

Ver. 19. (For the tree of the field is man's life) to employ them in the siege.—This passage, in the original, is exceedingly obscure. By way of clearing the obscurity Dr. Waterland suggests a choice of the three following versions—"For, O man, the trees of the field are for thee to employ in the siege." Or—"To man is given the tree of the field to be employed by thee in the siege." Or—"For it is man and the tree of the field that must go before thee for a bulwark."

CHAP. XXI. Ver. 1. If one be found slain in the land.—The injunctions here given follow very properly after the law just delivered, about making war, because then the bodies of dead men are most frequently found. The wisest lawgivers took the greatest care that when dead bodies were found proper inquisition should be taken how and when the persons were slain, but in no ancient law was such effectual provision made for the discovery of secret murders as in this of Moses.

Ver. 12. She shall shave her head.—To show that she had renounced her own religion and embraced that of her captors. This custom is still observed in the East. Pare her nails.—In the original it is, she shall make her nails—which some interpret, letting them grow; it was considered by some nations a great beauty to have long nails, and may therefore signify, in this case, that she was no longer a captive.

Ver. 14. Then thou shalt let her go.—Thou shalt restore to her liberty as a requital for having rejected her.

16 The covenant between God and the people.

AND it shall be, when thou art come in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein;

2 [a] That thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt [b] go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there.

3 And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD sware unto our fathers for to give us.

4 And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God.

5 And thou shalt speak and say before the LORD thy God, [c] A Syrian [d] ready to perish was my father, and [e] he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a [f] few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous:

6 And [g] the Egyptians evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage:

7 And [h] when we cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression:

8 And [i] the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and [k] with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders:

9 And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even [l] a land that floweth with milk and honey.

19 And to make thee [u] high above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayest be [x] an holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 The people are commanded to write the law upon stones, 5 and to build an altar of whole stones. 11 The tribes divided on Gerizim and Ebal. 14 The curses pronounced on mount Ebal.

AND Moses with the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day.

2 And it shall be on the day [a] when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that [b] thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaister them with plaister:

3 And thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, [a] land that floweth with milk and honey; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Therefore it shall be when ye be gone over Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, [c] in mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaister them with plaister.

5 And there shalt thou build an altar unto the LORD thy God, an altar of stones: [d] thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them.

6 Thou shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of whole stones: and thou shalt offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God:

7 And thou shalt offer peace offerings, and shalt eat there, and rejoice before the LORD thy God.

8 And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law very plainly.

9 ¶ And Moses and the priests the Levites spake unto all Israel, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Israel; [e] this day thou art become the people of the LORD thy God.

10 Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

11 ¶ And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

12 These shall stand [f] upon mount Gerizim to bless the people, when ye are come over Jordan; Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin:

13 And [g] these shall stand upon mount Ebal * to curse; Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14 ¶ And [h] the Levites shall speak, and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice,

15 [i] Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. [k] And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

16 [l] Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

17 [m] Cursed be he that removeth his neighbour's landmark. And all the people shall say, Amen.

18 [n] Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way. And all the people shall say, Amen.

19 [o] Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow. And all the people shall say, Amen.

20 [p] Cursed be he that lieth with his father's wife; because he uncovereth his father's skirt. And all the people shall say, Amen.

21 [q] Cursed be he that lieth with any manner of beast. And all the people shall say, Amen.

22 [r] Cursed be he that lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

23 [s] Cursed be he that lieth with his mother in law. And all the people shall say, Amen.

24 [t] Cursed be he that smiteth his neighbour secretly. And all the people shall say, Amen.

25 [u] Cursed be he that taketh reward to slay an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen.

26 [x] Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them. And all the people shall say, Amen.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 The blessings for obedience. 15 The curses for disobedience.

AND it shall come to pass, [a] if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God [b] will set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and [c] overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

3 [d] Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be [e] in the field.

4 Blessed shall be [f] the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

6 [g] Blessed shall thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shall thou be when thou goest out.

7 The LORD [h] shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways.

8 The LORD shall [i] command the blessing upon thee in thy † storehouses, and in all that thou [k] settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

9 [l] The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways.

10 And all people of the earth shall see that thou art [m] called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be [n] afraid of thee.

11 And [o] the LORD shall make thee plenteous ‡ in goods, in the fruit of thy § body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven [p] to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and [q] to bless all the work of thine hand: and [r] thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

13 And the LORD shall make thee [s] the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

14 [t] And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

15 ¶ But it shall come to pass, [u] if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and [x] overtake thee:

16 Cursed shall thou be [y] in the city, and cursed shall thou be in the field.

17 Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store.

18 Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

19 Cursed shall thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shall thou be when thou goest out.

21 The LORD shall make [c] the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

22 [d] The LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the * sword, and with [e] blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

23 And [f] thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

24 The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

25 [g] The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and [h] shalt be † removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

26 And [i] thy carcase shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

27 The LORD will smite thee with [k] the botch of Egypt, and with [l] the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

28 The LORD shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and [m] astonishment of heart:

29 And thou shalt [n] grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

30 [o] Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: [p] thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: [q] thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not ‡ gather the grapes thereof.

31 Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and § shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.

that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head.

36 The LORD shall [x] bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and [y] there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone.

37 And thou shalt become [z] an astonishment, a proverb, [a] and a byword, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee.

38 [b] Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for [c] the locust shall consume it.

39 Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them.

40 Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with the oil; for thine olive shall cast his fruit.

41 Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but ‖ thou shalt not enjoy them; for [d] they shall go into captivity.

42 All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the locust * consume.

43 The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low.

44 [e] He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: [f] he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

45 Moreover [g] all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee:

46 And they shall be upon thee [h] for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever.

47 [i] Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, [k] for the abundance of all things;

48 Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he [l] shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

49 [m] The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, [n] as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not † understand;

50 A nation ‡ of fierce countenance, [o] which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young:

52 And he shall [q] besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

53 And [r] thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own § body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee:

54 So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, [s] his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward [t] the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave:

55 So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

56 The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, [u] her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

57 And toward her ‖ young one that cometh out [x] from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.

58 If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear [y] this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD;

59 Then the LORD will make thy plagues [z] wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.

60 Moreover he will bring upon thee all [a] the diseases of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave unto thee.

61 Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD * bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

62 And ye [b] shall be left few in number, whereas ye were [c] as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

CHAP. XXIX.

Moses exhorteth them to obedience, by the memory of the works they have seen. 10 All are presented before the Lord to enter into his covenant. 18 The great wrath on him that flattereth himself in his wickedness. 29 Secret things belong unto God.

THESE are the words of the covenant, which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside [a] the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

2 ¶ And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, [b] Ye have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land;

3 [c] The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles:

4 Yet [d] the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

5 [e] And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: [f] your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot.

6 [g] Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I am the LORD your God.

7 And when ye came unto this place, [h] Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them:

8 And we took their land, and [i] gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh.

9 [k] Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may [l] prosper in all that ye do.

10 ¶ Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel,

11 Your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, from [m] the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water:

12 That thou shouldest [*] enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and [n] into his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day:

13 That he may [o] establish thee to day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, [p] as he hath said unto thee, and [q] as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

14 Neither with you only [r] do I make this covenant and this oath;

15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, [s] and also with him that is not here with us this day:

16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by;

17 And ye have seen their abominations, and their [†] idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:)

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, [t] whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; [u] lest there should be among you a root that beareth [‡] [§] gall and wormwood;

19 And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk [v] in the [‖] imagination of mine heart, [x] to add [*] drunkenness to thirst:

20 [y] The LORD will not spare him, but then [z] the anger of the LORD and [a] his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD [b] shall blot out his name from under heaven.

21 And the LORD [c] shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that [†] are written in this book of the law:

22 So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses [‡] which the LORD hath laid upon it;

23 And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, [d] and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, [e] like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath:

24 Even all nations shall say, [f] Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger?

25 Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD

Ver. 68. Shall bring thee into Egypt again—That is, into another state of bondage. How remarkably have all those calamities, predicted of the Jews, been fulfilled at the siege of Jerusalem and subsequently.

CHAP. XXIX. Ver. 4. Yet the Lord hath not given you an heart, &c.—Le Clerc and Mr. Locke both read these words interrogatively—Hath not the Lord given you a heart, &c.?

Ver. 18. A root that beareth gall and wormwood.—Or, as the Apostle expresses it, Heb. 3. 12, "an evil heart of unbelief."

God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt:

26 For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and § whom he had not ‖ given unto them:

27 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, ᵉ to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book:

28 And the LORD ᵇ rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Great mercies promised unto the repentant. 11 The commandment is manifest. 15 Death and life are set before them.

AND ᵃ it shall come to pass, when ᵇ all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and ᶜ thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee,

2 And shalt ᵈ return unto the LORD thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul;

3 ᵉ That then the LORD thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and ᶠ gather thee from all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee.

4 ᵍ If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee:

5 And the LORD thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.

6 And ʰ the LORD thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

7 And the LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee.

8 And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day.

9 ⁱ And the LORD thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again ᵏ rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers:

10 If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

11 ¶ For this commandment which I command thee this day, ˡ it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off.

12 ᵐ It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14 But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

15 ¶ See, ⁿ I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil;

16 In that I command thee this day to love the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

17 But if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them;

18 ° I denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it.

19 ᵖ I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that ᵠ I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

20 That thou mayest love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he is thy ʳ life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

22 ¶ Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

speak these words in their ears, [d] and call heaven and earth to record against them.

29 For I know that after my death ye will utterly [e] corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and [f] evil will befall you [g] in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

30 And Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Moses' song, which setteth forth God's mercy and vengeance. 46 He exhorteth them to set their hearts upon it. 48 God sendeth him up to mount Nebo, to see the land, and die.

GIVE [a] ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

2 [b] My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, [c] as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass:

3 Because I will publish the name of the LORD: [d] ascribe ye greatness unto our God.

4 He is [e] the Rock, [f] his work is perfect: for [g] all his ways are judgment: [h] a God of truth and [i] without iniquity, just and right is he.

5 * [k] They have corrupted themselves, † their spot is not the spot of his children: they are a [l] perverse and crooked generation.

6 Do ye thus [m] requite the LORD, O foolish people and unwise? is not he [n] thy father that hath [o] bought thee? hath he not [p] made thee, and established thee?

7 ¶ Remember the days of old, consider the years of ‡ many generations: [q] ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee.

8 When the Most High [r] divided to the nations their inheritance, when he [s] separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

9 For [t] the LORD's portion is his people; Jacob is the § lot of his inheritance.

10 He found him [u] in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he ‖ led him about, he [x] instructed him, he [y] kept him as the apple of his eye.

11 [z] As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings:

12 So the LORD alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

13 [a] He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck [b] honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock;

14 Butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, [c] with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and thou didst drink the pure [d] blood of the grape.

15 ¶ But * Jeshurun waxed fat, and [f] kicked: [g] thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he [h] forsook God which [i] made him, and lightly esteemed the [k] Rock of his salvation.

16 [l] They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.

17 [m] They sacrificed unto devils, * not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not.

18 [n] Of the Rock that begat thee thou art unmindful, and hast [o] forgotten God that formed thee.

19 [p] And when the LORD saw it, he † abhorred them, [q] because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters.

20 And he said, [r] I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a very froward generation, [s] children in whom is no faith.

21 [t] They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God; they have provoked me to anger [u] with their vanities: and [x] I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 For [y] a fire is kindled in mine anger, and ‡ shall burn unto the lowest hell, and § shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23 I will [z] heap mischiefs upon them; [a] I will spend mine arrows upon them.

24 They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with ‖ burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send [b] the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust.

25 [c] The sword without, and terror * within, shall † destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also with the man of gray hairs.

26 [d] I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men:

27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries * should behave themselves strangely, and lest they should [f] say, ‡ Our hand is high, and the LORD hath not done all this.

28 For they are ¶ nation void of counsel, [g] neither is there any understanding in them.

29 [h] O that they were wise, that they understood this, [i] that they would consider their latter end!

30 How should [k] one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock [l]had sold them, and the LORD had shut them up?

31 For [m]their rock is not as our Rock, [n]even our enemies themselves being judges.

32 For [o]their vine § is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter:

33 Their wine is [p]the poison of dragons, and the cruel [q]venom of asps.

34 Is not this [r]laid up in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures?

35 [s]To me belongeth vengeance, and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for [t]the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

36 [u]For the LORD shall judge his people, [x]and repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that their ‖ power is gone, and [y]there is none shut up, or left.

37 And he shall say, [z]Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted, 38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings? let them rise up and help you, and be * your protection.

39 See now that [a]I, even I, am he, and [b]there is no god with me: [c]I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

40 [d]For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever.

41 [e]If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment; [f]I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42 I will make mine arrows [g]drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the beginning of [h]revenges upon the enemy.

43 †[i]Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people: for he will [k]avenge the blood of his servants, and [l]will render vengeance to his adversaries, and [m]will be merciful unto his land, and to his people.

44 ¶ And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, and ‡ Hoshea the son of Nun.

45 And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel:

46 And he said unto them, [n]Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law.

47 For it is not a vain thing for you; [o]because it is your life: and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

48 [p]And the LORD spake unto Moses that selfsame day, saying,

49 Get thee up into this [q]mountain Abarim, unto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession:

50 And die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be gathered unto thy people; as [r]Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people:

51 Because [s]ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel at the waters of § Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ye [t]sanctified me not in the midst of the children of Israel.

52 [u]Yet thou shalt see the land before thee; but thou shalt not go thither unto the land which I give the children of Israel.

1 The majesty of God. 6 The blessings of the twelve tribes. 26 The excellency of Israel.

AND this is [a]the blessing, wherewith Moses [b]the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

2 And he said, [c]The LORD came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came with [d]ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went * a fiery law for them.

3 Yea, [e]he loved the people; [f]all his saints are in thy hand: and they [g]sat down at thy feet; every one shall [h]receive of thy words.

4 [i]Moses commanded us a law, [k]even the inheritance of the congregation of Jacob.

5 And he was [l]king in [m]Jeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.

6 ¶ Let Reuben live, and not die; and let not his men be few.

7 ¶ And this is the blessing of Judah: and he said, Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: [n]let his hands be sufficient for him; and be thou [o]an help to him from his enemies.

8 ¶ And of Levi he said, [p]Let thy Thummim and thy Urim be with thy holy one, [q]whom thou didst prove at Massah, and with whom thou didst strive at the waters of Meribah;

15 And for the chief things of [c] the ancient mountains, and for the precious things [d] of the lasting hills,

16 And for the precious things of the earth and fulness thereof, and for the good will of [e] him that dwelt in the bush: let the blessing [f] come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him that was separated from his brethren.

17 His glory is like the [g] firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like [h] the horns of † unicorns: with them [i] he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and [k] they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh.

18 ¶ And of Zebulun he said, [l] Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy going out; and, Issachar, in thy tents.

19 They shall [m] call the people unto the mountain; there [n] they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness: for they shall suck of the abundance of the seas, and of treasures hid in the sand.

20 ¶ And of Gad he said, Blessed be he that [o] enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion, and teareth the arm with the crown of the head.

21 And [p] he provided the first part for himself, because there, in a portion of the lawgiver, was he ‡ seated; and [q] he came with the heads of the people, he executed the justice of the LORD, and his judgments with Israel.

22 ¶ And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp: [r] he shall leap from Bashan.

23 ¶ And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, [s] satisfied with favour, and full with the blessing of the LORD: [t] possess thou the west and the south.

24 ¶ And of Asher he said, [u] Let Asher be blessed with children; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him [x] dip his foot in oil.

25 § Thy shoes shall be [y] iron and brass; and as thy days, so shall thy strength be.

26 ¶ There is [z] none like unto the God of [a] Jeshurun, [b] who rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky.

27 The eternal God is thy [c] refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and [d] he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them.

28 [e] Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: [f] the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his [g] heavens shall drop down dew.

29 [h] Happy art thou, O Israel: [i] who is like unto thee, O people saved by the LORD, [k] the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency! and thine enemies [l] ‖ shall be found liars unto thee; and [m] thou shalt tread upon their high places.

These same shall teach Jacob thy judgments, and Israel thy law; they shall incense before thee, and whole burnt offerings upon thine altar. Bless, O Lord, his strength, and favor the work of his hands: let him d the loins of his enemies, and let those who hate him not rise up ."

AND Moses went up from the plains of Moab [a] unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of * Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And the LORD [b] shewed him all the land of Gilead, [c] unto Dan,

2 And all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, [d] unto the utmost sea,

3 And the south, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, [e] the city of palm trees, unto Zoar.

4 And the LORD said unto him, [f] This is the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: [g] I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither.

5 ¶ [h] So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.

6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor: but [i] no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.

7 ¶ [k] And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old when he died: [l] his eye was not dim, nor his † natural force ‡ abated.

8 ¶ And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab [m] thirty days: so the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

9 ¶ And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the [n] spirit of wisdom; for [o] Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.

10 ¶ And there [p] arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, [q] whom the LORD knew face to face,

11 In all [r] the signs and the wonders, which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land.

12 And in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses shewed in the sight of all Israel.

1 The Lord appointeth Joshua to succeed Moses. 3 The borders of the promised land. 5, 6 God promiseth to assist Joshua. 8 He giveth him instructions. 10 He prepareth the people to pass over Jordan. 12 Joshua putteth the two tribes and half in mind of their promise to Moses. 16 They promised him fealty.

NOW after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD it came to pass, that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses's [a] minister, saying,

2 [b] Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel.

3 [c] Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.

4 [d] From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.

5 [e] There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: [f] as I was with Moses, so [g] I will be with thee: [h] I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

6 [i] Be strong and of a good courage: for * unto this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give them.

7 Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, [k] which Moses my servant commanded thee: [l] turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest † prosper whithersoever thou goest.

8 [m] This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but [n] thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt ‡ have good success.

9 [o] Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; [p] be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

JOSHUA.—"The book of Joshua is generally attributed to this great man. All the copies of it go under his name. It is said in the last chapter, ver. 26, that Joshua wrote all these things. Both the church and synagogue agree in this, and acknowledge the book to be canonical; nevertheless it contains certain terms, names of places and particular circumstances, which do not agree with Joshua's time; and which induce a belief that this book has been revised, that additions and corrections have been made by transcribers."—Calmet. "The book of Joshua contains the sacred history from the death of Moses to the death of Joshua and Eleazar, a space of about thirty years. It contains an account of the conquest and division of the land of Canaan, the renewal of the covenant with the Israelites after the death of Joshua. The last five verses, giving an account of the death of Joshua, were added by one of his successors, probably by Phinehas or Samuel."—Ltr, Gray and Bishop Tomline.

Egypt from off you. Wherefore the name of the place is called § [m] Gilgal unto this day.

12 ¶ And [o] the manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood [p] a man over against him [q] with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?

14 And he said, Nay; but as ‖ captain of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua [r] fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant?

15 And the captain of the LORD's host said unto Joshua, [s] Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

CHAP. VI.

1 Jericho is shut up. 2 God instructeth Joshua how to besiege it. 12 The city is compassed. 17 It must be accursed. 20 The walls fall down. 22 Rahab is saved. 26 The builder of Jericho is cursed.

NOW Jericho * was straitly shut up because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in.

2 And the LORD said unto Joshua, See, [a] I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the [b] king thereof, and the mighty men of valour.

3 And ye shall compass the city, all ye men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days.

4 And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven [c] trumpets of rams' horns: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and [d] the priests shall blow with the trumpets.

5 And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down † flat, and the people shall ascend up every man straight before him.

6 ¶ And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said unto them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD.

7 And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that is armed pass on before the ark of the LORD.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9 ¶ And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, [e] and the ‡ rereward came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

10 And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor § make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout.

11 So the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.

12 ¶ And Joshua rose early in the morning, [f] and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

13 And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the rereward came after the ark of the LORD, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did six days.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.

16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city.

17 ¶ And the city shall be ‖ accursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the LORD: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because [g] she hid the messengers that we sent.

18 And ye, [h] in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, [i] and trouble it.

19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are * consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.

20 So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, [k] that the wall fell down † flat,

[o] Ex. 19. 10. [p] ch. 3. 5.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which [q] the LORD taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by housholds; and the houshold which the LORD shall take shall come man by man.

to Beth-horon, [o] that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 ¶ Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, [p] Sun, † stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of [q] Ajalon.

13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. [r] Is not this written in the book of ‡ Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

14 And there was [s] no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for [t] the LORD fought for Israel.

15 ¶ [u] And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.

18 And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them:

19 And stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and § smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.

20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities.

21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: [x] none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, [y] put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, [z] Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for [a] thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they [b] were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they [c] took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

28 ¶ And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah [d] as he did unto the king of Jericho.

29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah:

30 And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain in it; but did unto the king thereof as he did unto the king of Jericho.

31 ¶ And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it:

32 And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, which took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

33 ¶ Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 ¶ And from Lachish Joshua passed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it:

35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him unto [e] Hebron; and they fought against it:

37 And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

B. C. 1451.

38 ¶ And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to [f] Debir; and fought against it:

39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining: as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof; as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king.

40 ¶ So Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel [g] commanded.

41 And Joshua smote them from Kadeshbarnea even unto [h] Gaza, [i] and all the country of Goshen, even unto Gibeon.

42 And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, [k] because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

43 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

CHAP. XI.

1 Divers kings overcome at the waters of Merom. 10 Hazor is taken and burnt. 16 All the country taken by Joshua. 21 The Anakims cut off.

1450. AND it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor had heard those things, that he [a] sent to Jobab the king of Madon, and to the king [b] of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph,

2 And to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of [c] Chinneroth, and in the valley, and in the borders [d] of Dor on the west,

3 And to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the mountains, [e] and to the Hivite under [f] Hermon [‡] in the land of Mizpeh.

4 And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, [h] even as the sand that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.

5 And when all these kings were [*] met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

6 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, [i] Be not afraid because of them: for to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt [k] hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.

7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them.

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto [†] great Zidon, and unto [‖] [‡] § Misrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining.

9 And Joshua did unto them [m] as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

10 ¶ And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.

11 And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not [‖] any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, [n] as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.

13 But as for the cities that stood still [*] in their strength, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only; that did Joshua burn.

14 And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe.

15 ¶ [o] As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so [p] did Moses command Joshua, and [q] so did Joshua; [†] he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all that land, [r] the hills, and all the south country, [s] and all the land of Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same;

17 [t] Even from [‡] the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and [u] all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them.

18 § Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save [x] the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took in battle.

20 For [y] it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, [z] as the LORD commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And at that time came Joshua, and cut off [a] the Anakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in [b]Gath, [c]and in Ashdod, there remained.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, [d]according to all that the LORD said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel [e]according to their divisions by their tribes. [f]And the land rested from war.

CHAP. XII.

1 The two kings whose countries Moses took and disposed of. 7 The one and thirty kings on the other side Jordan which Joshua smote.

NOW these are the kings of the land, which the children of Israel smote, and possessed their land on the other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, [a]from the river Arnon [b]unto mount Hermon, and all the plain on the east:

2 [c]Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead, even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon;

3 And [d]from the plain to the sea of Chinneroth on the east, and unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea on the east, [e]the way to Beth-jeshimoth; and from * the south, under † [f]Ashdoth-pisgah:

4 ¶ And [g]the coast of Og king of Bashan, which was of [h]the remnant of the giants, [i]that dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,

5 And reigned in [k]mount Hermon, [l]and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, [m]unto the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

6 [n]Then did Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel smite: and [o]Moses the servant of the LORD gave it for a possession unto the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

7 ¶ And these are the kings of the country [p]which Joshua and the children of Israel smote on this side Jordan on the west, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon even unto the mount Halak, that goeth up to [q]Seir; which Joshua [r]gave unto the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions;

8 [s]In the mountains, and in the valleys, and in the plains, and in the springs, and in the wilderness, and in the south country; [t]the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites:

9 ¶ [u]The king of Jericho, one; [x]the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;

10 [y]The king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;

11 The king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;

12 The king of Eglon, one; [z]the king of Gezer, one;

13 [a]The king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;

14 The king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

15 [b]The king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;

16 [c]The king of Makkedah, one; [d]the king of Beth-el, one;

17 The king of Tappuah, one; [e]the king of Hepher, one;

18 The king of Aphek, one; the king of ‡ Lasharon, one;

19 The king of Madon, one; [f]the king of Hazor, one;

20 The king of [g]Shimron-meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;

21 The king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;

22 [h]The king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam of Carmel, one;

23 The king of Dor in the [i]coast of Dor, one; the king of [k]the nations of Gilgal, one;

24 The king of Tirzah, one: all the kings thirty and one.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The bounds of the land not yet conquered. 7 The inheritance of the two tribes and half. 14, 33 the Lord and his sacrifices are the inheritance of Levi. 15 The bounds of the inheritance of Reuben. 22 Balaam slain. 24 The bounds of the inheritance of Gad, 29 and of the half tribe of Manasseh.

NOW Joshua [a]was old and stricken in years; and the LORD said unto him, Thou art old and stricken in years, and there remaineth yet very much land * to be possessed.

2 [b]This is the land that yet remaineth: [c]all the borders of the Philisthies, and all [d]Geshuri,

3 [e]From Sihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: [f]five lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites, and the Ashdothites, the Eshkalonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also [g]the Avites:

4 From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and † Mearah that is beside the Sidonians, [h]unto Aphek, to the borders of [i]the Amorites:

5 And the land of [k]the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrising, [l]from Baal-gad under mount Hermon unto the entering into Hamath.

6 All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon unto [m]Misrephoth-maim, and all the Sidonians, them [n]will I drive out from before the children of Israel: only [o]divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee.

7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh,

8 With whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, [p]which Moses gave them, beyond Jordan

Ver. 23. Gilgal.—This is not the Gilgal where Joshua encamped when he first entered the land of Canaan; but is supposed to have been the higher Galilee, called Galilee of the nations.

eastward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them;

9 From Aroer, that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba unto Dibon;

10 And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon;

11 And Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcah;

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants: for these did Moses smite, and cast them out.

13 Nevertheless the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.

14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto them.

15 ¶ And Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families.

16 And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba;

17 Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and ‡ Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon,

18 And Jahaza, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,

19 And Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-shahar in the mount of the valley,

20 And Beth-peor, and § Ashdoth-pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth,

21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country.

22 ¶ Balaam also the son of Beor, the ‖ soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword among them that were slain by them.

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and the villages thereof.

24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families.

25 And their coast was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer that is before Rabbah;

26 And from Heshbon unto Ramath-mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim unto the border of Debir;

27 And in the valley, Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the sea of Chinnereth on the other side Jordan eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages.

29 ¶ And Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families.

30 And their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, threescore cities:

31 And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining unto the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the children of Machir by their families.

32 These are the countries which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan, by Jericho, eastward.

33 But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them.

CHAP. XIV.

1 The nine tribes and a half are to have their inheritance by lot. 6 Caleb by privilege obtaineth Hebron.

AND these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them.

2 By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

5 As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

Ver. 2. By lot was their inheritance.—"The portion fell to each tribe, just as Jacob had declared two hundred and fifty years before, in the last moments of his life, and Moses immediately before his death; for to the tribe of Judah fell a country abounding in vineyards and pastures; to Zebulun and Issachar, sea ports; in that of Asher was plenty of oil, wheat and metals; that of Benjamin, near to the temple, was in a manner between the shoulders of the Deity. Ephraim and Manasseh were distinguished with a territory blest in a peculiar manner by heaven. The land of Naphtali extended from the west to the south of the tribes of Judah. Since, therefore, the lot corresponded as well to these predictions, it must be insolence and stupidity in the highest degree not to acknowledge the inspiration of God in the words of Jacob and Moses, the direction of his hand in the lot, and his providence in the event."—Madan.

of Jephunneh the [f]Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest [g]the thing that the LORD said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee [h] in Kadesh-barnea.

7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the LORD [i]sent me from Kadesh-barnea to espy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless [k]my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly [l]followed the LORD my God.

9 And Moses sware on that day, saying, [m]Surely the land [n]whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God.

10 And now, behold, the LORD hath kept me alive, [o]as he said, these forty and five years, even since the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel [*] wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old.

11 [p]As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both [q]to go out, and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how [r]the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: [s]if so be the LORD will be with me, then [t]I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said.

13 And Joshua [u]blessed him, [x]and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance.

14 [y]Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because that he [z]wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

15 And [a]the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba; which Arba was a great man among the Anakims. [b]And the land had rest from war.

THIS then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families; [a]even to the border of Edom the [b]wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast.

2 And their south border was from the shore of the salt sea, from the * bay that looketh southward:

3 And it went out to the south side [c]to + Maaleh-acrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kadesh-barnea, and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa:

4 From thence it passed [d]toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast. B. C. 1444.

10 [l] And they drave not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and serve under tribute.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The lot of Manasseh. 7 His coast. 12 The Canaanites not driven out. 14 The children of Joseph obtain another lot.

THERE was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for he was the [a] firstborn of Joseph; to wit, for [b] Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead: because he was a man of war, therefore he had [c] Gilead and Bashan.

2 There was also a lot for [d] the rest of the children of Manasseh by their families; [e] for the children of [*] Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, [f] and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, [g] and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida: these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families.

3 ¶ But [h] Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Malah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before [i] Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, [k] The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan;

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

7 ¶ And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to [l] Michmethah, that lieth before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of Entappuah.

8 Now Manasseh had the land of Tappuah: but [m] Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim;

9 And the coast descended [n] unto the †river Kanah, southward of the river: [o] these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: the coast of Manasseh also was on the north side of the river, and the outgoings of it were at the sea:

10 Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is his border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east.

11 [p] And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher [q] Beth-shean and her towns, and Ibleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countries.

12 Yet [r] the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

13 Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to [s] tribute; but did not utterly drive them out.

14 [t] And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but [u] one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am [x] a great people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed me hitherto?

15 And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the ‡ giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have [y] chariots of iron, both they who are of Beth-shean and her towns, and they who are [z] of the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot only:

18 But the mountain shall be thine; for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the outgoings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, [a] though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.

Ver. 10. And they drave not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer.—This was a city upon the sea coast, in the district retained by the Philistines. The Ephraimites, however, had so far succeeded in subjecting these people as to oblige them to pay tribute, though they could not, or at least did not, totally expel them."—Clarke's Commentary.

Chap. xvii. Ver. 1. There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh, &c. —Though God had shown a preference for Ephraim, the younger brother, it is evident from this place that he did not intend to deprive Manasseh of those privileges which belonged to him as the eldest born.

Ver. 5. Ten portions to Manasseh.—"It appears that the lot was divided into six parts, according to the six sons of Manasseh, mentioned ver. ii.; and one of these parts, that assigned to Hepher, was again divided into five parts for the five daughters, mentioned ver. iii. Thus, in the whole, there were ten portions."—Dr. Wells.

47 And [k] the coast of the children of Dan went out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, [l] Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

49 ¶ When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them:

50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even [m] Timnath-[n]serah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein.

1444

51 [o] These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot [p] in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country.

CHAP. XX.

1 God commandeth, 7 and the children of Israel appoint the six cities of refuge.

THE LORD also spake unto Joshua, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, [q] Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you by the hand of Moses:

3 That the slayer that killeth any person unawares and unwittingly may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 And when he that doth flee unto one of those cities shall stand at the entering of [b] the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

5 [c] And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not beforetime.

6 And he shall dwell in that city, [d] until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.

7 ¶ And they * appointed [e] Kedesh in Galilee in mount Naphtali, and [f] Shechem in mount Ephraim, and [g] Kirjath-arba, which is Hebron, in [h] the mountain of Judah.

8 And on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward, they assigned [i] Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and [k] Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and [l] Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.

9 [m] These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, [n] until he stood before the congregation.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Eight and forty cities given by lot, out of the other tribes, unto the Levites. 43 God gave the land, and rest unto the Israelites, according to his promise.

THEN came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto [a] Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel;

2 And they spake unto them at [b] Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, [c] The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle.

3 And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and [d] the children of Aaron the priest, which were of the Levites, [e] had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.

5 And [f] the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

6 And [g] the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

7 [h] The children of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

8 [i] And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, [k] as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 ¶ And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here * mentioned by name,

10 [l] Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for their's was the first lot.

11 [m] And they gave them † the city of Arba the father of [n] Anak, which city is Hebron, [o] in the hill country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it.

Ver. 1. Then came—the Levites, &c.—As the Levites were designed for the service of the sanctuary, there was no division of land made to them, but they were distributed among the other tribes, where they had habitations provided for them, in order that the worship of God might be every where duly observed among the Israelites. 12 But [p]the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession.

13 ¶ Thus [q]they gave to the children of Aaron the priest [r]Hebron with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; [s]and Libnah with her suburbs,

14 And [t]Jattir with her suburbs, [u]and Eshtemoa with her suburbs,

16 And [z]Ain with her suburbs, [a]and Juttah with her suburbs, and [b]Beth-shemesh with her suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, [c]Gibeon with her suburbs, [d]Geba with her suburbs, 18 Anathoth with her suburbs, and [e]Almon with her suburbs; four cities.

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 ¶ [f]And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim.

21 For they gave them [g]Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gezer with her suburbs, 22 And Kibzaim with her suburbs, and Beth-horon with her suburbs; four cities.

23 And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with her suburbs, Gibbethon with her suburbs, 24 Aijalon with her suburbs, Gath-rimmon with her suburbs; four cities.

25 And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her suburbs; two cities.

26 All the cities were ten with their suburbs for the families of the children of Kohath that remained.

27 ¶ [h]And unto the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half tribe of Manasseh they gave [i]Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Beeshterah with her suburbs; two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbs, Dabareh with her suburbs, 29 Jarmuth with her suburbs, En-gannim with her suburbs; four cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbs, Abdon with her suburbs, 31 Helkath with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs; four cities.

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, [k]Kedesh in Galilee with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hammoth-dor with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs; three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

34 ¶ [l]And unto the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with her suburbs, and Kartah with her suburbs, 35 Dimnah with her suburbs, Nahalal with her suburbs; four cities.

36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, [m]Bezer with her suburbs, and Jahazah with her suburbs, 37 Kedemoth with her suburbs, and Mephaath with her suburbs; four cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad, [n]Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Mahanaim with her suburbs, 39 Heshbon with her suburbs, Jazer with her suburbs; four cities in all.

40 So all the cities for the children of Merari by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

41 [o]All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their suburbs.

42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus were all these cities.

43 ¶ And the LORD gave unto Israel [p]all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.

44 [q]And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers: and [r]there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 [s]There failed not ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

6 [h] Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, [i] that ye turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left;

7 That ye [k] come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither [l] make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them:

8 ‡ But [m] cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9 § [n] For the LORD hath driven out from before you great nations and strong: but as for you, [o] no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day.

10 [p] One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, he it is that fighteth for you, [q] as he hath promised you.

11 [r] Take good heed therefore unto ‖ yourselves, that ye love the LORD your God.

12 Else if ye do in any wise [s] go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall [t] make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you:

13 Know for a certainty that [u] the LORD your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; [x] but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

14 And, behold, this day [y] I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that [z] not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof.

15 [a] Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you; so shall the LORD bring upon you [b] all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

16 When ye have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you.

B. C. cir 1427.

2 And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, [d] Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and [e] they served other gods.

3 And [f] I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and [g] gave him Isaac.

4 And I gave unto Isaac [h] Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto [i] Esau mount Seir, to possess it; [k] but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

5 [l] I sent Moses also and Aaron, and [m] I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out.

6 And I [n] brought your fathers out of Egypt: and [o] ye came unto the sea; [p] and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red sea.

7 And when they [q] cried unto the LORD, [r] he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, [s] and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and [t] your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderness [u] a long season.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; [x] and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

9 Then [y] Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and [z] sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you:

10 [a] But I would not hearken unto Balaam; [b] therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And [c] ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and [d] the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand.

12 And [e] I sent the hornet before you, which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but [f] not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

13 And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, and [g] cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat.

14 ¶ [h] Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in [i] sincerity and in truth: and [k] put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and [l] in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD.

15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, [m] choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether [n] the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or [o] the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: [p] but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

16 And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods;

17 For the LORD our God, he it is that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed:

18 And the LORD drave out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore will we also serve the LORD; for he is our God.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, [q] Ye cannot serve the LORD: for he is an [r] holy God; he is [s] a jealous God; [t] he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

20 [u] If ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, [x] then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that [y] ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

23 Now therefore [z] put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel.

24 And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

25 So Joshua [a] made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance [b] in Shechem.

26 ¶ And Joshua [c] wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took [d] a great stone, and [e] set it up there [f] under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be [g] a witness unto us; for [h] it hath heard all the words of the LORD which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God.

28 So [i] Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.

29 ¶ [k] And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

CHAP. I.

B. C. 1425.

1 The acts of Judah and Simeon. 6 Adoni-bezek justly requited. 8 Jerusalem taken. 10 Hebron taken. 13 Othniel hath Achsah to wife for taking of Debir. 16 The Kenites dwell in Judah. 17 Hormah, Gaza, Askelon and Ekron taken. 21 The acts of Benjamin. 22 Of the house of Joseph, who take Beth-el. 30 Of Zebulun. 31 Of Asher. 33 Of Naphtali. 34 Of Dan.

NOW after the death of Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Israel [a] asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, [b] Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and [c] I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Simeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they slew of them in [d] Bezek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, Threescore and ten kings, having * their thumbs and their great toes cut off, † gathered their meat under my table: * as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 Now [f] the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9 ¶ [g] And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the south, and in the ‡ valley.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron: (now the name of Hebron before was [h] Kirjath-arba:) and they slew Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

B. C. 1425.

11 [i] And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher:

12 [k] And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

1444.

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, [l] Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

14 [m] And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she said unto him, [n] Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 ¶ [o] And the children of the Kenite, Moses' father in law, went up out [p] of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of [q] Arad; [r] and they went and dwelt among the people.

cir. 1425.

17 [s] And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called [t] Hormah.

18 And Judah took [u] Gaza with the coast thereof, and Askelon with the coast thereof, and Ekron with the coast thereof.

19 And [x] the LORD was with Judah; and § he drave out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had [y] chariots of iron.

20 [z] And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak.

21 [a] And the children of Benjamin did

JUDGES. "The Book of Judges is by some ascribed to Phinehas, by others Ezra or to Hezekiah, by others to Samuel, or to all the Judges, who ote each the history of his time and judicature. But it appears to be the k of one author, who lived after the time of the Judges. A clear of of this is, that in the second chapter, the tenth and following verses, akes a short abridgment of the whole book, and gives a general idea Calmet. "The beginning of the Book of Judges gives an account he farther conquests of the Israelites, in the land of Canaan; of their bedience to the commands of God, and of their consequent subjection u king of Mesopotamia; it then states the appointment of Othniel, the judge of Israel, and continues the history to the death of Samson. se events are contained in the first sixteen chapters; and in the nteenth and remaining chapters are recorded several remarkable rrences, which were omitted in their proper places, that they might not interrupt the course of the general history of the Judges. This book includes a history of about three hundred and nine years, from the death of Joshua to that of Samson; but there is great difficulty in settling the precise chronology of the several facts related in it, because many of them are reckoned from different eras, which cannot now be exactly ascertained."—Bishop Tomline.

CHAP. I. Ver. 1. After the death of Joshua—"It is probable that, after the death of Joshua, every tribe was governed by its respective head or elder—which form of government subsisted thirty years—and that in their wars with the Canaanites, they made these their commanders"—Stackhouse.

as the LORD had said, and [z] as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed.

16 ¶ Nevertheless [a] the LORD raised up judges, which § delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them.

17 And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they [b] went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so.

18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, then [c] the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: [d] for it repented the LORD because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

19 And it came to pass, [e] when the judge was dead, that they returned, and ‖ corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; they * ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way.

20 ¶ [f] And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and he said, Because that this people hath [g] transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice;

21 [h] I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died:

22 [i] That through them I may [k] prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

23 Therefore the LORD † left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

CHAP. III.

1 The nations which were left to prove Israel. 6 By communion with them they commit idolatry. 8 Othniel delivereth them from Chushan-rishathaim. 12 Ehud from Eglon. 31 Shamgar from the Philistines.

NOW these are [a] the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan;

2 Only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing thereof;

3 Namely, [b] five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath.

4 [c] And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. B. C. cir. 1426.

5 ¶ [d] And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites:

6 And [e] they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

7 [f] And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgat the LORD their God, [g] and served Baalim and [h] the groves.

8 ¶ Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he [i] sold them into the hand of [k] Chushan-rishathaim king of * Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight years.

9 And when the children of Israel [l] cried unto the LORD, the LORD [m] raised up a † deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, even [n] Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 And [o] the Spirit of the LORD ‡ came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the LORD delivered Chushan-rishathaim king of § Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim.

11 And the land had rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 ¶ [p] And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened [q] Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and [r] Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and possessed [s] the city of palm trees.

14 So the children of Israel [t] served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel [u] cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, ‖ a Benjamite, a man * lefthanded: and by him the children of Israel sent a present unto Eglon the king of Moab.

16 But Ehud made him a dagger which had two edges, of a cubit length; and he did gird it under his raiment upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the present unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man.

18 And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that bare the present.

19 But he himself turned again [z] from the † quarries that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him.

29 Her wise ladies answered her, yea, she returned § answer to herself,

30 [s] Have they not sped? have they not divided the prey; || to every man a damsel or two; to Sisera a prey of divers colours, a prey of divers colours of needlework, of divers colours of needlework on both sides, meet for the necks of them that take the spoil?

31 [t] So let all thine enemies perish, O LORD: but let them that love him be [u] as the sun [x] when he goeth forth in his might. And the land had rest forty years.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Israelites for their sin are oppressed by Midian. 8 A prophet rebuketh them. 11 An angel sendeth Gideon for their deliverance. 17 Gideon's present is consumed with fire. 24 Gideon destroyeth Baal's altar, and offereth a sacrifice upon the altar Jehovah-shalom. 28 Joash defendeth his son, and calleth him Jerubbaal. 33 Gideon's army. 36 Gideon's signs.

a AND the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand [b] of Midian seven years.

2 And the hand of Midian * prevailed against Israel: and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them [c] the dens which are in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds.

3 And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and [d] the Amalekites, [e] and the children of the east, even they came up against them;

4 And they encamped against them, and [f] destroyed the increase of the earth, till thou come unto Gaza, and left no sustenance for Israel, neither † sheep, nor ox, nor ass.

5 For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came [g] as grasshoppers for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it.

6 And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel [h] cried unto the LORD.

7 ¶ And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites,

8 That the LORD sent ‡ a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and [i] drave them out from before you, and gave you their land;

10 And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; [k] fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice.

11 ¶ And there came an angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash [l] the Abiezrite: and his son [m] Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, § to hide it from the Midianites.

12 And the [n] angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is [o] with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13 [p] And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and [p] where be all his miracles [q] which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath [r] forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

14 And the LORD looked upon him, and said, [s] Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: [t] have not I sent thee?

15 And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, [u] || my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

16 And the LORD said unto him, [x] Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

17 And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then [y] shew me a sign that thou talkest with me.

18 [z] Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my * present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again.

19 ¶ [a] And Gideon went in, and made ready † a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

20 And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and [b] lay them upon this rock, and [c] pour out the broth. And he did so.

21 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and [d] there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon [e] perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas,

O Lord God! [r]for because I have seen an angel of the Lord face to face.

23 And the Lord said unto him, [s] Peace be unto thee; fear not: thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the Lord, and called it ‡ Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet [h]in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

25 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the Lord said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, § even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and [i]cut down the grove that is by it:

26 And build an altar unto the Lord thy God upon the top of this ‖ rock, * in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the Lord had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's houshold, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it.

31 And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Baal? will ye save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar.

32 Therefore on that day he called him † [k]Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar.

33 ¶ Then all [l]the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in [m]the valley of Jezreel.

34 But [n]the Spirit of the Lord ‡ came upon Gideon, and he [o]blew a trumpet; and Abi-ezer § was gathered after him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

36 ¶ And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said,

37 [p]Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

38 And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

39 And Gideon said unto God, [q]Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

40 And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

CHAP. VII.

1 Gideon's army of two and thirty thousand is brought to three hundred. 13 He is encouraged by the dream and interpretation of the barley cake. 16 His stratagem of trumpets and lamps in pitchers. 24 The Ephraimites take Oreb and Zeeb.

THEN [a]Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

2 And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel [b]vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me.

3 Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, [c]Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.

4 And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the Lord said unto Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink.

6 And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the Lord said unto Gideon, [d]By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

9 ¶ And it came to pass the same [e] night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host; for I have delivered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host:

11 And thou shalt [f] hear what they say; and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the * armed men that were in the host.

12 And the Midianites and the Amalekites and [g] all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along.

14 And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host.

15 ¶ And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and † the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put ‡ a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and § lamps within the pitchers.

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so shall ye do.

18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

19 ¶ So Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

21 And they [h] stood every man in his place round about the camp: [i] and all the host ran, and cried, and fled.

22 And the three hundred [k] blew the trumpets, and [l] the LORD set [m] every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-shittah ‖ in Zererath, and to the * border of Abelmeholah, unto Tabbath.

23 And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites.

24 ¶ And Gideon sent messengers throughout all [n] mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and [o] took the waters unto [p] Beth-barah and Jordan.

25 And they took [q] two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon [r] the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the [s] other side Jordan.

AND [a] the men of Ephraim said unto him, * Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him † sharply.

2 And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abi-ezer?

3 [b] God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their ‡ [c] anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.

4 ¶ And Gideon came to Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men that were with him, faint, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said unto the men of [d] Succoth, Give, I pray you, loaves of bread unto the people that follow me; for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.

6 ¶ And the princes of Succoth said, [e] Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that [f] we should give bread unto thine army?

7 And Gideon said, Therefore when the LORD hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, § then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers.

8 ¶ And he went up thence [h] to Penuel, and spake unto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered him.

Penuel, saying, When I [i]come again in peace, [k]I will break down this tower.

10 ¶ Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of [l]all the hosts of the children of the east: for there fell ‖an hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.

11 ¶ And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents on the east of [m]Nobah and Jogbehah, and smote the host: for the host was [n]secure.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and [o]took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and *discomfited all the host.

13 ¶ And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle before the sun was up,

14 And caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and enquired of him: and he †described unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen men.

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did [p]upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men that are weary?

16 [q]And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he ‡taught the men of Succoth.

17 [r]And he beat down the tower of [s]Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

18 ¶ Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they whom ye slew at [t]Tabor? And they answered, As thou art, so were they; each one §resembled the children of a king.

19 And he said, They were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you.

20 And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, and [u]slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ‖ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

22 ¶ Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian.

23 And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: [x]the LORD shall rule over you.

24 ¶ And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the earrings of his prey. (For they had golden earrings, [y]because they were Ishmaelites.)

25 And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his prey.

26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold; beside ornaments, and *collars, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were about their camels' necks.

27 And Gideon [z]made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, even [a]in Ophrah: and all Israel [b]went thither a whoring after it: which thing became [c]a snare unto Gideon, and to his house.

28 ¶ Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more. [d]And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 ¶ And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had *threescore and ten sons †of his body begotten: for he had many wives.

31 [f]And his concubine that was in Shechem, she also bare him a son, whose name he ‡called Abimelech.

32 ¶ And Gideon the son of Joash died [g]in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, [h]in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

33 And it came to pass, [i]as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and [k]went a whoring after Baalim, [l]and made Baal-berith their god.

34 And the children of Israel [m]remembered not the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:

35 [n]Neither shewed they kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, namely, Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shewed unto Israel.

B. C. cir. 1209. pieces of silver out of the house of [e] Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired [f] vain and light persons, which followed him.

5 And he went unto his father's house [g] at Ophrah, and [h] slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself.

6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went, and made Abimelech king, ‡ by the plain of the pillar that was in Shechem.

7 ¶ And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of [i] mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

8 [k] The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive tree, [l] Reign thou over us.

9 But the olive tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, [m] wherewith by me they honour God and man, and § go to be promoted over the trees?

10 And the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and reign over us.

11 But the fig tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees?

12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and reign over us.

13 And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, [n] which cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

14 Then said all the trees unto the || bramble, Come thou, and reign over us.

15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my [o] shadow: and if not, [p] let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the [q] cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, if ye have done truly and sincerely, in that ye have made Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done unto him [r] according to the deserving of his hands;

17 (For my father fought for you, and * adventured his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian:

18 [s] And ye are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother;)

19 If ye then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then [t] rejoice ye in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you:

20 But if not, [u] let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech.

21 And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to [x] Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 ¶ When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel,

23 Then [y] God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem [z] dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

24 [a] That the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which slew them; and upon the men of Shechem, which † aided him in the killing of his brethren.

25 And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made ‡ merry, and went into [b] the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, [c] Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? is not he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? serve the men of [d] Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?

29 And [e] would to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 ¶ And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was § kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech || privily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren be come to Shechem; and, behold, they fortify the city against thee.

32 Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them * as thou shalt find occasion.

34 ¶ And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gaal spake again and said, See there come people down by the † middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of ‡ Meonenim.

38 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou [f] saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entering of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech.

43 And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people were come forth out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the company that was with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields, and slew them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and [g] he took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and [h] beat down the city, and sowed it with salt.

46 ¶ And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into an hold of the house [i] of the god Berith.

47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gat him up to mount [k] Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him; and Abimelech took an ax in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye have seen § me do, make haste, and do as I have done.

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them; so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 ¶ Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut it to them, and gat them up to the top of the tower.

B. C. cir. 1206.

52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And a certain woman [l] cast a piece of a milstone upon Abimelech's head, and all to brake his scull.

54 Then [m] he called hastily unto the young man his armourbearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

56 ¶ [n] Thus God rendered the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did unto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren:

57 And all the evil of the men of Shechem did God render upon their heads: and upon them came [o] the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

10 ¶ [t] And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim.

11 And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Did not I deliver you [k] from the Egyptians, and [l] from the Amorites, [m] from the children of Ammon, [n] and from the Philistines?

12 [o] The Zidonians also, [p] and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, [q] did oppress you; and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

13 [r] Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will deliver you no more.

14 Go and [s] cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

15 ¶ And the children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned: [t] do thou unto us whatsoever ‖ seemeth good unto thee; deliver us only, we pray thee, this day.

16 [u] And they put away the * strange gods from among them, and served the LORD: and [x] his soul † was grieved for the misery of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon were ‡ gathered together, and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in [y] Mizpeh.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, What man is he that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall [z] be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

CHAP. XI.

1 The covenant between Jephthah and the Gileadites, that he should be their head. 12 The treaty of peace between him and the Ammonites is in vain. 29 Jephthah's vow. 32 His conquest of the Ammonites. 34 He performeth his vow on his daughter.

NOW [a] Jephthah the Gileadite was [b] a mighty man of valour, and he was the son of * an harlot: and Gilead begat Jephthah.

2 And Gilead's wife bare him sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of a strange woman.

3 Then Jephthah fled † from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there were gathered [c] vain men to Jephthah, and went out with him.

4 ¶ And it came to pass ‡ in process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob:

6 And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, [d] Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distress?

8 [e] And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we [f] turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be [g] our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, [h] The LORD § be witness between us, if we do not so according to thy words.

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him [i] head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words [k] before the LORD in Mizpeh.

12 ¶ And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, [l] Because Israel took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even unto [m] Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably.

14 And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon:

15 And said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah, [n] Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Israel came up from Egypt, and [o] walked through the wilderness unto the Red sea, and [p] came to Kadesh;

17 Then [q] Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: [r] but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab: but he would not consent: and Israel [s] abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they went along through the wilderness, and [t] compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and [u] came by the east side of the land of Moab, [x] and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 And [y] Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, [z] Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land into my place.

20 [a] But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

21 And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they [b] smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed [c] all the coasts of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

23 So now the LORD God of Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possess it?

24 Wilt not thou possess that which [d] Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So whomsoever [e] the LORD our God shall drive out from before us, them will we possess.

25 And now art thou any thing better than [f] Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them,

26 While Israel dwelt in [g] Heshbon and her towns, and in [h] Aroer and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coasts of Arnon, three hundred years? why therefore did ye not recover them within that time?

27 Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: the LORD [i] the Judge [k] be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him.

29 ¶ Then [l] the Spirit of the LORD came upon ‖ Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead, and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over unto the children of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah [m] vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands,

31 Then it shall be, that * whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, [n] shall surely be the LORD's, † [o] and I will offer it up for a burnt offering.

32 ¶ So Jephthah passed over unto the children of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from Aroer, even till thou come to [p] Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto ‡ the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

34 ¶ And Jephthah came to [q] Mizpeh unto his house, and, behold, [r] his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances: and she was his only child; § ‖ beside her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he [s] rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I [t] have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and [u] I cannot go back.

36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, [x] do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as [y] the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

37 And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may * go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows.

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who [z] did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a † custom in Israel,

Ver. 31. Shall surely be the Lord's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering.—These words are thus translated by Dr. Waterland:—"Shall be consecrated to the Lord, or, I will offer it up for a burnt offering." "It is very evident," observes Dr. Dodd, "that this translation of Dr. Waterland must be right, because it was impossible that Jephthah could mean to offer for a burnt offering whatever came forth of the doors of his house to meet him; since it was possible for him to have been met by several things which it would be sacrilegious for him to have offered unto the Lord. And indeed this event sufficiently proves the propriety of this interpretation, since he was met by that which no vow, however solemn, could justify him in offering up." This is likewise Mr. Locke's opinion in his gloss upon the passage. Those who may desire to examine the passage at length should consult Pfeifferi. Dub. Vex., Saurin, Dodwell, Schudt, Smallridge, and Sykes.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Israel is in the hand of the Philistines. 2 An angel appeareth to Manoah's wife. 8 The angel appeareth to Manoah. 15 Manoah's sacrifice, whereby the angel is discovered. 24 Samson is born.

AND the children of Israel * [a] did evil again in the sight of the LORD; † and the LORD delivered them [b] into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

2 ¶ And there was a certain man of [c] Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and bare not.

3 And the [d] angel of the LORD appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold, now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son.

4 Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and [e] drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing:

5 For, lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and no [f] razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be [g] a Nazarite unto God from the womb; and he shall [h] begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.

6 ¶ Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, [i] A man of God came unto me, and his [k] countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible: but I [l] asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name:

7 But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death.

8 ¶ Then Manoah intreated the LORD, and said, O my Lord, let the man of God which thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born.

9 And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman made haste, and ran, and shewed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day.

11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am.

12 And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to pass. ‡ How shall we order the child, and § ‖ how shall we do unto him?

13 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware.

14 She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, [m] neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded her let her observe.

15 ¶ And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, I pray thee, [n] let us detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid * for thee.

16 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it unto the LORD. For Manoah knew not that he was an angel of the LORD.

17 And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, What is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour?

18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, [o] Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is † secret?

19 So Manoah took a kid with a meat offering, ‖ and offered it upon a rock unto the LORD: and the angel did wonderously; and Manoah and his wife looked on.

1 Samson desireth a wife of the Philistines. 6 In his journey he killeth a lion. 8 In a second journey he findeth honey in the carcase. 10 Samson's marriage feast. 12 His riddle by his wife is made known. 19 He spoileth thirty Philistines. 20 His wife is married to another.

AND Samson went down [a] to Timnath, and [b] saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.

2 And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore [c] get her for me to wife.

3 Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of [d] thy brethren, or among all thy people, that thou goest to take a wife of the [e] uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for * she pleaseth me well.

4 But his father and his mother knew not that it was [f] of the LORD, that he sought an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time [g] the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

5 ¶ Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and, behold, a young lion roared † against him.

6 And [h] the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

7 And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

8 ¶ And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion: and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcase of the lion.

9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat: but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcase of the lion.

B. C. cir. 1141.

10 ¶ So his father went down unto the woman: and Samson made there a feast; for so used the young men to do.

11 And it came to pass, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

12 ¶ And Samson said unto them, I will now [i] put forth a riddle unto you: if ye can certainly declare it me [k] within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty ‡ sheets and thirty [l] change of garments:

13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets and thirty change of garments. And they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.

14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, [m] Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, [n] lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us § to take that we have? is it not so?

16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, [o] Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 And she wept before him ‖ the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

19 ¶ And [p] the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their * spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.

20 But Samson's wife [q] was given to his companion, whom he had used as [r] his friend.

4 Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother [c]took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah.

5 And the man Micah had an house of gods, and made an [d]ephod, and [e]teraphim, and * consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.

6 [f]In those days there was no king in Israel, [g]but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

7 ¶ And there was a young man out of [h]Beth-lehem-judah of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem-judah to sojourn where he could find a place: and he came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, † as he journeyed.

9 And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place.

10 And Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, [i]and be unto me a [k]father and a priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year, and ‡ § a suit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons.

12 And Micah [l]consecrated the Levite; and the young man [m]became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, Now know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The Danites send five men to seek out an inheritance. 3 At the house of Micah they consult with Jonathan, and are encouraged in their way. 7 They search Laish, and bring back news of good hope. 11 Six hundred men are sent to surprise it. 14 In the way they rob Micah of his priest and his consecrate things. 27 They win Laish, and call it Dan. 30 They set up idolatry, wherein Jonathan inherited the priesthood.

IN [a]those days there was no king in Israel: and in those days [b]the tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, * men of valour, from [c]Zorah, and from Eshtaol, [d]to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they came to mount Ephraim, to the [e]house of Micah, they lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath [f]hired me, and I am his priest.

5 And they said unto him, [g]Ask counsel, we pray thee, [h]of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the priest said unto them, [i]Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

7 ¶ Then the five men departed, and came to [k]Laish, and saw the people that were therein, [l]how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; and there was no † magistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man.

8 And they came unto their brethren to [m]Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye?

9 And they said, [n]Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are ye [o]still? be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land.

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people [p]secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; [q]a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 ¶ And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men ‡ appointed with weapons of war.

12 And they went up, and pitched in [r]Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place [s]Mahaneh-dan unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim.

13 And they passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto [t]the house of Micah.

14 ¶ [u]Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Do ye know that [x]there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what ye have to do.

15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and § saluted him.

16 And the [y]six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

17 And [z]the five men that went to spy out the land went up, and came in thither, and took [a]the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

18 And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye?

19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, [b]lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, [c]and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?

20 And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the carriage before them.

22 ¶ And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, ‖ that thou comest with such a company?

24 And he said, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest * angry fellows run upon thee, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy houshold.

26 And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house.

27 And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and [d]came unto Laish, unto a people that were at quiet and secure: [e]and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.

28 And there was no deliverer, because it was [f]far from Zidon, and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lieth [g]by Beth-rehob. And they built a city, and dwelt therein.

29 And [h]they called the name of the city [i]Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the first.

30 ¶ And the children of Dan set up the graven image: and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan [k]until the day of the captivity of the land.

31 And they set them up Micah's graven image, which he made, [l]all the time that there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who took to him * a concubine out of [b]Beth-lehem-judah.

2 And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there † ‡ four whole months.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak § friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house: and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father in law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son in law, ‖ [c]Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way.

6 And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsel's father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry.

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged him: therefore he lodged there again.

8 And he arose early in the morning, on the fifth day to depart: and the damsel's father said, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee. And they tarried * until afternoon, and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day † draweth toward evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, ‡ the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go § home.

10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came ‖ over against [d]Jebus, which is Jerusalem; and there were with him two asses saddled, his concubine also was with him.

11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in into this city [e]of the Jebusites, and lodge in it.

12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger, that is not of the children of Israel; we will pass over [f]to Gibeah.

15 And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah: and when he went in, he sat him down in a street of the city: for there was no man that [h] took them into his house to lodging.

16 ¶ And, behold, there came an old man from [i] his work out of the field at even, which was also of mount Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeah: but the men of the place were Benjamites.

17 And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou?

18 And he said unto him, We are passing from Beth-lehem-judah toward the side of mount Ephraim; from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem-judah, but I am now going to [k] the house of the LORD; and there is no man that [*] receiveth me to house.

22 ¶ Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, [p] the men of the city, certain [q] sons of Belial, beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, [r] Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him.

23 And [s] the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, nay, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into mine house, [t] do not this folly.

25 But the men would not hearken to him: so the man took his concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they [y] knew her, and abused her all the night until the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her go.

26 Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, till it was light.

13 Now therefore deliver us the men, [m]the children of Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and [n]put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel:

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men [o]lefthanded; every one could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not miss.

17 And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.

18 ¶ And the children of Israel arose, and [p]went up to the house of God, and [q]asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah.

21 And [r]the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the people the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 ([s]And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And [t]Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 ¶ Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, [u]went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. B. C. clv. 1406

29 And Israel [a]set liers in wait round about Gibeah.

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar: and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: [b]but they knew not that evil was near them.

35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: [c]for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah.

RUTH. "This Book," says Mr. Locke, "was most probably written by Samuel, and in favour of the family of David, as appears from the genealogy at the close of it. It is a kind of supplement to the Book of Judges, properly filling up the void between that and the Book of Samuel." Respecting the principal design of it, see the note on chap. iv. 17. Houbigant, in his Bible, places it between the books of Esther and the Chronicles.

"The sum of the history in this Book is the following:—A man of Beth-lehem, named Elimelech, with his wife Naomi, and his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, left his own country in the time of a famine, and went to sojourn in the land of Moab. There he died; and Naomi married her two sons to two Moabitish women. Mahlon married Ruth, who is the chief subject of this book; and Chilion married one named Orpah. In about ten years both these brethren died; and Naomi, accompanied by her two daughters-in-law, set out to return to the land of Judah, she having heard that plenty was again restored to her country. On the way she besought her daughters to return to their own country and kindred. Orpah took her advice, and, after an affectionate parting, returned; but Ruth insisted on accompanying her mother-in-law. They arrived in Bethlehem about the time of harvest; and Ruth went into the fields to glean for their support. The ground on which she was accidentally employed belonged to Boaz, one of the relatives of Elimelech, her father-in-law, who, finding who she was, ordered her to be kindly treated, and appointed her both meat and drink with his own servants. Finding that she was by marriage his kinswoman, he purposed to take her to wife, if a nearer kinsman who was then living should refuse. He was accordingly applied to, refused to take Ruth, and surrendered his right to her, according to the custom of those times, at the gate of Bethlehem, before the elders of the city. Boaz then took her to wife, by whom she had Obed, who was father to Jesse, the father of David."—Dr. Adam Clarke.

CHAP. I. Ver. 1. In the days when the judges ruled.—Under what judges the events recorded in this book happened is uncertain.

Ver. 4. They took them wives, &c.—"We must necessarily conclude from hence that these women had become proselytes to the Jewish religion, otherwise it was not lawful for Jews to have married them. The case is plain with respect to Ruth (see ver. 16.), and it appears to me that Orpah not only left her mother and returned to her own country, but also apostatized from the religion she had embraced to the idol-worship of Moab, see ver. 15."—Dr. Dodd.

19 ¶ So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Beth-lehem, that [y] all the city was moved about them, and they said, [z] Is this Naomi?

20 And she said unto them, Call me not ‡ Naomi, call me § Mara: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me.

21 I went out full, [a] and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem [b] in the beginning of barley harvest.

CHAP. II.

1 Ruth gleaneth in the fields of Boaz. 4 Boaz taking knowledge of her, 8 sheweth her great favour. 18 That which she got, she carrieth to Naomi.

AND Naomi had a [a] kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was [b] * Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and [c] glean ears of corn after him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her † hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

4 ¶ And, behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, [d] The LORD be with you. And they answered him, the LORD bless thee.

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this?

6 And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel [e] that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

7 And she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now, that she tarried a little in the house.

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens:

9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn.

10 Then she [f] fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger?

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me, [g] all that thou hast done unto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband: and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore.

12 [h] The LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, [i] under whose wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, ‡ [k] Let me find favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken § friendly unto thine handmaid, [l] though I be not like unto one of thine handmaidens.

14 And Boaz said unto her, At mealtime come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parched corn, and she did eat, and [m] was sufficed, and left.

15 And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and ‖ reproach her not:

16 And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley.

18 ¶ And she took it up, and went into the city: and her mother in law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth, and gave to her [n] that she had reserved after she was sufficed.

19 And her mother in law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he that did [o] take knowledge of thee. And she shewed her mother in law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought to day is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, [p] Blessed be he of the LORD, who [q] hath not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, [r] * one of our next kinsmen.

21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said unto me also, Thou shalt keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.

22 And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter in law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, that they † meet thee not in any other field.

23 So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and dwelt with her mother in law.

CHAP. III.

1 By Naomi's instruction, 5 Ruth lieth at Boaz's feet. 8 Boaz acknowledgeth the right of a kinsman. 14 He sendeth her away with six measures of barley.

THEN Naomi her mother in law said unto her, My daughter, [s] shall I not seek [b] rest for thee, that it may be well with thee?

2 And now is not Boaz of our kindred, [c] with whose maidens thou wast? Behold, he winnoweth barley to night in the threshingfloor.

3 Wash thyself therefore, [d] and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking.

4 And it shall be, when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and * uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do.

5 And she said unto her, All that thou sayest unto me I will do.

6 ¶ And she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and [e] his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down.

8 ¶ And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was afraid, and † turned himself: and, behold, a woman lay at his feet.

9 And he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaid: [f] spread therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou art ‡ a near kinsman.

10 And he said, [b] Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter: for thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than [i] at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the § city of my people doth know that thou art [k] a virtuous woman.

12 And now it is true that I am thy [l] near kinsman: howbeit [m] there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13 Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will [n] perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, [o] as the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning.

14 ¶ And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, [p] Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor.

15 Also he said, Bring the ‖ vail that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

16 And when she came to her mother in law, she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her.

17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother in law.

18 Then said she, [q] Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he have finished the thing this day.

CHAP. IV.

1 Boaz calleth into judgment the next kinsman. 6 He refuseth the redemption according to the manner of Israel. 9 Boaz buyeth the inheritance. 11 He marrieth Ruth. 13 She beareth Obed the grandfather of David. 18 The generation of Pharez.

THEN went Boaz up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, [a] the kinsman of whom Boaz spake came by; unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of [b] the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's:

4 And * I thought to advertise thee, saying, [c] Buy it [d] before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: [e] for there is none to redeem it beside thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, [f] to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6 ¶ [g] And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself; for I cannot redeem it.

7 [h] Now this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe.

9 ¶ And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

CHAP. III. Ver. 7. And laid her down.—"Though the action of Ruth here set forth seems at first sight hardly consistent with decency; yet if we consider the simplicity of those times, it will appear very excusable: to which, if we add the virtuous character of the woman, the age of Boaz, the manner of his addressing her when he first perceived her, the testimony he gave to her prudence and good conduct, the public proceedings before the whole city, and the several other circumstances of this history, there is not, at least ground to suspect the virtue of either of them; and there is nothing but the purest innocence in the whole transaction."—Osterwald.

Ver. 9. Spread therefore thy skirt over thine hand maid.—This is a proverbial form of expression, signifying, Take me under thy protection.

CHAP. IV. Ver. 1. Then went Boaz up to the gate.—"We here see the simple manner in which judicial proceedings took place in those times. The judge sat in the gate, the place of resort in every city where public business was transacted; no writings were employed or tedious formalities observed, but the party was merely summoned to make his appearance. In this instance Boaz probably summoned the person he names, although the sacred writer has not expressed the name, but merely used the general words which we translate, 'Ho, such a one.'"—Calmet

10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, [t] that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

1 Elkanah a Levite, having two wives, worshippeth yearly at Shiloh. 4 He cherisheth Hannah, though barren, and provoked by Peninnah. 9 Hannah in grief prayeth for a child. 12 Eli first rebuking her, afterwards blesseth her. 19 Hannah having born Samuel, stayeth at home till he be weaned. 24 She presenteth him, according to her vow, to the LORD.

NOW there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was [a] Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, [b] an Ephrathite:

2 And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city [c] * yearly [d] to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in [e] Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there.

4 ¶ And when the time was that Elkanah [f] offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions:

5 But unto Hannah he gave † a worthy portion; for he loved Hannah: [g] but the LORD had shut up her womb.

6 And her adversary also ‡ [h] provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb.

7 And as he did so year by year, § ‖ when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat.

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I [i] better to thee than ten sons?

9 ¶ So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk.

SAMUEL. "The sacred history having digressed to relate the idolatry of the house of Micah, and of the Danites, the catastrophe of the Benjamites, and the marriage of Ruth with Boaz, resumes the thread of the narrative respecting the Judges, and gives us an account of the birth of Samuel, whom God raised up for his people after the death of Samson. The two books which bear the name of Samuel, comprehend an historical account of the transactions which happened in the time of the two last judges, Eli and Samuel, and of the two first kings, Saul and David. They were composed, says Mr. Locke, in part by Samuel himself; at least the first twenty-four chapters of the first book; and the next probably by Nathan or Gad, or some prophet of those times. See 1 Chron. xxix. 29. The Vulgate styles the books of Samuel and Kings, the first, second, third and fourth book of Kings, as they contain the history of the kings of Israel and Judah. Father Simon is of opinion from several passages of these books, that Samuel could not have been the author of them; but those passages might, probably, have been inserted by Ezra when he collected and revised the books of sacred Scripture."—Dr. Dodd. "The first book of Samuel opens with an account of the birth of Samuel. It describes his consecration to the ministry, and his appointment to the prophetical office; the capture of the ark, and the completion of God's judgment on Eli's house; the curse of those who possessed the ark; its return, and the signal punishment of those who daringly profaned its sanctuary; the election of Saul to be king; the wars and evils which arose, as had been foretold, in consequence of this change of government; the sins and rejection of Saul; the anointing of David, and the first display of his piety and heroism; the disinterested friendship of David and Jonathan; the ungenerous conduct of Saul; the death of Samuel; the appearance of his spirit denouncing judgment against the impiety of Saul; in the accomplishment of which the book terminates, with the account of the miserable fate of Saul and his sons. The sacred writer illustrates the characters, and describes the events of his history, in the most engaging manner. The weak indulgence of Eli is well contrasted with the firm piety of Samuel. The rising virtues of David and the sad depravity of Saul, are strikingly opposed. The sentiments and instructions scattered through the work are excellent; and the sublime hymn of Hannah furnishes us with a grand prophecy of Christ, who was born for the first time in Scripture, described as the Messiah, or the anointed of the Lord."—Dr. Gray.

CHAP. I. Ver. 1. A certain man, &c.—By comparing the words of this verse with those in 1 Chron. vi. 18, 23, 33, 34, and the following, it appears that Elkanah was of the tribe of Levi, of the family of Kohath, and consequently was not a priest, as some have supposed, much less the high priest. See Selden de Succ. in Pont. lib. 1. cap. 18.

Ver. 4. Portions.—The portions here spoken of are "those parts of the peace offerings, which belonged to him that offered them; which were not the whole, except the fat, which belonged to the Lord, and the breast and the shoulder, which belonged to the priest. Lev. vii 34. With the rest the sacrificer made a feast for himself, his family and friends, giving to every one a portion of the sacrifice; whereby they had communion with the altar, by partaking with him of his sacrifice which had been offered to him at the altar."—Bishop Patrick.

B. C. cir. 1171. Now Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of [k] the temple of the LORD.

10 [l] And she was * in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore.

11 And she [m] vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed [n] look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and [o] remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but will give unto thine handmaid † a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and [p] there shall no razor come upon his head.

12 And it came to pass, as she ‡ continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth.

13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.

14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee.

15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman § of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have [q] poured out my soul before the LORD.

16 Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of [r] Belial: for out of the abundance of my ‖ complaint and grief have I spoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered and said, [s] Go in peace: and [t] the God of Israel grant thee thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 And she said, [u] Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight. So the woman [x] went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad.

19 ¶ And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah [y] knew Hannah his wife; and [z] the LORD remembered her.

20 Wherefore it came to pass, * when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name † Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house, [a] went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.

22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will [b] bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there [c] abide [d] for ever.

23 And [e] Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; [f] only the LORD establish his word. So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

24 ¶ And when she had weaned him, she [g] took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto [h] the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child was young. B. C. cir. 1165.

25 And they slew a bullock, and [i] brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, O my lord, [k] as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD.

27 [l] For this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him:

28 [m] Therefore also I have ‡ lent him to the LORD; as long as he liveth § he shall be lent to the LORD. And he [n] worshipped the LORD there.

3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly; [g] let not * arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.

5 [i] They that were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they that were hungry ceased: so that [k] the barren hath born seven; and [l] she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

6 [m] The LORD killeth, and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

7 The LORD [n] maketh poor, and maketh rich: [o] he bringeth low, and lifteth up.

8 [p] He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, [q] to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for [r] the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and he hath set the world upon them.

9 [s] He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail.

10 The adversaries of the LORD shall be [t] broken to pieces; [u] out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: [x] the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength unto his king, and [y] exalt the horn of his anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. [z] And the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest.

12 ¶ Now the sons of Eli were [a] sons of Belial; [b] they knew not the LORD.

B. C. cir. 1165. flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand;

14 And he struck it into [e] the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither.

15 Also before they [d] burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw.

16 And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat † presently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay; but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force.

17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great [e] before the LORD: for men [f] abhorred the offering of the LORD.

18 ¶ [g] But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, [h] girded with a linen ephod.

19 Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she [i] came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 ¶ And Eli [k] blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman for the ‡ loan which is [l] lent to the LORD. And they went unto their own home.

21 And the LORD [m] visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel [n] grew before the LORD.

22 ¶ Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with [o] the women that § assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for ‖ I hear of your evil dealings by all this people.

24 Nay, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear: ye make the LORD's people [*] to transgress.

25 If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man [p] sin against the LORD, who shall intreat for him? Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, [q] because the LORD would slay them.

26 And the child Samuel [r] grew on, and was [s] in favour both with the LORD, and also with men.

27 ¶ [t] And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [u] Did I plainly appear unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?

28 And did I [x] choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? and [y] did I give unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel?

29 Wherefore [z] kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded in my [a] habitation; and honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, [b] I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the LORD saith, [c] Be it far from me; for them that honour me [d] I will honour, and [e] they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

31 Behold, [f] the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see † an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be [g] an old man in thine house for ever.

33 And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die ‡ in the flower of their age.

34 And this shall be [h] a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas; [i] in one day they shall die both of them.

35 And [k] I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in mine heart and in my mind: and [l] I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before [m] mine anointed for ever.

36 [n] And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thine house shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, § Put me, I pray thee, into ‖ one of the priest's offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

8 They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, [k] the hand of the LORD was against the city [l] with a very great destruction: and [m] he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, [k]as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he had wrought [†] wonderfully among them, [l]did they not let [‡] the people go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make [m]a new cart, and take two milch kine, [n]on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them:

8 And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put [o]the jewels of gold, which ye return him for a trespass offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go.

9 And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to [p]Beth-shemesh, then [§] he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then [q]we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us.

10 ¶ And the men did so; and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home:

11 And they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their emerods.

12 And the kine took the straight way to the way of Beth-shemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh.

13 And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt offering unto the LORD.

15 And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD.

16 And when [r]the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 [s]And these are the golden emerods which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering unto the LORD; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one;

18 And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of country villages, even unto the ‖ great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD: which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua, the Beth-shemite.

19 ¶ And [t]he smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, [u]Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? and to whom shall he go up from us?

21 ¶ And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of [x]Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, and fetch it up to you.

AND the men of [a]Kirjath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of [b]Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

2 And it came to pass, while the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD. cir. 1120.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away [h]Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, [k]and drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and [l]fasted on that day, and said there, [m]We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel [n]judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

B. C. cir. 1120. the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, * °Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: [r] but the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Bethcar.

12 Then Samuel [s] took a stone, and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it ‡ Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

13 ¶ [t] So the Philistines were subdued, and they [u] came no more into the coast of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the coasts thereof did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel [x] judged Israel all the days of his life.

16 And he went from year to year § in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.

2 Now the name of his firstborn was * Joel; and the name of his second, Abiah: they were judges in Beer-sheba.

3 And his sons [c] walked not in his ways, but turned aside [d] after lucre, and [e] took bribes, and perverted judgment.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah,

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now [f] make us a king to judge us like all the nations.

6 ¶ But the thing † displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD.

7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for [g] they have not rejected thee, but [h] they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

9 Now therefore ‡ hearken unto their voice: § howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and [i] shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

12 And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be bakers.

14 And [m] he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his ‖ officers, and to his servants.

16 And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his servants.

18 And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the LORD [n] will not hear you in that day.

19 ¶ Nevertheless the people [o] refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us;

20 That we also may be [p] like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD.

B. C. 1095.

NOW there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was [a]Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, [*] a Benjamite, a mighty man of [†] power.

2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: [b]from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish Saul's father were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses.

4 And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of [c]Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5 And when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city [d]a man of God, and he is an honourable man; [e]all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

7 Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, if we go, [f]what shall we bring the man? for the bread ‡ is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what § have we?

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, ‖ I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man [g]went to enquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a Prophet was beforetime called [h]a Seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his servant, [*] Well said; come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they went up [†] the hill to the city, [i]they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; for [k]there is a ‡ sacrifice of the people to day [l]in the high place:

13 As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; § for about § this time ye shall find him.

14 And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ [m]Now the LORD had ‖ told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying,

16 To morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, [n]and thou shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have [o]looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said unto him, [p]Behold the man whom I spake to thee of! this same shall [*] reign over my people.

18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to day, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.

20 And as for [q]thine asses that were lost [†] three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom [r]is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house?

21 And Saul answered and said, [s]Am not I a Benjamite, of the [t]smallest of the tribes of Israel? and [u]my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou ‡ so to me?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.

24 And the cook took up [x]the shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is § left! set it before thee, and eat: for unto this time hath it been kept for thee since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

25 ¶ And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel communed with Saul upon [y]the top of the house.

26 And they arose early: and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still ‖ a while, that I may shew thee the word of God.

3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, [*] Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.

4 ¶ Then came the messengers [e] to Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and [f] all the people lifted up their voices, and wept.

5 And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, What aileth the people that they weep? and they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

6 [g] And the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and [h] hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, [i] Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out † with one consent.

8 [n] When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers [o] cried unto the LORD, then the LORD [p] sent Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they [q] forgat the LORD their God, [r] he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of [s] the Philistines, and into the hand of the king [t] of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried unto the LORD, and said, [u] We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, [x] and have served Baalim and Ashtaroth: but now [y] deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.

11 And the LORD sent [z] Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and [a] Jephthah, and [b] Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.

4 And all Israel heard say that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also ‡was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

B. C. cir. 1062. abode in ‡ Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

17 ¶ And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to [k] Ophrah, unto the land of Shual:

18 And another company turned the way to [l] Beth-horon: and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh to the valley of [m] Zeboim toward the wilderness.

19 ¶ Now [n] there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears:

20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his ax, and his mattock.

21 Yet they had § a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and ‖ to sharpen the goads.

22 So it came to pass in the day of battle, that [o] there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found.

23 [p] And the * garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of Michmash.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Jonathan, unwitting to his father, the priest, or the people, goeth and miraculously smiteth the Philistines' garrison. 15 A divine terror maketh them beat themselves. 17 Saul, not staying the priest's answer, setteth on them. 21 The captivated Hebrews, and the hidden Israelites, join against them. 24 Saul's unadvised adjuration hindereth the victory. 32 He restraineth the people from eating blood. 35 He buildeth an altar. 36 Jonathan, taken by lot, is saved by the people. 47 Saul's strength and family.

NOW * it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side. But he told not his father.

2 And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in Migron: and the people that were with him were [a] about six hundred men;

3 And [b] Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, [c] Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in Shiloh, [d] wearing an ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 ¶ And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over * unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The † forefront of the one was situate northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD [r] to save by many or by few.

B. C. cir. 1027.

7 And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them.

9 If they say thus unto us, ‡ Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for [s] the LORD hath delivered them into our hand: and [h] this shall be a sign unto us.

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were § an half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

15 And [t] there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and [k] the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was ‖ [t] a very great trembling.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they [m] went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

19 ¶ And it came to pass, while Saul [n] talked unto the priest, that the *‖ noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him † assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, [o] every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

B. C. cir 1037.

21 Moreover the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Israel which [p] had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 [q] So the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over [r] unto Beth-aven.

24 ¶ And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had [s] adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food.

25 [t] And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was [u] honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father straightly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were ‡ faint.

‡ Or, weary.

29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them [x] with the blood.

33 ¶ Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have § transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day.

§ Or, dealt treacherously.

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox ‖ with him that night, and slew them there.

‖ Heb. in his hand.

35 And Saul [y] built an altar unto the LORD: [z] the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.

[z] Heb. that altar was the beginning to build unto the LORD.

36 ¶ And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But [a] he answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, [b] Draw ye near hither, all the † chief of the people: and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day.

† Heb. corners.

39 For, [c] as the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, ‡ [d] Give a perfect lot. [e] And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people § escaped.

‡ Or, Shew me right.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, [f] Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, [g] I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and, lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, [h] God do so and more also: [i] for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: [k] as the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 ¶ So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of [k] Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of [l] Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them.

B. C. cir. 1079.

26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: [e] for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, [f] he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, [g] The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also the ‖ Strength of Israel [h] will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet [i] honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God.

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

32 ¶ Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.

33 And Samuel said, [k] As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

34 ¶ Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to [l] Gibeah of Saul.

35 And [m] Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel [n] mourned for Saul: and the LORD [o] repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

B. C. cir. 1063.

AND the LORD said unto Samuel, [a] How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing [b] I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? [c] fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite: for [d] I have provided me a king among his sons.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and [f] I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and [g] thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the town [h] trembled at his † coming, and said, [i] Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: [k] sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice

And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 ¶ And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on [l] Eliab, and [m] said, Surely the LORD'S anointed is before him.

7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on [n] his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: [o] for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man [p] looketh on the ‡ outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the [q] heart.

8 Then Jesse called [r] Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made [s] § Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

10 Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, [t] There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, [u] Send and fetch him: for we will not sit ‖ down till he come hither.

12 And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was [x] ruddy, and withal * of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. [y] And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and [z] anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and [a] the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14 ¶ [b] But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and [c] an evil spirit from the LORD † troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, which are [d] before thee, to seek out a man, who is a cunning player on an harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall [e] play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and [f] a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in ‡ matters, and a comely person, and [g] the LORD is with him.

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, [h] which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse [i] took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and [k] stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer.

another, and [a] spake after the same † manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he ‡ sent for him.

32 ¶ And David said to Saul, [b] Let no man's heart fail because of him; [c] thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine.

33 And Saul said to David, [d] Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a § lamb out of the flock:

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

37 David said moreover, [e] The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and [f] the LORD be with thee.

38 ¶ And Saul ‖ armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.

40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the * brook, and put them in a shepherd's † bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he [g] disdained him: for he was but a youth, and [h] ruddy, and of a fair countenance.

43 And the Philistine said unto David, [i] Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

44 And the Philistine [k] said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: [l] but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast [m] defied.

46 This day will the LORD ‡ deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give [n] the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; [o] that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

47 And all this assembly shall know that the LORD [p] saveth not with sword and spear: for [q] the battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hands.

48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50 So [r] David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, [s] they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to [t] Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent.

55 ¶ And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, Abner, [u] whose son is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell.

56 And the king said, Enquire thou whose son the stripling is.

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul [x] with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, [y] I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.

soul of David, [b] and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, [c] and would let him go no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 ¶ And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and * behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the † Philistine, that [d] the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with ‡ instruments of musick.

7 And the women [e] answered one another as they played, and said, [f] Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying § [g] displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but [h] the kingdom?

9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

10 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that [i] the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, [k] and he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, as at other times: [l] and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul [m] cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his presence twice.

12 ¶ And Saul was [n] afraid of David, because [o] the LORD was with him, and was [p] departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and [q] he went out and came in before the people.

14 And David ‖ behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and [r] the LORD was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But [s] all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

17 ¶ And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Merab, [t] her will I give thee to wife: only be thou * valiant for me, and fight [u] the LORD's battles. For Saul said, [x] Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him.

18 And David said unto Saul, [y] Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?

19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto [z] Adriel the [a] Meholathite to wife.

20 [b] And Michal Saul's daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing † pleased him.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be [c] a snare to him, and that [d] the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt [e] this day be my son in law in the one of the twain.

22 ¶ And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son in law.

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, ‡ On this manner spake David.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any [f] dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be [g] avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul [h] thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law: and [i] the days were not § expired.

27 Wherefore David arose and went, he and [k] his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and [l] David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

28 ¶ And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal Saul's daughter loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy continually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines [m] went forth: and it came to pass after they went forth, that David [n] behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much ‖ set by.

2 But Jonathan Saul's son [a] delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself:

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee.

4 ¶ And Jonathan [b] spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king [c] sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee ward very good:

5 For he did put his [d] life in his hand, and [e] slew the Philistine, and [f] the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice: [g] wherefore then wilt thou [h] sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, [i] as * in times past.

8 ¶ And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from † him.

9 And [k] the evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand.

10 And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night.

11 [l] Saul also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to night, to morrow thou shalt be slain.

12 ¶ So Michal [m] let David down through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 And Michal took an ‡ image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster.

17 And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; [n] why should I kill thee?

18 ¶ So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And [o] Saul sent messengers to take David: [p] and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also [q] prophesied.

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also.

22 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? and one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah: and [r] the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 [s] And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and § lay down [t] naked all the day and all that night. Wherefore they say, [u] Is Saul also among the prophets?

there is a yearly § sacrifice there for all the family.

7 [d] If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be wroth, then be sure that [e] evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt [f] deal kindly with thy servant; for [g] thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, [h] if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly?

11 ¶ And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, O LORD God of Israel, when I have ‖ sounded my father about to morrow any time, or the third day, and, behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and * shew it thee;

13 [i] The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and [k] the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But also [l] thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.

16 So Jonathan † made a covenant with the house of David, saying, [m] Let the LORD even require it at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, ‡ because he loved him: [n] for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, [o] To morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be § empty.

19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down ‖ * quickly, and come to [p] the place where thou didst hide thyself † when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone ‡ Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And, behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for there is peace to thee, and § no hurt; [q] as the LORD liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away.

23 And as touching [r] the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD be between thee and me for ever.

24 ¶ So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is [s] not clean; surely he is not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to day?

28 And Jonathan [t] answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, ‖ * Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he † shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, [u] Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

33 And Saul [x] cast a javelin at him to smite him: [y] whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow ‡ beyond him.

10 [k]And he enquired of the LORD for him, and [l]gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, [t] Is this thy voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept.

17 [u] And he said to David, Thou art [x] more righteous than I: for [y] thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil.

18 And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as [z] the LORD had ‖ delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me not.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Samuel dieth. 2 David in Paran sendeth to Nabal. 10 Provoked by Nabal's churlishness, he mindeth to destroy him. 14 Abigail understanding thereof, 18 taketh a present, 23 and by her wisdom 32 pacifieth David. 36 Nabal hearing thereof dieth. 39 David taketh Abigail and Ahinoam to be his wives. 44 Michal is given to Phalti.

AND [a] Samuel died; and all the Israelites were gathered together, and [b] lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose, and went down [c] to the wilderness of Paran.

2 And there was a man [d] in Maon, whose * possessions were in [e] Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was of the house of Caleb.

4 ¶ And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did [f] shear his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and † greet him in my name:

6 And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperity, [g] Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we ‡ hurt them not, [h] neither was there ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in [i] a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and § ceased.

10 ¶ And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, [k] Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days that break away every man from his master.

11 [l] Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my ‖ flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?

12 So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred [m] abode by the stuff.

14 ¶ But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he * railed on them.

15 But the men were very good unto us, and [n] we were not † hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields:

16 They were [o] a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for [p] evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a son of [q] Belial, that a man cannot speak to him.

18 ¶ Then Abigail made haste, and [r] took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred ‡ clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

19 And she said unto her servants, [s] Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

that Saul came after him into the wilderness.
4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.
5 ¶ And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and [b] Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the * trench, and the people pitched round about him.
6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai [c] the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will [d] go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee.
7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him.
8 Then said Abishai to David, God hath † delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time.
9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: [e] for who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?
10 David said furthermore, As the LORD liveth, [f] the LORD shall smite him; or [g] his day shall come to die; or he shall [h] descend into battle, and perish.
11 [i] The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.
12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because [k] a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.
13 ¶ Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off; a great space being between them:
14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king?
15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.
16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are ‡ worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.
17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, [l] Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.
18 And he said, [m] Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?
19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD have [n] stirred thee up against me, let him § accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; [o] for they have driven me out this day from ‖ abiding in the [p] inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods.
20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek [q] a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.
21 ¶ Then said Saul, [r] I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was [s] precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.
22 And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.
23 [t] The LORD render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed.
24 And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.
25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still [u] prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

Ver. 12. And when the woman saw Samuel.—This history of Samuel's appearing to Saul has greatly perplexed all commentators, and it must be confessed that none of their conjectures are at all satisfactory. "The most probable and best supported opinion is," says Dr. Gray, "that [illegible] suffered Samuel's departed spirit, or a miraculous representation of him, to appear to Saul, and, as a punishment for his presumptuous [illegible] to disclose his impending fate. The woman was herself terrified at the appearance, which probably she designed a deception, and was [illegible] her incantations."

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest on thy way.

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof:

25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me [d] these days, or these years, and I have [e] found no fault in him since he fell unto me unto this day?

d See ch. 27. 7. e Dan. 6. 4.

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, [f] Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest [g] in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the heads of these men?

1 The Amalekites spoil Ziklag. 4 David asking counsel is encouraged by God to pursue them. 11 By the means of a revived Egyptian he is brought to the enemies, and recovereth all the spoil. 22 David's law to divide the spoil equally between them that fight and them that keep the stuff. 26 He sendeth presents to his friends.

AND it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the [a] Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire;

a See ch. 15. 7. & 27. 8.

2 And had taken the women captives, that were therein: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way.

3 ¶ So David and his men came to the city, and, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives.

4 Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's [b] two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

b ch. 25. 42, 43. 2. 2.

6 And David was greatly distressed; [c] for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was * grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: [d] but David encouraged himself in the LORD his God.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: [g] for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor.

11 ¶ And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water;

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and [h] when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days agone I fell sick.

14 We made an invasion upon the south of [i] the Cherethites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of [k] Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company.

16 ¶ And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, [l] eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

17 And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of † the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled.

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: [m] David recovered all.

20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drave before those other cattle, and said, This is David's spoil.

21 ¶ And David came to the [n] two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: and when David came near to the people, he ‡ saluted them.

22 Then answered all the wicked men and men [o] of Belial, of § those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart.

23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us into our hand.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but [p] as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.

25 And it was so from that day ‖ forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

26 ¶ And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold a * present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD;

27 To them which were in Beth-el, and to them which were in [q] south Ramoth, and to them which were in [r] Jattir,

28 And to them which were in [s] Aroer, and to them which were in Siphmoth, and to them which were in [t] Eshtemoa,

31 And to them which were in [z] Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

NOW [a] the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down * slain in mount [b] Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and [the Philistines slew [c] Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Melchi-shua, Saul's sons.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his men, that same day together.

CHAP. I.

1 The Amalekite, who brought tidings of the overthrow, and accused himself of Saul's death, is slain. 17 David lamenteth Saul and Jonathan with a song.

NOW it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from [a] the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag;

2 It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, [b] a man came out of the camp from Saul [c] with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

3 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4 And David said unto him, * How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?

6 And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon [d] mount Gilboa, behold, [e] Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, † Here am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for ‡ anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and [f] slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and [g] rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him:

12 And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

13 ¶ And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

14 And David said unto him, [h] How wast thou not [i] afraid to [k] stretch forth thine hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?

15 And [l] David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.

16 And David said unto him, [m] Thy blood be upon thy head; for [n] thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the LORD's anointed.

17 ¶ And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son:

18 (° Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: behold, it is written [p] in the book § of Jasher.)

19 The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: [q] how are the mighty fallen!

II. SAMUEL. The Second Book of Samuel is a continuation of the history of David after Saul's death, for the space of nearly forty years. "It was probably written," observes Bishop Tomline, "by Gad and Nathan, but it is impossible to assign to them their respective parts."

It has been divided into three parts. In the first, we have an account of the happy commencement of David's reign, Chap. i.—x. In the second, David's unhappy fall and its miserable consequences, Chap. xi.—xviii. In the third, his restoration to the Divine favour, the re-establishment of his kingdom, and the events which signalized the latter part of his reign, Chap. xix.—xxiv.

1 David, by God's direction, with his company goeth up to Hebron, where he is made king of Judah. 5 He commendeth them of Jabesh-gilead for their kindness to Saul. 8 Abner maketh Ish-bosheth king of Israel. 12 A mortal skirmish between twelve of Abner's and twelve of Joab's men. 18 Asahel is slain. 25 At Abner's motion Joab soundeth a retreat. 32 Asahel's burial.

* That is, The field of strong men.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day; and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

B. C. cir. 1053. 26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, As God liveth, unless [r] thou hadst spoken, surely then [*] in the morning the people had [†] gone up every one from following his brother.

28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and threescore men died.

32 ¶ And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

B. C. cir. 1048. Abner the son of Ner came to the king and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know [u] thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest.

26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab [x] took him aside in the gate to speak with him ‖ quietly, and smote him there [y] under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of [z] Asahel his brother.

28 ¶ And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the * blood of Abner the son of Ner:

29 [a] Let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not † fail from the house of Joab one [b] that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother [c] Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

31 ¶ And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, [d] Rend your clothes, and [e] gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the ‡ bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a [f] fool dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before § wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

35 And when all the people came [g] to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, [h] So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else, [i] till the sun be down.

36 And all the people took notice of it, and it ‖ pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day * weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah [k] be too hard for me: [l] the LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bed-chamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and gat them away through the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, [h] which sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 ¶ And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the LORD liveth, [i] who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites, and through the subterraneous passage reacheth the lame and the blind, who hate the life of David, (because the blind and the lame said, He shall not come into the house) shall be chief and captain. 6 ¶ And when they came to [c] Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah [f] put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen [*] shook it.

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and [g] God smote him there for his [†] error; and there he died by the ark of God.

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had [‡] made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place [§] Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 And [h] David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom [i] the Gittite.

11 [k] And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD [l] blessed Obed-edom, and all his houshold.

12 ¶ And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. [m] So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.

13 And it was so, that when [n] they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed [o] oxen and fatlings.

14 And David [p] danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded [q] with a linen ephod.

15 [r] So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And [s] as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 ¶ And [t] they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in [u] his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had ‖ pitched for it: and David offered burnt [x] offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, [y] he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 [z] And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed every one to his house.

20 ¶ [a] Then David returned to bless his houshold. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who [b] uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the [c] vain fellows [*] shamelessly uncovereth himself!

21 And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, [d] which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play before the LORD.

22 And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and [†] of the maidservants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour.

23 Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child [e] unto the day of her death.

enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee [t]that he will make thee an house.

12 ¶ And [u]when thy days be fulfilled, and thou [x]shalt sleep with thy fathers, [y]I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.

13 [z] He shall build an house for my name, and I will [a]stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14 [b]I will be his father, and he shall be my son. [c]If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men:

15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, [d]as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.

16 And [e]thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

18 ¶ Then went king David in, and sat before the LORD, and he said, [f]Who am I, O Lord GOD? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

19 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord GOD; [g]but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. [h]And is this the ‖ manner of man, O Lord GOD?

20 And what can David say more unto thee? for thou, Lord GOD, [i]knowest thy servant.

21 For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy servant know them.

22 Wherefore [k]thou art great, O LORD God: for [l]there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And [m]what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for thy land, before [n]thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

24 For [o]thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever: [p]and thou, LORD, art become their God.

25 And now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, establish it for ever, and do as thou hast said.

26 And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee.

27 For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast * revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee.

28 And now, O Lord GOD, thou art that God, and [q]thy words be true, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

29 Therefore now † let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord GOD, hast spoken it: and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed [r]for ever.

6 Now when * Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant!

B. C. cir. 1037. in of the gate: and [f]the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

12 [g]Be of good courage, and let us [h]play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and [i]the LORD do that which seemeth him good.

13 And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

cir. 1036. 15 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond ‡ the river: and they came to Helam; and § Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew the men of seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand [k]horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there.

19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and [l]served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAP. XI.

1 While Joab besieged Rabbah, David committeth adultery with Bath-sheba. 6 Uriah, sent for by David to cover the adultery, would not go home neither sober nor drunken. 14 He carrieth to Joab the letter of his death. 18 Joab sendeth the news thereof to David. 26 David taketh Bath-sheba to wife.

cir. 1035. AND it came to pass, [*]after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that [a]David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem.

2 ¶ And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, [b]and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he [c]saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon. B. C. cir. 1035.

3 And David sent and enquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this † Bath-sheba, the daughter of ‡ Eliam, the wife of [d]Uriah the Hittite?

4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and [e]he lay with her; § for she was [f]purified from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

6 ¶ And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him ‖ how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and [g]wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there [*]followed him a mess of meat from the king.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?

11 And Uriah said unto David, [h]The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and [i]my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry here to day also, and to morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him [k]drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed [l]with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that David [m]wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the † hottest battle, and retire ye ‡ from him, that he may [n]be smitten, and die.

16 And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.

17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18 ¶ Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;

AND the LORD sent Nathan unto David. And [a] he came unto him, and [b] said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

a Ps. 51. title. b See ch. 14. 5, &c. 1 Kin. 21. 35—41. Is. 5. 3.

2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds:

3 But the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own * meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, [i] the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house: [k] and the king and his throne be guiltless.

10 And the king said, Whosoever saith ought unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the LORD thy God, § that thou wouldest not suffer [l] the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, [m] As the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on.

13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against [n] the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again [o] his banished.

14 For we [p] must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; ‖ neither doth God respect any person: yet doth he [q] devise means, that his banished be not expelled from him.

15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God.

17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be * comfortable: for [r] as an angel of God, so is my lord the king † to discern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and [s] he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, [t] according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

21 ¶ And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and ‡ thanked the king: and Joab said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of § his servant.

23 So Joab arose [u] and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him [x] not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

25 ¶ ‖ But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: [y] from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the king's weight.

27 And [z] unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance.

28 ¶ So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, [a] and saw not the king's face.

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is * near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king [b] kissed Absalom.

AND [a] it came to pass after this, that Absalom [b] prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy * came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.

3 And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but † there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee.

4 Absalom said moreover, [c] Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: [d] so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

1023.

7 ¶ And it came to pass [e] after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron.

8 [f] For thy servant [g] vowed a vow [h] while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.

9 And the king said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 ¶ But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were [i] called; and they went [k] in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, [l] David's counsellor, from his city, even from [m] Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people [n] increased continually with Absalom.

13 ¶ And there came a messenger to David, saying, [o] The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us [p] flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and ‡ bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall § appoint.

16 And [q] the king went forth, and all his houshold ‖ after him. And the king left [r] ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house.

B. C. 1023.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; [s] and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

19 ¶ Then said the king to [t] Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also an exile.

20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day * make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go [u] whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee.

21 And Ittai answered the king, and said, [x] As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be.

22 And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook † Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the [y] wilderness.

24 ¶ And lo Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, [z] bearing the ark of the covenant of God: and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he [a] will bring me again, and shew me both it, and his habitation:

26 But if he thus say, I have no [b] delight in thee; behold, here am I, [c] let him do to me as seemeth good unto him.

27 The king said also unto Zadok the priest, Art not thou a [d] seer? return into the city in peace, and [e] your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

28 See, [f] I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.

30 ¶ And David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet, ‡ and wept as he went up, and [g] had his head covered, and he went [h] barefoot: and all the people that was with him [i] covered every man his head, and they went up [k] weeping as they went up.

34 But if thou return to the city, and say unto Absalom, [q] I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant: then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of Ahithophel.

[q] ch. 16. 19.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, [r] thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

[r] ch. 17. 15, 16.

36 Behold, they have there [s] with them their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye can hear.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, § They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.
§ Or, They plainly spake in the beginning, saying, Surely they will ask of Abel, and so make an end: See Deut. 20. 11.

19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up [m] the inheritance of the LORD?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man of mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri || by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people [n] in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they * retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

CHAP. XX. Ver. 9. And Joab took Amasa by the beard.—"This is the custom still among the Eastern people, the Indians, who take one another by the chin or the beard when they would give a hearty salute."—Bishop Patrick.

Ver. 15. They cast up a bank against the city.—"The word soleleh, which we render bank, means, most probably, a battering engine of some kind, or a tower overlooking the walls, on which archers and slingers could stand and annoy the inhabitants, while others of the besiegers could proceed to sap the walls. That it cannot be a bank that stood in the trench is evident from the circumstance thus expressed."—Clarke's Commentary.

Ver. 18. They were wont to speak in old time, &c.—"The meaning is by no means clear. The best sense seems to be, the inhabitants of this city spake in the beginning of the siege, saying,—'Surely they (Joab and his army) will ask us whether we will make peace, before proceeding to hostilities; and so will quickly end the matter on our coming to an agreement with them.'"—Dr. Wells.

CHAP. XXI.

1 The three years' famine for the Gibeonites cesseth, by hanging seven of Saul's sons. 10 Rizpah's kindness unto the dead. 12 David buriеth the bones of Saul and Jonathan in his father's sepulchre. 15 Four battles against the Philistines, wherein four valiants of David slay four giants.

THEN there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David * enquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites.

* Heb. sought the face, &c. See Num. 27. 21.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but [a] of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.)

[a] Josh. 9. 3, 15, 16, 17.

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless [b] the inheritance of the LORD?

[b] ch. 20. 19.

4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, † We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do for you.

† Or, It is not silver nor gold that we have to do with Saul or his house, neither pertaine it to us to kill, &c.

5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that ‡ devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel,

‡ Or, cast us off.

6 Let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD [c] in Gibeah of Saul, [d] § whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them.

[c] 1 Sam. 10. 26. & 11. 4.
[d] 1 Sam. 10. 24.
§ Or, chosen of the LORD.

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of [e] the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

[e] 1 Sam. 18. 3. & 20. 8, 15, 42 & 23. 18.

8 But the king took the two sons of [f] Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of ‖ Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she * brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite:

[f] ch. 3. 7.
‖ Or, Michal's sister.
* Heb. bare to Adriel.
1 Sam. 18. 19. 1019.

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill [g] before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

[g] ch. 6. 17.

10 ¶ And [h] Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, [i] from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

[h] ver. 8. ch. 3. 7.
[i] See Deut. 21. 23.

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 ¶ And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of [k] Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan, where the [l] Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa:

[l] 1 Sam. 31. 10.

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in [m] Zelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that [n] God was intreated for the land.

15 ¶ Moreover the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint.

16 And Ishbi-benob, which was of the sons of † the giant, the weight of whose ‡ spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David.

† Or, Rapha.
‡ Heb. the staff, or, the head.

17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, [o] Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the [p] § light of Israel.

19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of † Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, slew [s] the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

† Or, Jair.
[s] See 1 Chro. 20. 5.

20 And [t] there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to ‡ the giant.

[t] 1 Chro. 20. 6.
‡ Or, Rapha.

21 And when he § defied Israel, Jonathan the son of [u] Shimeah the brother of David slew him.

[b] refuge, my saviour; thou savest me from violence.

4 I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

5 When the * waves of death compassed me, the floods of † ungodly men made me afraid;

6 The ‡ [l] sorrows of hell compassed me about; the snares of death prevented me;

7 In my distress [k] I called upon the LORD, and cried to my God: and he did [l] hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry did enter into his ears.

8 Then [m] the earth shook and trembled; [n] the foundations of heaven moved and shook, because he was wroth.

9 There went up a smoke § out of his nostrils, and [o] fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

10 He [p] bowed the heavens also, and came down; and [q] darkness was under his feet.

11 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: and he was seen [r] upon the wings of the wind.

12 And he made [s] darkness pavilions round about him, || dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

13 Through the brightness before him were [t] coals of fire kindled.

14 The LORD [u] thundered from heaven, and the most High uttered his voice.

15 And he sent out [x] arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and discomfited them.

16 And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the [y] rebuking of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of his * nostrils.

17 [z] He sent from above, he took me; he drew me out of † many waters;

18 [a] He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

19 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

20 [b] He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he [c] delighted in me.

21 [d] The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the [e] cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

22 For I have [f] kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

23 For all his [g] judgments were before me: and as for his statutes, I did not depart from them.

24 I was also [h] upright ‡ before him, and have kept myself from mine iniquity.

25 Therefore [i] the LORD hath recompensed me according to my righteousness; according to my cleanness § in his eye sight.

26 With [k] the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful, and with the upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright.

27 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and [l] with the froward thou wilt || shew thyself unsavoury.

28 And the [m] afflicted people thou wilt save: but thine eyes are upon [n] the haughty, that thou mayest bring them down.

29 For thou art my * lamp, O LORD: and the LORD will lighten my darkness.

30 For by thee I have † run through a troop: by my God have I leaped over a wall.

31 As for God, [o] his way is perfect; [p] the word of the LORD is ‡ tried: he is a buckler to all them that trust in him.

32 For [q] who is God, save the LORD? and who is a rock, save our God?

33 God is my [r] strength and power: and he § [s] maketh my way [t] perfect.

34 He || maketh my feet [u] like hinds' feet: and [x] setteth me upon my high places.

35 [y] He teacheth my hands * to war; so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

36 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy gentleness hath † made me great.

37 Thou hast [z] enlarged my steps under me; so that my ‡ feet did not slip.

38 I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them; and turned not again until I had consumed them.

39 And I have consumed them, and wounded them, that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen [a] under my feet.

40 For thou hast [b] girded me with strength to battle: [c] them that rose up against me hast thou § subdued under me.

41 Thou hast also given me the [d] necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

42 They looked, but there was none to save; even [e] unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

43 Then did I beat them as small [f] as the dust of the earth, I did stamp them [g] as the mire of the street, and did spread them abroad.

44 [h] Thou also hast delivered me from the strivings of my people, thou hast kept me to be [i] head of the heathen: [k] a people which I knew not shall serve me.

45 || Strangers shall * † submit themselves unto me: as soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me.

46 Strangers shall fade away, and they shall be afraid [l] out of their close places.

47 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and exalted be the God of the [m] rock of my salvation.

48 It is God that ‡ avengeth me, and that [n] bringeth down the people under me,

49 And that bringeth me forth from mine enemies: thou also hast lifted me up on high above them that rose up against me: thou hast delivered me from the [o] violent man.

50 Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among [p] the heathen, and I will sing praises unto thy name.

51 [q] He is the tower of salvation for his king: and sheweth mercy to his [r] anointed, unto David, and [s] to his seed for evermore.
